Issues in contemporary critical theory Peter Barry, 1987 Contemporary Critical Theory and Methodology Piet Strydom, 2011 CONTEMPORARY CRITICAL THEORY (Coursepack), 2024 Contemporary Critical Theory Donald G. Marshall, 1993 Contemporary Critical Theory is an up to date overview of significant theories and theorists in literary studies The volume contains introductory essays on a range of critical theories from Russian formalism and New Criticism to postcolonial studies and the new historicism and lists nearly two thousand journals and books including translations published in English Many of the entries provide brief annotations Marshall summarizes the work of fifty prominent theorists such as Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Julia Kristeva and Jacques Lacan The bibliography and author summaries are arranged topically but listings are cross referenced to help users locate books that discuss a variety of approaches Contemporary Critical Theorists Jon Simons, 2004 Introduces students to key figures in critical theory with individual chapters on Lacan Althusser Barthes Derrida Levinas Kristeva Irigaray Cixous Foucault From Kant to Lévi-Strauss Jon Simons, 2002 Aimed at students without philosophical training and who study literary cultural social or political theorists engaging with this European intellectual tradition this textbook is an accessible guide to key figures in The Tradition of Critique Critical post Enlightenment European thinking Issues in Contemporary Critical Theory Peter Barry, 1987-11-24 Examines the issues which have provoked the current crisis in literary studies including the notion of the death of the author the reader's role in creating the text the nature of literary representation itself and the challenge offered to conventional approaches by stylistics and deconstruction Debate on these issues has transformed literary criticism since the 1960s From Agamben to Zizek Jon Simons, 2010-09-10 In these 15 taster essays you will discover the key concepts and critical approaches of the theorists who have had the most significant impact on the humanities since 1990 On completing each chapter you will find suggestions for further reading so that you can find out more and start applying the ideas in question In addition to chapters on individuals such as Badiou Rancière and Spivak there are chapters on Laclau and Mouffe and a chapter on Green critical theorists Ideals and Illusions Thomas McCarthy, 1993 These lucid and closely reasoned studies of the thought of Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Jürgen Habermas and Richard Rorty provide a coherent analysis of major pathways in recent critical theory They defend a position analogous to Kant's that ideas of reason are both unavoidable presuppositions of thought that have to be carefully reconstructed and persistent sources of illusions that have to be repeatedly deconstructed McCarthy examines the critique of impure reason from the complementary viewpoints of the attackers and defenders of Enlightenment rationality He first analyzes the work of Rorty Foucault and Derrida to determine what these radical critics have contributed to our understanding of reason and where they have gone wrong He explores Habermas's theory of communicative rationality focusing on the attempt to go beyond hermeneutics the incorporation of systems theory the implications of discourse ethics for our understanding of political debate and collective decision making and the relation of political theology to critical social theory Thomas McCarthy is Professor of Philosophy at Northwestern University and the editor of The MIT Press series Studies in Contemporary German Social Thought The analysis and assessment of Habermas's recent work in Ideals and Illusions serves as a sequel to his earlier study The Critical Theory of Jürgen Habermas Theology and Contemporary Critical Theory Graham Ward, 2000 Outlining the four fundamental concerns in the study of theology with representation history ethics and transcendence this book examines each of these concerns in the light of contemporary critical theory What becomes evident as the theological implications of various critical theories are assessed is the challenge and provocation to the study of theology presented by these thinkers The book points the way to the future of theological study within a cosmos re-encharanted by postmodernism The fifth edition of the text has been completely revised to take account of more recent work by the theorists discussed in the first edition In addition the work of four other critical theorists is examined Judith Butler Michel de Certeau the New Historicists and Jean-Luc Nancy

Critical Confrontations Meili Steele, 1997 To broaden the interpretive scope of critical theory and increase its usefulness this text draws tradition-based views of language and anti-humanistic theories from their abstract frameworks into the field of cultural studies It examines major thinkers and contemporary writers Critical Theory and World Politics Richard Wyn Jones, 2001 This text brings together leading critical theorists of world politics to discuss both the promise and the pitfalls of their work The contributors range broadly across the terrain of world politics engaging with both theory and emancipatory practice Critiques by two scholars from other IR traditions are also included The result is a seminal statement of the critical theory approach to understanding world politics Issues in Contemporary Critical Theory Peter
