Captive Cosmopolitans Mary E. Hicks, 2024-11-13 From the bustling ports of Lisbon to the coastal inlets of the Bight of Benin to the vibrant waterways of Bahia Black mariners were integral to every space of the commercial South Atlantic Navigating this kaleidoscopic world required a remarkable cosmopolitanism the chameleonlike ability to adapt to new surroundings by developing sophisticated medicinal linguistic and navigational knowledge Mary E Hicks shows how Portuguese slaving ship captains harnessed and exploited this hybridity to expand their own traffic in human bondage At the same time she reveals how enslaved and free Black mariners capitalized on their shipboard positions and cosmopolitan expertise to participate in small scale commodity trading on the very coasts where they themselves had been traded as commodities reshaping societies and cultures on both sides of the Atlantic Indeed as Hicks argues the Bahian slave trade was ruthlessly effective because its uniquely decentralized structure so effectively incorporated the desires and financial strategies of the very people enslaved by it Yet taking advantage of such fraught economic opportunities ultimately enabled many enslaved Black mariners to purchase their freedom And in some cases they became independent transatlantic slave traders themselves Hicks thus explores the central paradox that defined the lives of the captive cosmopolitans and in doing so reveals a new history of South Atlantic slavery centered on subaltern commercial and cultural exchange Disciplinary

Decadence Lewis R. Gordon, 2015-12-03 In this book philosopher and social critic Lewis Gordon explores the ossification of disciplines which he calls disciplinary decadence In response he offers a theory of what he calls a teleological suspension of disciplinarity in which he encourages scholars and lay intellectuals to pay attention to the openness of ideas and purposes on which their disciplines were born Gordon builds his case through discussions of philosophy of education problems of secularization in religious thought obligations across generations notions of invention in the study of ideas decadence in development colonial epistemologies and the quest for a genuine postcolonial language These topics are examined with the underlying diagnosis of the present political and academic environment as one in which it is indecent to think Reclaim Association Aware, 2024-07-01 These proceedings emerge from the symposium Reclaim Narratives of African Women Artists organised by AWARE Archives of Women Artists Research and Exhibitions in partnership with the cole du Louvre as part of the Africa2020 Season They bring together research on the practices and trajectories of women from various African countries spanning from modernist artists to independence activists and contemporary voices While African women artists have long received little recognition this publication seeks to fill some of the gaps and examine the patterns underlying these dynamics In doing so it aims to contribute to the revalorisation of African women artists role as well as to broader reflections on the mechanisms of knowledge production in cultural history With texts by 3Points Dorothy Akpene Amenuke Alice Korkor Ebeheakey Bernard Akoi Jackson Ruth Colette Afane Belinga Nancy Dantas N Gon Fall Nadine Hounkpatin Sule Ameh James Gladys Kalichini Nadira Laggounne Perrin Lathrop with Ndidi Dike Karen E Milbourne Amandine Nana Sonia Recasens Maha Tazi and Rachida Triki African Arts ,2002 A Discursive Bazaar C.
