Valdeon, 2020-06-29 This book gathers together for the first time the editors of some of the most prestigious Translation Studies journals and serves as a showcase of the academic and geographical diversity of the discipline The collection includes a discussion on the intralinguistic translation of Romeo and Juliet thoughts on the concepts of adaptation imitation and pastiche with regards to Japanese manga reflections on the status of the source and target texts a study on the translation and circulation of Inuit Canadian literature and a discussion on the role of translation in Latin America It also contains two chapters on journalistic translation linguistic approaches to English Hungarian news translation and a study of an independent news outlet one chapter on court interpreting in the US and a final chapter on audio description The book was originally published as a special issue in 2017 to mark the twenty fifth anniversary of Perspectives Studies in Translation Theory and Practice Thinking Translation: Perspectives from Within and Without Rebecca Hyde Parker, Karla Guadarrama, 2008 This book is a collection of selected articles based on talks given by established academics and translators as well as younger researchers at the third postgraduate symposium organized by the School of Literature and Creative Writing at the University of East Anglia UK The objective of the third postgraduate translation symposium at the University of East Anglia was to explore the current relevance of theory to the practice of translation This volume builds on the key ideas and discussion that arose from the symposium bringing together amongst others the current debates concerning the complex relationship between theory and practice in the field of translation studies taking into consideration a wide range of perspectives both modern and traditional A broad cross section of research exploring the present relevance of translation theory to practice is presented by many of the individual contributors to this volume These papers provide both current theoretical insights into the relevance of theory to translation and also in some examples offer first hand experiences of applying appropriate strategies and methods to the practice and description of translation Exploring Translation Theories Anthony Pym, 2017-11-27 Exploring Translation Theories presents a comprehensive analysis of the core contemporary paradigms of Western translation theory The book covers theories of equivalence purpose description uncertainty localization and cultural translation This second edition adds coverage on new translation technologies volunteer translators non lineal logic mediation Asian languages and research on translators cognitive processes Readers are encouraged to explore the various theories and consider their strengths weaknesses and implications for translation practice

The book concludes with a survey of the way translation is used as a model in postmodern cultural studies and sociologies extending its scope beyond traditional Western notions. Features in each chapter include an introduction outlining the main points, key concepts and illustrative examples. Examples drawn from a range of languages although knowledge of no language other than English is assumed. Discussion points and suggested classroom activities. A chapter summary. This comprehensive and engaging book is ideal both for self study and as a textbook for Translation theory courses within Translation Studies, Comparative Literature and Applied Linguistics.

Handbook of Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2010. Moreover many items in the reference lists are hyperlinked to the TSB where the user can find an abstract of a publication. All articles between 500 and 6000 words are written by specialists in the different subfields and are peer reviewed. Last but not least the usability, accessibility and flexibility of the HTS depend on the commitment of people who agree that Translation Studies does matter. All users are therefore invited to share their feedback. Any questions, remarks and suggestions for improvement can be sent to the editorial team.

Translation, Globalisation and Localisation Ning Wang, Yifeng Sun, 2008. The essays in this anthology deal with translation studies in a global local context and from a Chinese perspective. Topics such as globalisation, postcolonial theory, diaspora, writing, polysystem theory and East West comparative literary and cultural studies are all discussed.

The Cultural Turn in Translation Studies Wang Ning, 2023-12-06. Applying the latest Western translation theories to the situation in China, this book redefines translation from an interdisciplinary and intercultural perspective, bringing intercultural semiotic translation into the sight of translation researchers. This book systematically expounds on the cultural turn in translation studies and contributes to the escape of translation studies from the cage of language. It focuses on discussing the deconstructive postmodernist and cultural translation theories that have motivated and promoted the cultural turn, especially Benjamin's translation theory, Derrida's deconstructive view of translation and postcolonial translation theory. It also discusses in detail the theories of major international translation theorists including Hillis Miller, Wolfgang Iser, Edward Said, Gayatri Spivak, Homi Bhabha, Andr Lefevere, Susan Bassnett and Lawrence Venuti. These theories are mostly based on examples from Western or English language texts, leaving a wide gap in the discourse of the field. This book seeks to fill that gap. For example, intercultural semiotic translation is defined and explained through the successful experiences of the Chinese translator Fu Lei. The role of translation during the Chinese revolution and the relocation of Chinese culture in the global cultural landscape through translation are also discussed. This book will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies. It will also be a useful resource for translators and researchers of comparative literature and cultural studies.

A STUDY OF THE TRANSLATOR Gong Qinyan, Xu Xiumei, 2022-08-09. The translator is one of the key elements in the practice of translation. However, the roles of the translator have long been overlooked and even denied in the history of translation studies, which has led to the invisibility of the translator. The reasons for the invisibility of the translator have been investigated in this book.

With the emergence of new thoughts in philosophy cultural studies cognitive science and linguistic theories changes have occurred in the ideas about the roles of the translator and resulted in the visibility of the translator and the prominence of the subjectivity of the translator in translation studies This book explores the changes from two major perspectives One perspective is from structuralism and the objective standards applied in natural science and social sciences related to the translator's invisibility The other perspective is from hermeneutics phenomenology existentialism the theory of power and discourse embodied philosophy relevance theory and cognitive linguistics all of which explain the subjectivity of the translator and support the viewpoint that the translator is active rather than passive in translation activities and hence the visibility of the translator in translation studies The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Chinese Discourses on Translation Martha Pui Yiu Cheung,2014-04-30 Discourse on translation at once a term referring to any text works of translation included that expresses the author's views ideas and theorizations on translation on its modes of operation its dynamics principles and methods and or on the philosophy epistemology ontology and hermeneutics of translation and a term emphasizing the inseparable relation between power and knowledge is an integral part of all translation traditions The Handbook to Literary Research Delia da Sousa Correa,W. Owens,2009-09-10 This unique student resource is specifically designed for those beginning an MA in Literature providing an introduction to research techniques methodologies and information sources relevant to the study of literature at postgraduate level Translation Studies in China Ziman Han,Defeng Li,2019-06-26 This book features the latest research on translation by a dozen leading scholars of translation studies in China The themes discussed are diverse and include translation policy literary translation medical translation corpus translation studies teaching translation translation technologies media translation interpreting studies and so on The contributors are all respected experts on their respective topics The book reflects the state of the art of translation studies in China and offers a unique window on the latest thoughts on translation there The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies Carmen Millán,Francesca Bartrina,2013-03-05 The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies provides a comprehensive state of the art account of the complex field of translation studies Written by leading specialists from around the world this volume brings together authoritative original articles on pressing issues including the current status of the field and its interdisciplinary nature the problematic definition of the object of study the various theoretical frameworks the research methodologies available The handbook also includes discussion of the most recent theoretical descriptive and applied research as well as glimpses of future directions within the field and an extensive up to date bibliography The Routledge Handbook of Translation Studies is an indispensable resource for postgraduate students of translation studies

Constructing a Sociology of Translation Michaela Wolf, Alexandra Fukari, 2007 The view of translation as a socially regulated activity has opened up a broad field of research in the last few years This volume deals with central questions of the new domain and aims to contribute to the conceptualisation of a general sociology of translation Interdisciplinary in approach it discusses the role of major representatives of sociology like Pierre Bourdieu Bruno Latour Bernard Lahire Anthony Giddens or Niklas Luhmann in establishing a theoretical framework for a sociology of translation Drawing on methodologies from sociology and integrating them into translation studies the book questions some of the established categories in this discipline and calls for a redefinition of long assumed principles The contributions show the social involvement of translation in various fields and focus especially on the translator's position in an emerging sociology of translation Bourdieu's influence in conceptualising this new sub discipline methodological questions and a sociologically oriented meta discussion of translation studies

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology Federico Zanettin, Christopher Rundle, 2022-03-10 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology provides a comprehensive overview of methodologies in translation studies including both well established and more recent approaches The Handbook is organised into three sections the first of which covers methodological issues in the two main paradigms to have emerged from within translation studies namely skopos theory and descriptive translation studies The second section covers multidisciplinary perspectives in research methodology and considers their application in translation research The third section deals with practical and pragmatic methodological issues Each chapter provides a summary of relevant research a literature overview critical issues and topics recommendations for best practice and some suggestions for further reading Bringing together over 30 eminent international scholars from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds this Handbook is essential reading for all students and scholars involved in translation methodology and research

Global Trends in Translator and Interpreter Training Séverine Hubscher-Davidson, Michal Borodo, 2012-06-07 This book looks at translator and interpreter training focusing on mediation and culture in a global context It updates numerous research currents in translator and interpreter education by situating them in relation to broader curricular and technological discussions Particular attention is given to the way in which translator and interpreter training relates both to other topics on university curricula and to recent developments in the professional sphere of language mediation These include the new European standard for translation services and the ethical training of interpreters The significant impact of new technologies in translation is also studied These discussions take place in the context of an increasingly mature and sophisticated theoretical environment of translator and interpreter training research one which recognizes the implications of discourses such as constructivism and objectives oriented design
