

Advice from real cops

Jim and Mark Lambert are both law enforcement officers in the Bay Area of California. Together, they wrote a book and created a Web site dedicated to helping people avoid becoming victims of crime, usually caused by careless mistakes. They are not professional writers; just street cops trying to share information.

“CopTalk” is a different kind of “cop” book. It is true stories and experiences of what two street cops have seen in over 25 years of combined service. “CopTalk” will help readers learn more about making their lives, families and property safer against being victimized; putting the odds back in their favor against crime; ATM robberies; road rage and freeway violence; domestic violence and how to stop it; the three teen killers; car-jacking; child abductions; drunk driving laws; how to curb drug activity on their streets; preparing for natural disasters and fires; civil conflicts; security alarm systems; and identity theft. “CopTalk” is available online at www.netcopspsi.com or Amazon.com.
