Empires at War Francis Pike, 2011-02-28 As the major geopolitical power bloc Asia with 4 billion people two thirds of the world s population a huge land mass and the fastest growing economies has shifted the global political balance Empires at War gives a dramatic narrative account of how Modern Asia came into being Ranging over the whole of Asia from Japan to Pakistan the modern history of this important region is placed in the context of the struggle between America and the Soviet Union Francis Pike shows that America s domination of post war Asia was a continuation of a 100 year competition for power in the region He also argues cogently that contrary to the largely Western centric viewpoint Asian nations were not simply the passive and biddable entities of the superpowers but had a political development which was both separate and unique with a dynamic that was largely independent of the superpower conflict And in conclusion the book traces the unwinding of American influence and the end of its Empire a crucial development in international history which is already having repercussions throughout the world

Culture, Power, Place Akhil Gupta, James Ferguson, 1997-07-24 Anthropology has traditionally relied on a spatially localized society or culture as its object of study The essays in Culture Power Place demonstrate how in recent years this anthropological convention and its attendant assumptions about identity and cultural difference have undergone a series of important challenges In light of increasing mass migration and the transnational cultural flows of a late capitalist postcolonial world the contributors to this volume examine shifts in anthropological thought regarding issues of identity place power and resistance This collection of both new and well known essays begins by critically exploring the concepts of locality and community first as they have had an impact on contemporary global understandings of displacement and mobility and second as they have had a part in defining identity and subjectivity itself With sites of discussion ranging from a democratic Spain to a Puerto Rican barrio in North Philadelphia from Burundian Hutu refugees in Tanzania to Asian landscapes in rural California from the silk factories of Hangzhou to the long sought after home of the Palestinians these essays examine the interplay between changing schemes of categorization and the discourses of difference on which these concepts are based The effect of the placeless mass media on our understanding of place and the forces that make certain identities viable in the world and others not are also discussed as are the intertwining of place making identity and resistance as they interact with the meaning and consumption of signs Finally this volume offers a self reflective look at the social and political location of anthropologists in relation to the questions of culture power and place the effect of their participation in what was once seen as their descriptions of these constructions Contesting the classical idea of culture as the shared the agreed upon and the orderly Culture Power Place is an important intervention in the disciplines of anthropology and cultural studies Contributors George E Bisharat John Borneman Rosemary J Coombe Mary M Crain James Ferguson Akhil Gupta Kristin Koptiuch Karen Leonard Richard Maddox Lisa H Malkki John Durham Peters Lisa Rofel

Work in France Steven Laurence Kaplan, Cynthia J. Koepp, 2018-05-31

Eighteen scholars from both sides of the Atlantic look at the question of work across three centuries of French history. Representing both younger and older generations they move beyond traditional disciplinary boundaries in order to consider human labor as it was actually performed and to determine what it has meant to specific groups and individuals at particular historical moments. This book proposes some fundamental revisions in the history of work which will have important implications for our understanding of social, political, economic and cultural developments not only in France but throughout Europe.

Quantum Leadership Frederick Chavalit Tsao, Chris Laszlo, 2019-07-30. In this new book Frederick Chavalit Tsao and Chris Laszlo argue that current approaches to leadership fail to produce positive outcomes for either businesses or the communities they serve. Employee disengagement and customer fickleness remain high, resulting in a lack of creativity and collaboration at all levels of entrepreneurial activity. Investor demand for Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) continues to be poorly integrated into profit strategies. Drawing on extensive research, this book shows how changing a person's consciousness is the most powerful lever for unlocking his or her leadership potential to create wealth and serve humankind. A wide range of practices of connectedness provide the keys. The journey to higher consciousness changes people at a deep, intuitive level, combining embodied experience with analytic cognitive skill development. Tsao and Laszlo show how leaders who pursue this journey are more likely to flourish with significant benefits to both business and society. These include greater creativity and collaboration along with an increased capability to inspire people and produce lasting change. Readers will come away with a deep understanding of quantum leadership and the day-to-day practices that can help them achieve greater effectiveness and wellbeing at work.
