Brief Behavioural Activation for Adolescent Depression Shirley Reynolds, Laura Pass, 2020-09-21 This step by step guide to Brief Behavioural Activation Brief BA provides everything practitioners need to use this approach with adolescents It is suitable for new practitioners as well as those who are more experienced Brief BA is a straightforward structured and effective intervention for treating adolescents showing symptoms of depression focusing on helping young people to recover through doing more of what matters to them This practical manual contains guidance on how to deliver Brief BA at every stage photocopiable activities and worksheets for the client and their parents and a section on the research and theory behind the approach It includes information and advice on how to assess adolescent depression get to know the young person and their priorities better and help them to do more of what matters Teacher as Activator of Learning Gayle H. Gregory, 2016-02-11 Flip the Switch How to Get Students Into Learning Mode Now In his well known meta analysis John Hattie suggests that facilitating learning is not as effective or powerful as activating learning In this book Gayle Gregory shows you how to facilitate better and deeper learning Packed with practical strategies that teachers can use every day to increase student achievement you will also discover what educational neuroscience says about nurturing a growth mindset and creating classrooms that support and encourage students to take risks and fail forward Learn how to Foster student dialogue and thinking Orchestrate productive reflective flexible student groups Develop respectful learning relationships between and among students and teachers Teacher competencies and clarity related to student goals and success criteria with quality feedback are essential for student success This resource will enrich learning environments for students and increase the chance of success for all In going from teachers as fount of knowledge to teacher as facilitator the field has overcorrected Gayle Gregory corrects all that with a comprehensive and deep portrayal of the need for teachers to be activators of learning in partnership with students Based on equal measure of research and practice Gregory gives is a compelling set of ideas and tools to maximize student learning and engagement Read it and hit the ground running Michael Fullan Professor Emeritus OISE University of Toronto Moving Borders Matthew Atencio, Becky Beal, E. Missy Wright, Zane McClain, 2018-12-03 Once considered a kind of delinquent activity skateboarding is on track to join soccer baseball and basketball as an approved way for American children to pass the after school hours With family skateboarding in the San Francisco Bay Area as its focus Moving Borders explores this switch in stance integrating first person interviews and direct observations to provide a rich portrait of youth skateboarders their parents and the social and market forces that drive them toward the skate park This excellent treatise on the contemporary youth sports scene examines how modern families embrace skateboarding and the role commerce plays in this unexpected new parent culture and highlights how private corporations community leaders parks and recreation departments and nonprofits like the Tony Hawk Foundation have united to energize skate parks like soccer fields before them as platforms for community engagement and the creation of social and economic capital Longman Language Activator Della Summers,1993 Presents linguistic as well as lexical information You're Not Done Yet Dr. B. Janet Hibbs,Dr. Anthony Rostain,2024-03-26 A clear eyed optimistic guide for parents with adult children who need help navigating the challenges to launching an independent life Times were already tough for young adults looking for ways to start living independent lives after high school and college rents were up wages were down student loan debt was burdensome then the Covid 19 pandemic hit A generation of young people were forced out of their classrooms jobs and social lives returning home to live with their parents Now many of these young adults carry the scars of the internal pandemic with increased anxiety and depression poor coping and the uncertainty of how to restart their lives Parents want to help but the old rules of advice giving can clash with the need to respect their child s autonomy In You're Not Done Yet two leading adolescent and young adult mental health experts provide a practical and compassionate path to parents combatting the worry and frustrating isolation many feel when supporting their twentysomethings Hibbs and Rostain explain when and how developmental markers changed and invite parents and young adults to learn new more effective ways of communicating with each other Part I of the book covers the new normal of young adulthood with its educational and career changes The new normal of parent child relationship asks us to rethink our shoulds and in the process develop a closer relationship based on talking and listening to understand each other rather than being right Part II addresses the common and challenging problems that arise when mental illness creates a drag on a young adult s progress and shows how parents may be engaged in their child s treatment Packed with helpful information and step by step guides to specific problems this book will be an invaluable resource for parents and their twentysomething children An Introduction to Non-Ocular Vision Activation ,2024-07-28 This book was born out of a deep seated curiosity and a passion for expanding our understanding of human potential The phenomenon of extraocular vision seeing without the use of the physical eyes has intrigued researchers mystics and curious minds for centuries Despite its profound implications there are only a handful of books available in English that delve into this subject in a meaningful and accessible way This scarcity inspired the creation of this book Individual's Mechanics, Movement and Kinematics Post-Stroke Yih-Kuen Jan ,Veronica Cimolin,2024-06-12 Disability after stroke is a major burden on society due to its high incidence and prevalence Among the priorities of rehabilitation programs stroke rehabilitation aims to regain independence and improve patients quality of life Dynamic balance falls prevention and upper limb recovery are essential features for the clinical management of hemiparetic patients To optimize movement recovery after stroke it is essential to select multilevel outcome measures for interpretation of motor recovery and clinical decision making In this context the assessment of movement by means of quantitative movement analysis in hemiparetic post stroke patients is key to planning rehabilitative intervention Kinematic analysis facilitates interpreting the extent and mechanisms of motor restoration and it has been increasingly applied in neurological research Unemployed Youth and Social Exclusion in Europe Susan Warner Weil,Danny Wildemeersch,Barry

Percy-Smith,2017-03-02 This book confronts readers with questions emerging from the gap between EU aspirations to reduce youth unemployment without increasing social exclusion and what is actually happening in practice Aimed at a diverse readership it is based on a three year European Union EU project into education training guidance and employment ETG programmes for young adults across six countries Insights are grounded in the lives and stories of disadvantaged young adults and of those who work with them bringing to life unintended impacts of well intended interventions The authors consider the influence of shifting political and pedagogical ideologies in the EU on local practices and young peoples lives and choices They also consider the impact of policy and performance management discourses on the ground This work uses rigorous yet innovative narrative forms to invite readers into a whole system inquiry into these complexities Unemployed Youth and Social Exclusion in Europe will make an important contribution to reflecting critically on current policy and practice as well as to academic understandings of unemployed youth and restrictive and reflexive approaches to learning for inclusion across Europe

Transforming Public Space through Play Gregor Mews,2022-04-21 This book provides an empirical analysis of the concept of play as a form of spatial practice in urban public spaces The introduced City Play Framework CPF is a practical urban analysis tool that allows urban designers landscape architects and researchers to develop a shared awareness when opening up this window of possibility for adventure Two case studies substantiate and illustrate the development process and testing of the framework in Canberra Australia and Potsdam Germany The appropriation of public spaces that transcend boundaries can facilitate an intrinsic connection between people and their immediate environment towards a more joyful ontological state of human existence in which imagination co creation and a sense of agency are key elements of the design approach The framework presents an alternative understanding of public spaces and public life reflecting on theory and its implications for practice in a post pandemic world in dense urban centres A bridge between theory and practice this book explores possibilities on what future design ought to be when openness and ambiguity are consciously integrated parts of practice and process The book presents a valuable discussion on public space and play for academic audiences across a wide range of disciplines such as landscape architecture urban design planning architecture and urban sociology which is informative for future practice
