Brant James Pitre

Bridegroom The:

Jesus the Bridegroom Brant James Pitre, 2014 In Jesus the Bridegroom Brant Pitre once again taps into the wells of Jewish Scripture and tradition and unlocks the secrets of what is arguably the most well known symbol of the Christian faith the cross of Christ In this thrilling exploration Pitre shows how the suffering and death of Jesus was far more than a tragic Roman execution Instead the Passion of Christ was the fulfillment of ancient Jewish prophecies of a wedding when the God of the universe would wed himself to humankind in an everlasting nuptial covenant To be sure most Christians are familiar with the apostle Paul's teaching that Christ is the Bridegroom and the Church is the Bride But what does this really mean And what would ever possess Paul to compare the death of Christ to the love of a husband for his wife If you would have been at the Crucifixion with Jesus hanging there dying is that how you would have described it How could a first century Jew like Paul who knew how brutal Roman crucifixions were have ever compared the execution of Jesus to a wedding And why does he refer to this as the great mystery Ephesians 5:32 As Pitre shows the key to unlocking this mystery can be found by going back to Jewish Scripture and tradition and seeing the entire history of salvation from Mount Sinai to Mount Calvary as a divine love story between Creator and creature between God and Israel between Christ and his bride a story that comes to its climax on the wood of a Roman cross In the pages of Jesus the Bridegroom dozens of familiar passages in the Bible the Exodus the Song of Songs the Wedding at Cana the Woman at the Well the Last Supper the Crucifixion and even the Second Coming at the End of Time are suddenly transformed before our eyes Indeed when seen in the light of Jewish Scripture and tradition the life of Christ is nothing less than the greatest love story ever told

The Bride of Christ - A Metaphor for the Church Norbert Schnell, 2021-11-30. Lumen gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church of the Second Vatican Council, uses various images to speak about the Church. This study is about the Church as the Bride of Christ. Unlike the great images of the Church as the People of God and the Body of Christ, the image of the Church as the Bride of Christ has never been extensively examined since the Second Vatican Council. The current research is a biblical and systematic theological study of this image. Its main question is what this metaphor can tell us about the essence of the Church and what its consequences are for the life of the Church today.

The Theology of the Four Gospels Mel Shoemaker, 2011-10-28. Biblical theology is the discovery and development of doctrine as found and emphasized by a specific book of the Bible. Instead of beginning with a subject and then searching the scriptures broadly to assemble what may be relevant and illuminate one's understanding of that specific topic, biblical theology starts with a particular author and focuses upon a specific scriptural unit. The objective is to let the Bible speak for itself and discover what the original writer wanted readers or those listening to the reading to understand. Therefore, New Testament biblical theology assists the student in understanding the distinctive doctrinal enrichment each book in the Christian canon brings to the collection of authoritative literature. The Theology of the Four Gospels is designed to engage an individual or group in a fresh study of the teachings of Jesus and the distinctive perspectives of the Four Evangelists: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Even though everyone participating in the study is examining the same literature, the conclusions may vary widely, which may contribute to a very fruitful discussion. Why should one anticipate a variety of interpretations? Each person comes to the study of the Bible with prior opinions, judgments, and beliefs. These presuppositions have been formed by our culture, e.g., ethnicity, political, social, economic, and religious background, critical knowledge, educational background, in history, literature, language, natural abilities.

life experiences and age and character moral values belief in the supernatural human immortality accountability rational choices and spiritual maturity This is the goal to let the Four Gospels speak for themselves The theological outcome may be tentative and provisional however the reader or student becomes engaged in the process of building a sound personal theology and a steadfast living faith in Jesus Christ
