

BERTOLT BRECHT

- One of the giants of the theatre in the 20th century.
- A poet and playwright, Brecht was born in 1898 in Germany.
- Brecht was 16 when the 1st World War broke out. This was a period of significant turmoil, uncertainty and change.
- Rejecting the standard theatrical drama, which focused on the emotional identification of the audience with the hero, Brecht wanted his audience to think about moral and social behavior.
- Brecht's Epic theatre included the elevation of the moral, social or political message over the exploration of character.
- Another of Brecht's principle theories is known as "distancing" or "making strange", making the familiar seem foreign and thus compelling the audience to view it in a new light.
