Brereton Diaries:

"The" Brereton Diaries . the War in the Air in the Pacific, Middle East and Europe, 3 October 1941 - 8 May 1945/ Lewis H. Brereton Lewis Hyde Brereton,1976 The Brereton Diaries Lewis Hyde Brereton,1946 Brereton Diaries Lewis Brereton,2013-03-01 Bonded Leather binding Into Fields of Fire Austin J. Buchanan,W. L. George Collins,2004-11-29 This story is taken from notes Austin Buck Buchanan wrote in notebooks he carried in his pocket all during World War II Buck is no longer with us W L George Collins edited and compiled Bucks notes into a manuscript that became this book Here you will ride with Buck as he flies his plane through a field of fire so intense that one shell blows a hole in the plane big enough for a man to go through and uncountable bullet holes perforated the plane All aircraft controls are shot out except elevator and ailerons You will ride with him as he manages to complete his mission and bring his barely flying plane back to England And you will ride with him through hundreds more such harrowing trips in his C 47 with no armor plate and no guns into other fields of fire and often impossible weather W L George Collins was a pilot in the same Troop Carrier Group as Buck His writings have been published in the United States Europe and the Middle East He was awarded the George Washington Honor Medal by Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge among other writing awards The Brereton Diaries: The War In The Air In The Pacific, Middle East And Europe, 3 October 1941-8 May 1945 Lieutenant-General Lewis H. Brereton,2014-08-15 Lieutenant General Brereton was a long service aviator in the United States Air Force even before the advent of the Second World War Tough and aggressive he would lead his men and air groups through the Pacific North Africa and Europe and saw action in more theatres than any other senior commander Described by one of his fellow US generals a cocky aggressive intelligent experienced pretty damn able commander he is a somewhat controversial character He was in command during four of the most controversial from an Air Force perspective episodes of the entire war the initial destruction of the American aerial assets in the Philippines 1941 the bombing of the oilfields in Ploesti 1943 the flattening of the German defences in Normandy 1944 and the failed attempt to capture bridges across the Rhine by airdrop 1944 His diary is very readable enlightening and very relevant to the US Air Force effort in all of the major theaters across World War II

Every Day a Nightmare William H. Bartsch,2010-07-23 In December 1941 the War Department sent two transports and a freighter carrying 103 P 40 fighters and their pilots to the Philipines to bolster Gen Douglas MacArthur s Far East Air Force They were then diverted to Australia with new orders to ferry the P 40s to the Philippines from Australia through the Dutch East Indies But on the same day as the second transport reached its destination on January 12 1942 the first of the key refueling stops in the East Indies fell to rapidly advancing Japanese forces resulting in a break in their ferry route and another change in their orders This time the pilots would fly their aircraft to Java to participate in the desperate Allied defense of that ultimate Japanese objective Except for the pilots from the Philippines almost all of the other pilots eventually assigned to the five provisional pursuit squadrons ordered to Java were recent graduates of flying school with just a few hours on the P 40 Only forty three of them made it to their assigned destination the rest suffered accidents in Australia were shot down over Bali and Darwin or were lost in the sinking of the USS Langley as it carried thirty two of them to Java Even those who did reach the secret field on Java wondered if they had been sacrificed for no purpose As the Japanese air assault intensified daily the Allied defense collapsed Only eleven Japanese aircraft fell to the P 40s Author William H Bartsch has pored through personal diaries and memoirs of the participants cross checking these primary sources against Japanese aerial combat records of the period and supplementing them with official records and other American Dutch and Australian accounts Bartsch s thorough and meticulous research yields a narrative that situates the Java pursuit pilots experiences within the context of the overall strategic situation in the early days of the Pacific theater Fortress Against The Sun Gene E. Salecker,E Salecker,2007-10-09 Most often remembered for its role in the air war against Germany no book has ever before been devoted to the B 17 s Pacific operations The author combines technical and operational detail with eyewitness accounts by crews and commanders to present a fascinating account of a famous aircraft at war The Brereton Diaries ,1946 The Worst Military Leaders in History John M. Jennings,Chuck Steele,2023-06-24 Spanning countries and centuries a how not to guide to leadership that reveals the most maladroit military commanders in history now in paperback For this book fifteen distinguished historians were given a deceptively simple task identify their choice for the worst military leader in history and then explain why theirs is the worst From the clueless Conrad von H tzenndorf and George A Custer to the criminal Baron Roman F von Ungern Sternberg and the bungling Garnet Wolseley this book presents a rogues gallery of military incompetents Rather than merely rehashing biographical details the contributors take an original and unconventional look at military leadership in a way that appeals to both specialists and general readers alike While there are plenty of books that analyze the keys to success The Worst Military Leaders in History offers lessons of failure to avoid In other words this book is a how not to guide to leadership Brereton Diaries Lewis Hyde Brereton,1946 The Army Air Forces in World War II: Plans and early operations, January 1939 to August 1942 ,1948 December 8, 1941 William H. Bartsch,2012-08-13 Ten hours after the attack on Pearl Harbor another Pearl Harbor of even more devastating consequence for American arms occurred in the Philippines 4 500 miles to the west On December 8 1941 at 12 35 p m 196 Japanese Navy bombers and fighters crippled the largest force of B 17 four engine bombers outside the United States and also decimated their protective P 40 interceptors The sudden blow allowed the Japanese to rule the skies over the Philippines removing the only effective barrier that stood between them and their conquest of Southeast Asia This event has been called one of the blackest days in American military history How could the army commander in the Philippines the renowned Lt Gen Douglas MacArthur have been caught with all his planes on the ground when he had been alerted in the small hours of that morning of the Pearl Harbor attack and warned of the likelihood of a Japanese strike on his forces In this book author William H Bartsch attempts to answer this and other related questions Bartsch draws upon twenty five years of research into American and Japanese records and interviews with many of the participants themselves particularly survivors of the actual attack on Clark and Iba air bases The dramatic and detailed coverage of the attack is preceded by an account of the hurried American build up of air power in the Philippines after July 1941 and of Japanese planning and preparations for this opening assault of its Southern Operations Bartsch juxtaposes the experiences of staff of the U S War Department in Washington and its Far East Air Force bomber fighter and radar personnel in the Philippines who were affected by its decisions with those of Japan s Imperial General Headquarters in Tokyo and the 11th Air Fleet staff and pilots on Formosa who were assigned the responsibility for carrying out the attack on the Philippines five hundred miles to the south In order to put the December 8th attack in broader context Bartsch details micro level personal experiences and presents the political and strategic aspects of American and Japanese planning for a war in the Pacific Despite the significance of this subject matter it has never before been given full book length treatment This book represents the culmination of decades long efforts of the author to fill this historical gap

United States Army in World War II: The European theater of operations ,1954 The Supreme Command Forrest C. Pogue,2017 A description of General Eisenhower s wartime command focusing on the general his staff and his superiors in London and Washington and contrasting Allied and enemy command organizations United States Army in World War II. ,1954

Airborne Operations in World War II, European Theater John Cushman Warren,1956 This monograph describes the planning and execution of airborne operations by the Army Air Forces in the European Theater during World War II Intended to serve as a case history of large scale airborne operations it seeks to analyze and evaluate them as a basis for doctrine and for the benefit of future planners Chapters are as follows 1 The Airborne Invasion of Normandy Plans and Preparations including the COSSAC Phase deployment and training final preparations and deception and diversion 2 The Assault including various paratroop and glider missions 3 From Neptune to Market which focuses on organizational changes plans and campaigns during the Campaign in France the planning of Operation Market and preliminary support operations 4 Market The Airborne Invasion of Holland which includes descriptions of operations in various sections of Holland 5 Varsity The Airborne Assault Across the Rhine including planning training security measures auxiliary air operations and lift and initial operations of the British Airborne Division American Paratroops and American Glider Troops and 6 Conclusions Regarding Large Scale Airborne Operations The War in the Pacific: Fall of the Phillipines (Paperback) ,

Showdown in the Pacific War Ronald E. Martell,2015-03-06 Showdown in the Pacific War Nimitz and Yamamoto This unique book combines a carefully researched history with an easy to read analysis of the war in a fictional meeting between staff officers close to Admirals Chester Nimitz and Isoroku Yamamoto They trace the events leading to the Pacific War and the heroic struggles following the attack on Pearl Harbor to the eclipse of the Japanese war machine at Coral Sea Midway Guadalcanal and beyond Showdown reveals Yamamotos opposition to Japans waging a war it could not win along with his planning of her early successes and Admiral Nimitzs patient and careful reversal of the Empires offensives Showdown presents an even handed view of the nations that waged combat in the early stages of history's most famous naval war Ron Martell has given us a new and very interesting look at World War II in the Pacific Instead of simply retelling history he puts the reader in a fictitious yet plausible latter day conference between two of the conflicts high ranking adversaries key staff officers of the American and Japanese navies Its a genuine page turner for any fan of World War II history Ronald Russell author of No Right to Win A Continuing Dialogue with Veterans of the Battle of Midway Showdown in the Pacific is a thoroughly enjoyable read If someone asks me for a single book to read on how the Pacific War started and then was fought for the first 18 months I will heartily recommend this one Thom Walla Editor and Host of The Battle of Midway RoundTable

United States Army in World War II. United States. Dept. of the Army. Office of Military History, 1947

The Fall of the Philippines Louis Morton, 1953 A detailed description of the three month defense of Bataan the siege of Corregidor the soldier's life in the crowded intimacy of Malinta Tunnel MacArthur's evacuation and the surrender of 78 000 American and Allied troops
