In Rudin Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev intricately explores the conflict between intellectual ideals and the realities of Russian society in the 19th century. Through the character of Dmitry Rudin, a charismatic but ultimately insubstantial revolutionary, Turgenev captures the disillusionment of the intelligentsia who aspire to effect change yet fail to bridge the gap between ambition and action. The novel employs a rich lyrical prose style typical of Turgenev's works, allowing for profound psychological insights and the subtle play of societal norms while also situating itself within the context of the burgeoning debates concerning nihilism and reform in pre-revolutionary Russia. Turgenev, born into a noble family, was deeply influenced by the socio-political climate of his time. His experiences in both Russia and Western Europe fostered a unique perspective on the dichotomy of tradition and progress. Rudin emerged during an era of significant change, reflecting Turgenev's own ambivalence towards the social reforms and the intellectual movements sweeping through Russia, which he scrutinized with a keen yet compassionate eye towards human fallibility. This novel is highly recommended for readers interested in not only Russian literature but also the philosophical tensions of intelligence and social responsibility. Turgenev's keen observations about the human condition make Rudin a timeless reflection on the nature of idealism and consequence, compelling both for its narrative depth and its historical significance.

First Love and Other Stories Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 1999. Bringing together six of Turgenev's best-known stories in one volume, this collection includes First Love, Asya, Mumu, The Diary of a Superfluous Man, Song of Triumphant Love, and King Lear of the Steppes.

Rudin Constance Black Garnett, Ivan Turgenev, 2017-05-16. Rudin is the first novel by Ivan Turgenev, a famous Russian writer best known for his short stories and the novel Fathers and Sons. Turgenev started to work on it in 1855, and it was first published in the literary magazine Sovremennik in 1856. Several changes were made by Turgenev in subsequent editions. It is perhaps the least known of Turgenev's novels. Rudin was the first of Turgenev's novels, but already in this work, the topic of the superfluous man and his inability to act, which became a major theme of Turgenev's literary work, was explored. Similarly to other Turgenev novels, the main conflict in Rudin was centred on a love story of the main character and a young but intellectual and self-conscious woman who is contrasted with the main hero. This type of female character became known in
