A Bridge Through Time A Memoir:

A Bridge Through Time Laila Abou-Saif, 1985 A Bridge Through Time Lailā Nasīm Abū-Saif, 1986 My Journey Through Time Dena Merriam, 2020-01-01

My Journey Through Time is a spiritual memoir that sheds light on the workings of karma the law of cause and effect that creates one's present circumstances and relationships as we see it unfold through Dena's vivid memories of her previous births. We travel back in time as Dena learns of a life in early 20th century Russia ranging from the overthrow of the Czar through Nazi Germany then it's back further to a life in early 19th century America in the Deep South and before that to a time in Africa in the early 18th century. Her lives in the East in Persia Japan and India go back to the 15th 17th centuries. With each past life we can see the way in which it has impacted her present life how it has stemmed from the end of the previous birth and how it will influence her next life. Dena Merriam is the founder of an interfaith organization the Global Peace Initiative of Women. A long time disciplined meditator Dena's access to her past lives brings a clearer awareness and purpose to her present life and also overcomes any fear of death. The memories are triggered when Dena meets a new person or visits a new place in her current life. The memories bring remembrances of past suffering but also recollections of spiritual teachers and wise guidance. She has not used and does not advocate past life regressions or hypnosis as a way to prompt memories to return. Dena has decided to share her story despite being a very private person in hopes that it can provide comfort and awaken the inner knowing of your own ongoing journey through time.

A Bridge Through Time Laila Abou-Saif, 1993-01-01

Featuring a foreword by Gloria Steinem the autobiography of an Egyptian woman who resisted the traditional role of women in Egypt's male dominated society provides a contemporary perspective on women and politics in the Arab world. Original.

Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2023-07-25

Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years. Often invaded conquered and occupied by foreign armies Egypt has never lost its identity. The Egyptians of today although they have changed their language once and their religion twice descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak who served Alexander the Great and his heirs who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university. It was and is one of the most important countries in the world. Historical Dictionary of Egypt Fifth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt.

Whisper Tapes Negar Mottahedeh, 2023-05-25

Lyrical intelligent and passionately written Whisper Tapes reignites a long dormant conversation about the urgency of global feminism. Shilyh Warren University of Texas at Dallas. Kate Millett was already an icon of American feminism when she went to Iran in 1979.

She arrived just weeks after the Iranian Revolution to join Iranian women in marking International Women's Day. Intended as a day of celebration, the event turned into a week of protests. Millett, armed with film equipment and a cassette deck to record everything around her, found herself in the middle of demonstrations for women's rights and against the mandatory veil. Listening to the revolutionary soundscape of Millett's audio tapes, Negar Mottahedeh offers a new interpretive guide to Revolutionary Iran: its slogans, habits, and women's movement, a movement that many claim Millett never came to understand. Published with the fortieth anniversary of the Iranian Revolution and the women's protests that followed on its heels, Whisper Tapes re-introduces Millett's historic visit to Iran and lays out the nature of her encounter with the Iranian women's movement. In offering a deeply contingent history, Negar Mottahedeh beautifully shows Kate Millett's simultaneous closeness to and distance from the events surrounding her. Behrooz Ghamari Tabrizi, Princeton University. Lyrical in style and poetic in meaning, Whisper Tapes challenges readers to adopt an intersectional view of Iranian feminist movements while adding layers and dimensionality to Millett's preexisting literature. Aisha Jitan, The Middle East Journal. Mottahedeh's illuminating study complements Millett's work and offers a more nuanced reading of a historic moment. Lucy Popescu, Times Literary Supplement.

Arab Representations of the Occident Rasheed El-Enany, 2006-04-18. This is one of the first books in English to explore Arab responses to Western culture and values in modern Arab literature. Through in-depth research, El-Enany examines the attitudes as expressed mainly through works of fiction written by Arab authors during the twentieth and to a lesser extent nineteenth century. It constitutes an original addition to the age-old East-West debate and is particularly relevant to the current discussion on Islam and the West. Alongside raising highly topical questions about stereotypical ideas concerning Arabs and Muslims in general, the book explores representations of the West by the foremost Arab intellectuals over a two-century period up to the present day and will appeal to those with an interest in Islam, the Middle East, nationalism, and the so-called Clash of Civilizations.

Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009. Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide-ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world. The first of its kind, it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post-9/11 era. The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production, which has so far received little scholarly attention. It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial, emerging, and ethnic literature, as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid, exilic, and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists. Issues of belonging, loyalty, and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays, as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification. The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature. Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader, Diana Abu Jaber, Leila Aboulela, Leila Ahmed, Rabih Alameddine, Edward Atiyah, Shaw Dallah, Ibrahim Fawal, Fadia Faqir, Khalil Gibran, Suheir Hammad, Loubna Haikal, Nada Awar.

The Anglo-Arab Encounter Geoffrey Nash, 2007 This concise study argues there is a qualitative difference between Arabic literature translated into English and a literature conceived and executed in English by writers of an Arab background It examines the corpus of a group of contemporary Arab writers who incorporate Arab subjects and themes into the English language

Bridge Over Time Brenda Hiatt, 2016-05-01 A switch in time Kathryn Monroe busy activist and socialite humors her mother by agreeing to attend her costume ball at the ancestral mansion in South Carolina What she doesn't admit even to herself is that she actually looks forward to a break from the frenetic pace of her increasingly shallow lifestyle She gets much more of a break than she anticipated when she passes the grandfather clock on the landing on her way downstairs to the party only to be transported to 1825 where she is mistaken for the girl who would become her great great great great great grandmother Even more shocking she finds herself falling for a man her counterpart despised Catherine Prescott feels increasingly trapped as her parents try to push her into an unwanted marriage and pile restriction after restriction upon her activities in their efforts to turn her into a proper young lady But on her way downstairs to an important social function she passes the grandfather clock on the landing and discovers herself in the twenty first century where it appears everything she ever dreamed of and more has come true To make this amazing new world even sweeter she seems to have found her soulmate in a man her identical descendant never cared for Will capricious Fate allow each to find happiness in another time Book 3 of the Americana Dreaming series

Stewart's Quotable African Women Julia Stewart, 2012-10-02 African women have not only been witnesses to their times they have also been actors and key players and their role in the affairs of the continent continues to grow The women whose voices are heard in Quotable African Women come from all walks of life their thoughts and words cover many subjects and represent varying opinions But one thing is clear the voice of African women is growing stronger and louder This collection of quotations offers new perspectives and gives us a unique insight into the continent of the future

Subjectivities Regenia Gagnier, 1991 The thesis of this text is that whereas bourgeois subjectivity resembles the central and developing self of such novels as David Copperfield working class subjectivity consists of an attention to working environment and community that diminishes concern with self
