Lily Xiao Hong Lee,A. D. Stefanowska,Sue Wiles,Clara Wing-chung Ho,1998 The first biographical dictionary in any Western language devoted solely to Chinese women Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women is the product of years of research translation and writing by scores of China scholars from around the world Volume II Twentieth Century includes a far greater range of women than would have been previously possible because of the enormous amount of historical material and scholarly research that has become available recently They include scientists businesswomen sportswomen military officers writers scholars revolutionary heroines politicians musicians opera stars film stars artists educators nuns and more

Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women: v. 2: Twentieth Century Lily Xiao Hong Lee,2016-07-08 The first biographical dictionary in any Western language devoted solely to Chinese women Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women is the product of years of research translation and writing by scores of China scholars from around the world Volume II Twentieth Century includes a far greater range of women than would have been previously possible because of the enormous amount of historical material and scholarly research that has become available recently They include scientists businesswomen sportswomen military officers writers scholars revolutionary heroines politicians musicians opera stars film stars artists educators nuns and more      Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung,2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies A Chinese Biographical Dictionary Herbert Allen Giles,1898 A Bibliography of Studies and Translations of Modern Chinese Literature, 1918-1942 Donald A. Gibbs,Yun-chen Li,2020-03-17 Foreword by Ezra F Vogel Director of the East Asia Research Center Introduction Includes sources studies of modern Chinese literature studies and translations of individual authors and unidentified authors Some titles shown in Chinese characters Three appendices Index The Literature of China in the Twentieth Century Bonnie S. McDougall,Kam Louie,1997 A historical survey of 20th century Chinese literature this book chronicles the writers who continuing in the Chinese tradition of using literature to exert moral social and political leadership debated the nature development and future of Chinese society Historical Dictionary of Chinese Culture Lawrence R. Sullivan,Nancy Liu-Sullivan,2021-03-29 Covering wide ranging topics from the arts and entertainment to customs and traditions from the ancient imperial and modern eras Historical Dictionary of Chinese Culture provides more than 300 separate entries along with a comprehensive chronology glossary of Chinese cultural terms and an extensive bibliography of Western and Chinese language sources Dictionary entries of the decorative and fine arts include ceramics and porcelains handicrafts jade and seal carving jewelry and painting The literary subjects range from fiction to non fiction but especially poetry Major entertainment venues of cinema and film classical puppetry and theater both ancient and modern are also covered In addition to the arts the authors include major customary practices from childbirth and childrearing to marriage and weddings to funerals and burial practices Other aspects of the culture are also examined including crime foot binding pornography and prostitution and the government policies aimed at their eradication Throughout the text Chinese language translations of key terms are presented in italics and parenthesis along with biographies of figures central to the creation of China s magnificent cultural heritage Literary Authority and the Modern Chinese Writer Wendy Larson,1991 Throughout the twentieth century Chinese writers have confronted the problem of creating a new literary tradition that both maintains the culturally unique aspects of a rich heritage and succeeds in promoting a new modernity In the first book length treatment of the topic Wendy Larson examines the contradictory forms of authority at work in the autobiographical texts of modern Chinese writers and scholars and the way these conflicts helped to shape and determine the manner in which writers viewed themselves their texts and their work Larson focuses on the most famous writers associated with the May Fourth Movement a group most active in the 1920s and 1930s and their fundamental ambivalence about writing She analyzes how their writing paradoxically characterized textual labor as passive negative and inferior to material labor and the more physical political work of social progress and she describes the ways they used textual means to devalue literary labor The impact of China s increasing contact with the West particularly the ways in which Western notions of individualism and democracy influenced Chinese ideologies of self and work is considered Larson also studies the changes in China's social structure notably those linked to the abolition in 1905 of the educational exam system which subsequently broke the link between the mastery of certain texts and the attainment of political power further denigrating the cultural role of the writer

Berkshire Dictionary of Chinese Biography Volume 4 Kerry Brown, 2015-05-01 The Berkshire Dictionary of Chinese Biography 1979 2015 provides a riveting new way to understand twenty first century China and a personal look at the changes that have taken place since the Reform and Opening Up era started in 1979 One hundred key individuals from this period were selected by an international group of experts and the stories were written by more than 70 authors in 14 countries The authors map the paths taken by these individuals some rocky some meandering some fateful and in telling their stories give contemporary Chinese history a human face The editors have included with the advice of myriad experts around the world not only the life stories of politicians and government officials who play a crucial role in the development of the country but the stories of cultural figures including film directors activists writers and entrepreneurs from the mainland China Hong Kong and also from Taiwan The Greater China that comes through in this volume has diverse ideas and identities It is often contradictory sometimes fractious and always full of creative human complexity Some of the lives rendered here are heroic Some are tragic and many are inspirational Some figures come in for trenchant criticism and others are celebrated with a sense of wonder and awe Like previous volumes of the Berkshire Dictionary of Chinese Biography this volume includes a range of appendices including a pronunciation guide a bibliography and a timeline of key events

Modern Chinese Stories and Novellas, 1919-1949 Joseph S. M. Lau, Chih-ting Hsia, Leo Ou-fan Lee, 1981 This volume brings together some of the best and most historically significant works of short fiction written in China in this century 44 stories by twenty different authors including such important figures in the development of Chinese modernism as Lu Hsiang-shan Mao Tun Ting Ling and Shen Tsung-wen The companion volume to the highly acclaimed Traditional Chinese Stories which covered the period from the former Han dynasty to the beginning of Chinese modernism this new volume presents modernist short fiction from the thirty year period leading up to the Communist revolution of 1949 after which Chinese literature entered a new phase of development

Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004 Emphasizing reference works published since 1964 these volumes cover books periodicals and inclusions in chapters in edited volumes on the 1911 Revolution the Republic of China 1949 post 1911 Taiwan post 1911 Hong Kong and Macao and post 1911 overseas Chinese

Writing Gender in Early Modern Chinese Women's Tanci Fiction Li Guo, 2021-06-15 Women's tanci or plucking rhymes are chantefable narratives written by upper class educated women from seventeenth century to early twentieth century China Writing Gender in Early Modern Chinese Women's Tanci Fiction offers a timely study on early modern Chinese women's representations of gender nation and political activism in their tanci works before and after the Taiping Rebellion 1850 to 1864 as well as their depictions of warfare and social unrest Women tanci authors redefinition of female exemplarity within the Confucian orthodox discourses of virtue talent chastity and political integrity could be burgeoning expressions of female exceptionalism and could have foreshadowed protofeminist ideals of heroism. They establish a realistic tenor in affirming feminine domestic authority and open up spaces for discussions of womanly becoming, female exceptionalism, and shifting family power structures. The vernacular mode underlying these texts yields productive possibilities of gendered self-representations, bodily valences, and dynamic performances of sexual roles. The result is a vernacular discursive frame that enables women's appropriation and refashioning of orthodox moral values as means of self-affirmation and self-realization. Validations of women's political activism and loyalism to the nation attest to tanci as a premium vehicle for disseminating progressive social incentives to popular audiences. Women's tanci marks early modern writers' endeavors to carve out a space of feminine becoming, a discursive arena of feminine appropriation, reinvention, and boundary crossings. In this light, women's tanci portrays gendered mobility through depictions of a heroine's voyages or social ascent and entails a forward-moving historical progression toward a more autonomous and vested model of feminine subjectivity.

Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson, 2000. Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China. In this latest edition, now in a bigger format, its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text. Twelve years in the making, the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted, excavated, and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century. It also examines the context in which the sources were produced, preserved, and received; the problems of research and interpretation associated with them; and the best, most up-to-date secondary works. Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture, special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography.

Writing Women in Modern China Amy D. Dooling, 2005. From succinct reportage of contemporary historical circumstances to comic accounts of twentieth-century urban living to carefully stylized modernist works of fiction, the selections in this anthology reflect the diversity, liveliness, humor, and surprising cosmopolitanism of women's writing from the period. This collection also reveals the ways in which women writers imagined and inscribed new meanings to Chinese feminism. Also included are biographical information on the writers, bibliographical materials, and a critical introduction by Dooling.

Guide to Reference in Genealogy and Biography Mary K. Mannix, Fred Burchsted, 2015-01-14. Profiling more than 1400 print and electronic sources, this book helps connect librarians and researchers to the most relevant sources of information in genealogy and biography.

Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond Swanpitak, 2025-02-17. This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism. It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi, Tie Ning, and Chi Li, who are well known in the Chinese literary field. However, their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism's notions of subjectivity, femininity, and transgression. This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women s writing Additionally the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy misogyny feminism differences and resistance It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies     Area
