A Certain Place The Jacobs Pillow Story:

A Certain Place Norton Owen, 2017 Ted Shawn Paul A. Scolieri, 2020 In January 1969 just months before the Stonewall Riots Ted Shawn 1891 1972 wanted to tell a story about how his life writings and dances contributed to the rapidly evolving gay liberation movement around him Shawn died before he was able to put forth a candid account about how he the Father of American Dance was homosexual but he scrupulously archived his correspondence diaries photographs and motion pictures of his dances anticipating that the full significance of his choreography would reveal itself in time Ted Shawn His Life Writings and Dances tells that story Balasaraswati Douglas M. Knight, 2010-06-15 An intimate portrait of one of the great performing artists of the twentieth century José Limón José Limón, 2001-09-27 A captivating illustrated autobiography of the early years of a major American choreographer Martha Graham Neil Baldwin, 2022-10-25 A major biography the first in three decades of one of the most important artistic forces of the twentieth century the legendary American dancer and choreographer who upended dance propelling the art form into the modern age and whose profound and pioneering influence is still being felt today Brings together all the elements of Graham s colorful life with wit verve critical discernment and a powerful lyricism Mary Dearborn acclaimed author of Ernest Hemingway Time magazine called her the Dancer of the Century Her technique used by dance companies throughout the world became the first long lasting alternative to the idiom of classical ballet Her pioneering movements powerful dynamic jagged edgy forthright combined with her distinctive system of training were the epitome of American modernism performance as art Her work continued to astonish and inspire for more than sixty years as she choreographed more than 180 works At the heart of Graham s work movement that could express inner feeling Neil Baldwin author of admired biographies of Man Ray Truly definitive absolutely fascinating Patricia Bosworth and Thomas Edison Absorbing gripping a major contribution to our understanding of a remarkable man and a remarkable era Robert Caro gives us the artist and performer the dance monument who led a cult of dance worshippers as well as the woman herself in all of her complexity Here is Graham from her nineteenth century born in 1894 Allegheny Pennsylvania childhood to becoming the star of the Denishawn exotic ballets and in 1926 at age thirty two founding her own company now the longest running dance company in America Baldwin writes of how the company flourished during the artistic explosion of New York City s midcentury cultural scene of Erick Hawkins in 1936 fresh from Balanchine s School of American Ballet a handsome Midwesterner fourteen years her junior becoming Graham s muse lover and eventual spouse Graham inspiring the next generation of dancers choreographers and teachers among them Merce Cunningham and Paul Taylor Baldwin tells the story of this large fiercely lived life a life beset by conflict competition and loneliness filled with fire and inspiration drive passion dedication and sacrifice in work and in dance creation Making Music for Modern Dance Katherine Teck, 2011 Making Music for Modern Dance traces the collaborative approaches working procedures and aesthetic views of the artists who forged a new and distinctly American art form during the first half of the 20th century The book offers riveting first hand accounts from innovative artists in the throes of their creative careers and provides a cross section of the challenges faced by modern choreographers and composers in America These articles are complemented by excerpts from astute observers of the music and dance scene as well as by retrospective evaluations of past collaborative practices Beginning with the careers of pioneers Isadora Duncan Ruth St Denis and Ted Shawn and continuing through the avant garde work of John Cage for Merce Cunningham the book offers insights into the development of modern dance in relation to its music Editor Katherine Teck s introductions and afterword offer historical context and tie the artists essays in with collaborative practices in our own time The substantive notes suggest further materials of interest to students practicing dance artists and musicians dance and music history scholars and to all who appreciate dance

Connections and Parallels Between Humanistic Psychology and Modern Dance at Jacob's Pillow Hadassah H. Hoffman,2004 This study explores how the development of humanistic psychology paralleled the evolution of modern dance and what the connections were between the fields as they grew This is a study of three fields developing within the 20th century It demonstrates the relevance of the arts to humanistic psychology and the ways in which the psychologists and dancers influenced each other

Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann,2022-09-29 Thomas W Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver Wendell Berry and John Muir but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey Along the way we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion sensually as well as intellectually We celebrate our communion with all creatures from fungus to forests inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change
