Atkinson,2015-08-06 Excerpt from Chateau in Brittany The attack of Europe by way of a fresh point of entry leads to disillusion and the conviction that experience teaches nine tenths of us very little Forgetting how scant a knowledge we have acquired of Dover Calais Newhaven or Dieppe we await the revelations of Cherbourg with an expectation that speaks ill for our intelligence No sooner has the soul triumphed over the humiliating physical revolt at the freedom with which the waves disregard our comfort than it recoups itself by soaring into imaginary realms where coming delights wear a golden halo of mystery In the event what actually happens is the usual and commonplace There comes a night wherein affrighted sleep flees before the jerky pounding of a donkey engine Flying feet along the corridors dragging noises and shuffling progresses above our heads quick sharp voices of command help to hinder our capturing the shy fugitive till worn out in the fruitless effort we welcome the summons that calls us forth hours earlier than is our wont About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works intended to go directly from the Dolomites and Venice to Milan and on to Tours stopping a day or two in Paris en route but Miss Cassandra begged for a few days on Lake Como as in all her travels by sea and shore she has never seen the Italian lakes We changed our itinerary simply to be obliging but Walter and I have had no reason to regret the change for one minute Beautiful as you and I found this region in June I must admit that its August charms are more entrancing and pervasive Instead of the clear blues greens and purples of June the light haze that veils the mountain tops brings out the same indescribable opalescent shades of heliotrope azure and rose that we thought belonged exclusively to the Dolomites However these mountains are first cousins once or twice removed to the Eastern Italian and Austrian Alps and have a good right to a family likeness There is something almost intoxicating in the ethereal beauty of this lake something that goes to one's head like wine I don't wonder that poets and artists rave about its charms of which not the least is its infinite variety The scene changes so quickly The glow of color fades a cloud obscures the sun the blue and purple turn to gray in an instant and we descend from a hillside garden where gay flowers gain added brilliancy from the sun to a cypressbordered path where the grateful shade is so dense that we walk in twilight and listen to the liquid note of the nightingale or the blackcap whose song is sometimes mistaken for that of his more distinguished neighbor
