And Mama Sang:

Sing to Me, Papa Patricia McCune Irvine, 2001-02-27 Gretchen Muellers chronicle begins in the present in her Southern California garden with her granddaughter Megan and flashes back to Chicago in the late thirties The Muellers are a happy family then and Papa Gerhard sings and tells stories of his boyhood in Furth im Wald in eastern Germany and also of his admiration for Adolf Hitler During WWII U S authorities cannot tolerate Papas allegiance to Germany and Gretchens happy life becomes a series of painful changes and adjustments she is a German in America and an American in Germany Through the years adversities are overcome with the help of new friends neighbors and a tender reconciliation Jeff

Rosenplot, 2009-08-01 The polar ice caps have melted Coastlines are underwater Billions are dead The rest are dying And the world hasn't seen rain in over a year Six people from far flung corners of North America trek across a desolate landscape in search of anything to help them survive The world without water is a world gone mad In the absence of order there is chaos One is either predator or prey Those who survive face a future transformed Only the strongest will survive But at what cost Part post apocalyptic thrill ride part intense character drama the end of the world is just the beginning Caterpillar Toes and Butterfly Wings Dee Coffman, 2016-04-26 From the hills of Missouri to the top of the Twin Towers and from the Florida swamps to the Brazilian beaches God has refused to let His daughter get bored Through life loss dreams and disasters He has proven His love and faithfulness Her parents and grandparents taught her by example how to deal with life when it got difficult how to laugh at the ridiculous and find joy in the simple things Motherhood brought immeasurable joy lots of laughter and pain beyond expression She had to trust the Lord to give his angels charge over her children to keep them safe through their many escapades exploits and accidents and to hold her faith strong in loss Rather naive she often innocently found herself caught up in embarrassing and sometimes dangerous situations She learned to laugh at herself and the messes she got into because crying didn't help Thanking the Lord for all things good or bad became a way of life as a matter of survival Her familys attempt to build a two story home in the Florida boonies provided more adventure than she bargained for with alligators wild hogs floods and fires but also beauty bounty and butterflies Later finding herself essentially abandoned and emotionally lost she also found she had lost her sense of direction which led to wandering around in the wilderness until she received a call and life changed once more The Bottoms

Joe R. Lansdale, 2010-12-07 This Edgar Award winner is equal parts morality tale and page turning thriller Denver Post classic American storytelling in its truest darkest and most affecting form with echoes of William Faulkner and Harper Lee Its 1933 in East Texas and the Depression lingers in the air like a slow moving storm When a young Harry Collins and his little sister stumble across the body of a black woman who has been savagely mutilated and left to die in the bottoms of the Sabine River their small town is instantly charged with tension When a second body turns up this time of a white woman there is little Harry can do from stopping his Klan neighbors from lynching an innocent black man Together with his younger sister Harry sets out to discover who the real killer is and to do so
