In Place of a Show Augusto Corrieri,2016-05-19 In Place of a Show is a compelling account of Western theatre buildings in the 21st century theatres stripped of their primary purpose lying empty preserved as museums or demolished Playfully combining first person narratives scholarly research and visual documents Augusto Corrieri explores the material and imaginative potentials of these places charting interconnections between humans birds vegetation and the beguiling animations of inanimate things such as walls curtains and seats Across four chapters we learn of the uncanny dismantling and reconstitution of a German Baroque auditorium during the Second World War the phantasmal remains of a demolished music hall in London s East End a Renaissance Italian theatre fleetingly transformed into an aviary by the appearance of a swallow and a lavish opera house emerging from the Amazon rainforest In these pages we are invited to discover theatres as sites of anomalous encounters and surprising coincidences places that might reveal the performative entanglement of human and nonhuman worlds

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition
