Fiscal Monitor, April 2012 International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2012-04-20 Overall fiscal risks remain elevated according to this issue although there are signs that in some key respects they are less acute than six months ago Past efforts with fiscal consolidation are beginning to bear fruit particularly when buttressed by credible institutional commitments Nevertheless debt ratios in many advanced economies are at historical levels and rising borrowing requirements remain very large financial markets continue to be in a state of alert and downside risks to the global economy predominate In this uncertain environment the challenge for fiscal policy is to find the right balance between exploiting short term space to support the fragile recovery and rebuilding longer term space by advancing fiscal consolidation Against that background this issue examines in more detail the concept of fiscal space or the scope that policymakers have to calibrate the pace of fiscal adjustment without undermining fiscal sustainability A number of conclusions emerge in regard to countries ongoing vulnerability to unexpected shocks the potential for substantial negative impacts of fiscal adjustment on activity possible overstatements of short term pressures on the public finances in some countries as general government gross debt ratios have risen the implications of countries having flexibility in the short term but not the longer term and the monitoring and enforcement challenges raised by second generation fiscal rules

Epidemiology of Healthcare-Associated Infections in Australia Ramon

Z. Shaban,Brett G. Mitchell,Philip Russo,Deborah Macbeth,2021-02-26 Endorsed by the Australasian College for Infection Prevention and Control ACIPC ACIPC is the peak body for infection prevention and control professionals in the Australasian region Healthcare associated Infections HAIs are a major threat to patient safety and the quality of healthcare globally

Despite this Australia does not have a nationally coordinated program for the surveillance and reporting of HAIs. Epidemiology of Healthcare associated Infections in Australia is Australia's first peer reviewed evidence based assessment of the epidemiology of HAIs using publicly available data from hospital acquired complications HACs state based surveillance systems and peer reviewed and grey literature sources. This important work has been compiled by some of Australia's leading infection control professionals and researchers. It will build national consensus on definitions surveillance methodology and reporting of the incidence of HAIs. In doing so it provides hospitals and those working in infection prevention and control an opportunity to benchmark and evaluate interventions to reduce infections and ensure transparency on reporting methods that will strengthen Australia's efforts to prevent and control HAIs. Here is a great article published in Sydney Morning Herald on the publication of Epidemiology of Healthcare associated infections in Australia. Collated publicly available HAI surveillance definitions from jurisdictions across Australia. Collated publicly available national HACs HAI data derived from the associated surveillance programs. Identification of the gaps in both publicly available HAI data from different sources and the lack of publicly available HAI surveillance data in one serialised title. Supporting video summarising key content.

Regulating Charities Myles McGregor-Lowndes, Bob Wyatt, 2017-04-07. In this volume charity commissioners and leading charity policy reformers from across the world reflect on the aims and objectives of charity regulation and what it has achieved. Regulating Charities represents an insider's review of the last quarter century of charity law policy and an insight for its future development. Charity Commissioners and nonprofit regulatory agency heads chart the nature of charity law reforms that they have implemented with a warts and all analysis. They are joined by influential sector reformers who assess the outcomes of their policy agitation. All reflect on the current state of charities in a fiscally restrained environment often with conservative governments and offer their views on productive regulatory paths available for the future. This topical collection brings together major charity regulation actors and will be of great interest to anyone concerned with contemporary third sector policy making public administration and civil society.
