PRIMARY SCHOOL EXAMINATION PRELIMINARY RESULTS 2014

The Ministry of Education and Youth hereby issues the official preliminary results of the 2014 Primary School Examination (PSE).

Student Population

A total 7551 candidates registered for the PSE of which 7245 candidates actually sat all or part of the exam this year. PSE numbers for 2014 record a 0.24% increase in the number of test candidates registered over 2013. Of the 7551 who registered for the exam, 306 (or approximately 4%) were either absent for part of the exam, or had an Ungraded for the English Writing Paper or the Math Problem Solving Paper, had a No Result for at least one part of the exam, or a had a combination of Absent, Ungraded or No Result for different parts of the exam.¹

Purpose and Intended Use of the Primary School Examination

The PSE assesses achievement of curriculum content and skills in the four (4) areas of English, Mathematics, Social Studies and Science of the National Primary School Curriculum. The examination is criterion-referenced meaning that performance of *each individual is compared with a preset standard for acceptable achievement...The performance of other examinees is irrelevant.*² In this way, the examination seeks not to rank students in comparison to other students (as in norm-referencing) but to report what each student has achieved for individual subjects. This is expressed as a percentage score. The results of the examination are intended to be used for two main purposes:

1. Certification of Students at the completion of primary school in four content areas of the primary curriculum; and
2. Educational decision-making to inform policy, planning and practice at national, district, school and classroom levels.

The PSE is not and was never intended to be used as the sole criteria for entrance into secondary schools. Secondary schools are advised to use multiple sources of evidence of students' achievement and holistic development at primary school to get a more complete

¹ 'Ungraded' means the candidate did some work but it was not decipherable, while 'No Result' means the candidate was present but wrote nothing on the particular exam paper.
