Bilingual Education A Dialogue With The Bakhtin Circle:

Bilingual Education Marcia Moraes,1996-07-03 Examines the theories of Bakhtin and Freire in relation to bilingual education and second language learning Bilingual Education Marcia Sampaio de Moraes,1994 Bilingual Education Marcia Moraes,1996-01-01 Examines the theories of Bakhtin and Freire in relation to bilingual education and second language learning Inciting Change in Secondary English Language Programs M. Coles-Ritchie,2009-08-31 This book follows a group of teachers who worked to create a program that supported their students native languages and funds of knowledge finding that structures within the school and discourses from other teachers administrators and the nation community both constrained enabled the teachers to create an equitable learning environment Interrogating Critical Pedagogy Pierre Wilbert Orelus,Rochelle Brock,2014-11-13 Educators teacher practitioners and social activists have successfully used critical pedagogy as a tool to help marginalized students develop awareness and seek alternative solutions to their poor educational and socioeconomic situations However this theory is often criticized as being mostly dominated by privileged white males bringing issues of race and gender to the forefront This volume provides insight on how critical pedagogy can be helpful to scholars and teachers alike in their analysis of racial gender linguistic and political problems It features a wide range of respected scholars who examine the way and the degree to which critical pedagogy can be used to improve education for students of color women and other marginalized groups The Praeger Handbook of Latino Education in the U.S. Lourdes Diaz Soto,2006-11-30 Latinos in the United States have fought hard to attain equality especially in the field of education The Praeger Handbook of Latino Education in the U S focuses on this fight for equal educational access and represents a significant addition to American educational literature The contributors to this volume reveal that many Latino children still face challenges that were present many decades ago In addition to such obstacles as cultural conflicts and racism they also face teachers curricula and assessments that are not always respectful to their backgrounds Educators parents policy makers and communities across the country will find this work a goldmine of detailed historical and current information Language, Power and Pedagogy Jim Cummins,2000-09-22 Population mobility is at an all time high in human history One result of this unprecedented movement of peoples around the world is that in many school systems monolingual and monocultural students are the exception rather than the rule particularly in urban areas This shift in demographic realities entails enormous challenges for educators and policy makers What do teachers need to know in order to teach effectively in linguistically and culturally diverse contexts How long does it take second language learners to acquire proficiency in the language of school instruction What are the differences between attaining conversational fluency in everyday contexts and developing proficiency in the language registers required for academic success What adjustments do we need to make in curriculum instruction and assessment to ensure that second language learners understand what is being taught and are assessed in a fair and equitable manner How long do we need to wait before including second language learners in high stakes national examinations and assessments What role if any should be accorded students first language in the curriculum Do bilingual education programs work well for poor children from minority language backgrounds or should they be reserved only for middle class children from the majority or dominant group In addressing these issues this volume focuses not only on issues of language learning and teaching but also highlights the ways in which power relations in the wider society affect patterns of teacher student interaction in the classroom Effective instruction will inevitably challenge patterns of coercive power relations in both school and society

Teacher Preparation for Bilingual Student Populations Belinda Bustos Flores,Rosa Hernández

Sheets,Ellen Riojas Clark,2011-01-04 The growing number of bilingual students in public schools coupled with a critical shortage of teachers specially prepared to serve this population calls for a critical examination of policies and practices in bilingual and ESL teacher preparation This volume focuses on understanding the structural substantive and contextual elements of preparation programs and provides transformative guidelines for creating Educator signature programs Designed to improve the practice of teacher preparation by promoting dialogic conversations and applications of praxis in the preparation of bilingual ESL teacher candidates it emphasizes that exemplary teacher preparation requires transformative teacher educators Simultaneously organizing the scholarship in the field and advancing new understandings this book is must have resource for current and future teacher educators Contributors include Maria Brisk Sylvia Cel don Pattichis Lourdes Diaz Soto Eugene Garc a Virginia Gonz les Guillermo Solano Flores Maria Torres Guzman Carmen Mercado Bertha Perez Mari Riojas Cortez Francisco Rios Concepci n Valadez and Angela Valenzuela

Language Use in the Two-Way Classroom Renée DePalma,2010-08-05 Based on an extended ethnographic study of a dual language Spanish English Kindergarten this book takes a critical look at children s linguistic and non linguistic interactions and the ways that teaching design can help or hinder language development With a focus on official Spanish time it explores the particular challenges of supporting the minority language use as well as the teacher s strategies for doing so In bilingual classrooms teachers goals include bilingualism as well as academic achievement for all The children may share these interests but have their own agendas as well This book explores the linguistic and social interactions that may help or hinder these multiple and sometimes conflicting agendas How can teachers design educational practice that takes into consideration broader forces of language hegemony as well as children s immediate interests

Preparing Teachers for Inclusive Education Suzanne E.

Wade,2000-03 Accompanies INCLUSIVE EDUCATION A CASEBOOK Part II provides teaching notes corresponding to cases in INCLUSIVE EDUCATION Bilingualism and Language Pedagogy Janina Brutt-Griffler,Manka Varghese,2004-01-01 Bilingualism and Language Pedagogy brings an understanding of language as a social practice and bilingualism as the study of bidirectional transitioning to the examination of bilingual settings in the US Europe and the developing countries Focusing both on bilingual linguistic competence and educational politics and practice the volume provides valuable practical proposals and models for developing sociocultural and linguistic competencies among bilingual practitioners and students

Power & Voice in Research with Children Beth Blue Swadener,2005 This volume critically examines issues of power and voice in research with children Chapters focus on the relationship between researchers and children and explore how to more adequately represent the complexities multiple perspectives and understandings that emerge when the research process more fully includes children and youth Contributors explore issues of imposition and power that are inherent in traditional research and even more problematic with children Authors document how children s voices can guide us in learning about research methodologies theories and praxis as well as about issues of race identity class linguistic diversity and gender within larger postcolonial contexts and research traditions Language of the Land Katherine Schuster,David

Witkosky,2007-04-01 The idea for this volume arose out of a need for a treatment of the interplay between language and ethnonationalism within both formal and nonformal educational settings In no way intended to be exhaustive in scope the contents give the reader a critical overview of issues related to language cultural identity formation and ethnonationalism The chapters within this work deal with the effects of different language groups with differing amounts of power within society coming into contact with one another and provide insight into how language is both utilized by and affected by processes such as colonialism post colonialism acculturation and ethnonationalism Language is central to culture indeed houses cultural understandings and allows generational transfer of key aspects of a group s heritage Negotiation of

Identities in Multilingual Contexts Aneta Pavlenko,Adrian Blackledge,2004 This volume highlights the role of language ideologies in the process of negotiation of identities and shows that in different historical and social contexts different identities may be negotiable or non negotiable Gender and Sexual Identities in Transition Patricia Bou,José

Santaemilia,2009-05-05 The aim of this volume is to offer an international panorama of gendered and sexualised experiences with new and original data collected from a variety of cultural settings and sociopolitical contexts We look at many parts of the world Japan Sweden Poland Cyprus Spain US Australia Canada Hungary with different assumptions and expectations often revealing various research practices and traditions Gendered or sexualized discourses are unstable constructions in permanent transition in a perpetual struggle to gain social legitimacy and to counter the workings of opposite discourses They constitute privileged vantage points from which one can observe and judge power relationships New identities are created and reproduced refused and challenged This volume explores among other issues the perpetuation of hegemonic masculinity in Evangelical universities the pharmaceutical industry's promotion of biometaphors involving a shopping strategy which revolves around compulsory heterosexuality the perpetuation of Greek Cypriot men's sexual superiority over women the Catholic Church's attempt to impose a restrictive view of religion and of sexual ethics the consolidation of American TV shopping channels as a setting where middle class femininity and consumption are linked stereotypically the negotiation of gender and sex related norms in groups of British Bangladeshi girls Even heterosexuality as the unmarked form of sexual identity and the primary site for the reproduction of gender difference needs to reassert its normative and prescriptive status maybe through the silent workings of tradition By suggesting the concept of transition we resist seeing the idea of identity as a fixed and definitive category Gender and sexual identities are never at rest One is never finished developing into a woman or a man or any other gender sexual identity Contributors include Joan Pujolar Andrea Simon Maeda Allyson Jule Stina Ericsson Agnieszka Kie kiewicz Janowiak Joanna Pawelczyk N ra Schleicher Elli Doukanari Pilar Garc s Conejos Lidia Tanaka Jos Santaemilia and Pia Pichler

Adult Language Education and Migration James Simpson, Anne Whiteside, 2015-03-27 Adult Language Education and Migration Challenging Agendas in Policy and Practice provides a lively and critical examination of policy and practice in language education for adult migrants around the world showing how opportunities for learning the language of a new country both shape and are shaped by policy moves Language policies for migrants are often controversial and hotly contested but at the same time innovative teaching practices are emerging in response to the language learning needs of today's mobile populations This book analyses and challenges language education policies relating to adult migrants in nine countries provides a comparative study with separate chapters on policy and practice in each country focuses on Australia Canada Spain Catalonia Finland France Ireland the Netherlands the UK and the US Adult Language Education and Migration is essential reading for practitioners students and researchers working in the area of language education in migration contexts

American Dreams, Global Visions Donald F. Hones, 2014-04-04 This book presents the struggle for dialogue and understanding between teachers and refugee and immigrant families in their own words Forging a stronger connection between teachers newcomers and their families is one of the greatest challenges facing schools in the United States Teachers need to become familiar with the political economic and sociocultural contexts of these newcomers lives and the role of the U S in influencing these contexts in positive and negative ways The important contribution of American Dreams Global Visions is to bring together global issues of international politics and economics and their effects on migration and refugee situations national issues of language and social policy and local issues of education and finding ways to live together in an increasingly diverse society Narratives of four immigrant families in the United States Hmong Mexican Assyrian Kurdish Kosovar and the teacher researchers who are coming to know them form the heart of this work The narratives are interwoven with data from the research and critical analysis of how the narratives reflect and embody local national and global contexts of power The themes that are developed set the stage for critical dialogues about culture language history and power Central to the book is a rationale and methodology for teachers to conduct dialogic research with refugees and immigrants research encompassing methods as once ethnographic participatory and narrative which seeks to engage researchers and participants in dialogues that shed light on economic political social and cultural relationships to represent these relationships in texts and to extend these dialogues to promote broader understanding and social justice in schools and communities American Dreams Global Visions will interest teachers social workers and others who work with immigrants and refugees researchers professionals and students across the fields of education language and culture ethnic studies American studies and anthropology and members of the general public interested in learning more about America s most recent newcomers It is particularly appropriate for courses in foundations of education multicultural education comparative education language and culture and qualitative research Bakhtinian Perspectives on Language, Literacy, and Learning Arnetha F. Ball, Sarah Warshauer

Freedman, 2004-08-23 This 2004 book represents a multidisciplinary collaboration that highlights the significance of Mikhail Bakhtin s theories to modern scholarship in the field of language and literacy Book chapters examine such important questions as What resources do students bring from their home community environments that help them become literate in school What knowledge do teachers need in order to meet the literacy needs of varied students How can teacher educators and professional development programs better understand teachers needs and help them to become better prepared to teach diverse literacy learners What challenges lie ahead for literacy learners in the coming century Chapters are contributed by scholars who write from varied disciplinary perspectives In addition other scholarly voices enter into a Bakhtinian dialogue with these scholars about their ideas These other voices help our readers push the boundaries of current thinking on Bakhtinian theory and make this book a model of heteroglossia and dialogic intertextuality JSL Vol 24-N5 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2014-10-28 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement
