

About the Author

Feature writer Nick Karas in an article about Bill Dance for Sports Afield magazine, described Dance as the kind of angler most sportsmen wouldn't care to go fishing with. According to Karas, Dance is a fidget, he can't sit still for more than a few minutes at a time, and he'll seem to turn you off as you talk to him because his computer-like brain is concentrating on something else. That something else is what this book is all about!

Not to lead the reader to believe that Karas's description of Bill Dance means he's antisocial or a bad fellow, far from it, Bill Dance is probably as close to the image of the "all American, clean-cut, mom and apple pie boy" you can imagine. But put him on a lake casting for bass and he becomes as methodical in his attack as a research scientist looking for microbes.

As an active member of the now 20,000 member strong Bass Anglers Sportmen Society (BASS), Bill has earned in excess of $20,000 by winning more bass tournaments than any other competitive fisherman in the United States. In bass tournament history only 15 contestants have won more than $1000 and only one other person has yet to go over $5000!

Dance first started his career as a journey angler in 1967 at the time of the first BASS tournament. In 20 events, he won 8 first places, came in second 5 times, was third twice and missed the big money only 4 times.

With a record like Bill Dance's, one would think he's been around for a long time.

The fact is that Dance, at 30 years of age, is a "boy wonder" in a sport long dominated by "old pros".
