American Democracy Andrew J. Perrin, 2014-04-10 In this groundbreaking book sociologist Andrew Perrin shows that rules and institutions while important are not the core of democracy Instead as Alexis de Tocqueville showed in the early years of the American republic democracy is first and foremost a matter of culture the shared ideas practices and technologies that help individuals combine into publics and achieve representation Reinterpreting democracy as culture reveals the ways the media public opinion polling and changing technologies shape democracy and citizenship As Perrin shows the founders of the United States produced a social cultural and legal environment fertile for democratic development and in the two centuries since citizens and publics use that environment and shared culture to re imagine and extend that democracy American Democracy provides a fresh innovative approach to democracy that will change the way readers understand their roles as citizens and participants Never will you enter a voting booth or answer a poll again without realizing what a truly social act it is This will be necessary reading for scholars students and the public seeking to understand the challenges and opportunities for democratic citizenship from Toqueville to town halls to Twitter

Transitive Cultures Christopher B. Patterson,2018-04-02 Texts written by Southeast Asian migrants have often been read taught and studied under the label of multicultural literature But what if the ideology of multiculturalism with its emphasis on authenticity and identifiable cultural difference is precisely what this literature resists Transitive Cultures offers a new perspective on transpacific Anglophone literature revealing how these chameleonic writers enact a variety of hybrid transnational identities and intimacies Examining literature from Malaysia Singapore and the Philippines as well as from Southeast Asian migrants in Canada Hawaii and the U S mainland this book considers how these authors use English strategically as a means for building interethnic alliances and critiquing ruling power structures in both Southeast Asia and North America Uncovering a wealth of texts from queer migrants those who resist ethnic stereotypes and those who feel few ties to their ostensible homelands Transitive Cultures challenges conventional expectations regarding diaspora and minority writers Routledge Handbook on the Green New Deal Kyla Tienhaara,Joanna Robinson,2022-08-26 In recent years the Green New Deal has moved from relative obscurity to front and centre of policy discussions and public debates about how to respond to the climate crisis It has been credited with radically changing the nature of the conversation on climate change and with re energizing the environmental movement at a critical time All Green New Deal proposals share an emphasis on the need for governments rather than markets to lead the energy transition However they differ in other respects This Handbook analyses the fundamentals underlying all Green New Deals as well as exploring national and regional variations It is divided into three parts The first part examines the political economy of the Green New Deal focussing not just on how proposals will be costed but also on opportunities for a fundamental transformation of both national economies and the global economic system The second part explores issues of justice which are central to many Green New Deal proposals including Indigenous rights racial and gender equity and justice for the Global South In the third part authors detail case studies of Green New Deal proposals and plans at the local national and regional level This book will be an invaluable research and reference volume for students and scholars in economics politics sociology geography and environmental studies It should also be of interest to those actively involved in climate and environmental policymaking "The" Athenaeum ,1866 Mortals, Deities and Divine Symbols: Rethinking Ancient Images from the Levant to Mesopotamia Benjamin Sass,Laura Battini,2025-05-29 Dedicated to Tallay Ornan a scholar distinguished in ancient Western Asian iconographic studies It is divided into her major themes New Discoveries and Approaches The Human World The Divine World This discusses iconological and textual problems in a chronological span from the third to first millennia BCE Histories of Transnational Criminal Law Neil Boister,Sabine Gless,Florian Jeßberger,2021-08-02 This edited collection provides an in depth account of the history of key developments in transnational criminal law While the history of international criminal law is now a much written about topic the origins of most modern transnational criminal laws are not well understood Histories of Transnational Criminal Law provides for the first time a set of legal histories of state efforts to combat and cooperate against transnational crime With contributions from a group of word leading experts this edited volume traverses a range of topics beginning with the normative intellectual and institutional histories of transnational criminal law It then moves to the histories of specific transnational crimes ranging across eras from piracy to cybercrime and finishes by examining jurisdiction modes of liability different forms of procedural cooperation and the predicament of the individual in transnational criminal law The book highlights specific issues and how they have been resolved in the loose assemblage of norms institutions and practices that constitutes transnational criminal law imwe imba - the other room Munashe Wadzanai, Anne Schlechters, Thomas F. Andersson, 2022-11-01 Munashe is a bright adolescent girl living in Zimbabwe. She feels a pressure to leave Zimbabwe and to follow most of her peers to a university or to work in the West. However, she is not convinced that this is what she really wants. Via Thomas, an experienced European scientist and manager initiating a technical Start up Hub at her boarding school, Munashe comes in contact with Anne. Imwe imba, the other room, is a novel covering the last 2 high school years of Munashe and Anne in letters between the young women as well as from Thomas to Simon, his now retired personal and business coach. Through the letters, Anne and Simon discover unknown and fascinating aspects of the southern African society. Especially since Thomas includes stories from Nelson, Munashe's grandfather and small holder farmer. Based on the stories and hearing about Munashe's activities in more technical projects, Anne develops a critical attitude towards both the current Western school system and the effectiveness of traditional Western development or aid projects. On the other side, Munashe learns that Europe is not the land of milk and honey for everybody. Munashe and Anne, assisted by Thomas, review the so-called development work activities in emerging markets and propose a promising approach to economically uplift more rural areas. In part 2, the Start up Hub activities are proven to be sustainable, and Munashe asks where do we want to go. A design is made for a more ideal global society, and the issues faced implementing their ideas are discussed. The letters in this novel cover a wide spectrum of topics: personal struggles and contemplations, educational and business practices, science and art, geopolitics and historical backgrounds, change management as well as social developments. Each letter is written in an accessible language and underlined with references to allow the reader to explore more. Most of all, imwe imba wants to create awareness: Awareness for the wonderful real life in Africa. Awareness that Africa is prosperity. Awareness that our younger generation is perfectly able to initiate change. That a single person can initiate change. That complaining or being upset about various unacceptable global happenings or actions is not enough. That a further polarisation and blaming the others doesn't help. That we have to do things. That we should not fear change but embrace the changes that are needed to come to the necessary improvements.
