Correspondance I 1830 1851:

Speaking With the Dead Jurgen Pieters, 2019-08-06 This book deals with the special power of literary texts to put us in contact with the past A large number of authors coming from different ages have described this power in terms of the conversation with the dead when we read these texts we somehow find ourselves conducting a special kind of dialogue with dead authors The book covers a number of texts and authors that make use of this metaphor Petrarch Machiavelli Sidney Flaubert Michelet Barthes In connecting these texts and authors in novel ways Jurgen Pieters tackles the all important question of why we remain fascinated with literature in general and with the specific texts that to us are still its backbone Siituated in the aftermath of New Historicism the book challenges the idea that literary history as a reading practice stems from a desire to speak with the dead Key Features Offers a broad survey a combination of classical literature Renaissance literature and modern theory and history Issues a plea for the importance of reading literary texts and the power of literature Discusses key figues from the Western canon Homer Virgil Dante Machiavelli in light of the idea that we can learn from the past by talking to the dead Combines theoretical discussions of the relationsip between literature and history with close reading of works by major literary authors and historians

Sites of Exchange ,2006-01-01 Crossing borders both physically and imaginatively is part of our nomadic postmodern identity but transcultural and transnational exchanges have also played a major role in the centuries long processes of hybridisation that helped to fashion the vast geographic political and imaginative container of diversity we call Europe This volume gathers together the work of scholars from several European countries in an attempt to encourage a collective reflection upon historical and often mythical locations and landscapes as well as upon the thresholds and faultlines that unite or separate them The issues the volume tackles are delicate and complex for the encounter of differences engenders both curiosity and suspicion and there is no easy way to create a new synthesis while respecting and promoting diversity However since Europe is inevitably a cultural and political entity in the making Europeans should embrace the great narrative of a utopian project uniting their efforts to work towards a civilisation that is grounded on plurality and openness

The Architectural Uncanny Anthony Vidler,1994-03-29 Anthony Vidler interprets contemporary buildings and projects in light of the resurgent interest in the uncanny as a metaphor for a fundamentally unhomely modern condition The Architectural Uncanny presents an engaging and original series of meditations on issues and figures that are at the heart of the most pressing debates surrounding architecture today Anthony Vidler interprets contemporary buildings and projects in light of the resurgent interest in the uncanny as a metaphor for a fundamentally unhomely modern condition The essays are at once historical serving to situate contemporary discourse in its own intellectual tradition and theoretical opening up the complex and difficult relationships between politics social thought and architectural design in an era when the reality of homelessness and the idealism of the neo avant garde have never seemed so far apart Vidler one of the deftest and surest critics of the contemporary scene explores aspects of architecture through notions of the uncanny as they have been developed in literature philosophy and psychology from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the present He interprets the unsettling qualities of today s architecture its fragmented neo constructivist forms reminiscent of dismembered bodies its seeing walls replicating the passive gaze of domestic cyborgs its historical monuments indistinguishable from glossy reproductions in the light of modern reflection on questions of social and individual estrangement alienation exile and homelessness Focusing on the work of architects such as Bernard Tschumi Rem Koolhaas Peter Eisenman Coop Himmelblau John Hejduk Elizabeth Diller and Ricardo Scofidio as well as theorists of the urban condition Vidler delineates the problems and paradoxes associated with the subject of domesticity

The Spectralities Reader Maria del Pilar Blanco, Esther Peeren,2013-08-29 The Spectralities Reader is the first volume to collect the rich scholarship produced in the wake of the spectral turn of the early 1990s which saw ghosts and haunting conjured as compelling analytical and methodological tools across the humanities and social sciences Surveying the past twenty years from an interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspective the Reader displays the wide range of concerns spectrality in its diverse elaborations has been called upon to elucidate The disjunctions produced by globalization the ungraspable quality of modern media the convolutions of subject formation in terms of gender race and sexuality the elusiveness of spaces and places and the lingering presences and absences of memory and history have all been reconceived by way of the spectral A primer for the wide readership engaged with cultural interpretations of ghosts and haunting that go beyond the confines of the fictional and supernatural The Spectralities Reader includes twenty five groundbreaking texts by prominent contemporary thinkers from Jacques Derrida and Gayatri Spivak to Avery Gordon and Arjun Appadurai as well as a general introduction and six section introductions by the editors

Herman Melville and the Politics of the Inhuman Michael Jonik,2018-02-22 An ambitious revisionary study of not only Herman Melville s political philosophy but also of our own deeply inhuman condition Routledge Revivals: Homosexuality: A Research Guide (1987) Wayne R. Dynes, 2017-02-17 First published in 1987 this book encompasses a broad range interdisciplinary research into homosexuality displaying a full spectrum of points of view and given that the major traditions of modern homosexual research began in Europe is not restricted to works in English In general topics that are densely covered in the literature are presented in this guide selectively with some less studied topics such as Economics and Music fleshed out with signposts to more comprehensive research It seeks to not only mirror existing publications but also to stimulate new work by pinpointing neglected themes and methods This book will be of interest to students of sociology Madame Bovary Gustave Flaubert, Malcolm Bowie, Mark Overstall, 2008-04-17 Emma Bovary the wife of a provincial doctor seeks to escape her boredom by indulging in romantic fantasies and adulterous affairs The Second French Republic 1848-1852 Christopher Guyver, 2016-06-09 This book follows the story of the Second French Republic from its idealistic beginnings in February 1848 to its formal replacement in December 1852 by the Second Empire Based on original archival research The Second French Republic gives a detailed account of the internal tensions that irrevocably weakened France's shortest republic During this short period French political life was buffeted by strong and often contrary forces universal manhood suffrage fear of socialism the President Louis Napoleon Bonaparte and the political ambitions of the military high command for the restoration of the monarchy

Madame Bovary on Trial Dominick LaCapra, 2018-03-15 In 1857 following the publication of Madame Bovary Flaubert was charged with having committed an outrage to public morality and religion Dominick LaCapra an intellectual historian with wide ranging literary interests here examines this remarkable trial LaCapra draws on material from Flaubert's correspondence the work of literary critics and Jean Paul Sartre's analysis of Flaubert LaCapra maintains that Madame Bovary is at the intersection of the traditional and the modern novel simultaneously invoking conventional expectations and subverting them No Voice is Ever Wholly Lost Louise Kaplan, 1996-04-17 In this brilliant and inspirational book Louise Kaplan draws on her own experience as a psychoanalyst as well as on art literature and recent history to illuminate the psychological forces that sustain the dialogue between parents and children even after death This dialogue the heartbeat of human existence begins with an exchange of gestures between parent and infant Through these intimacies of everyday life the parent transmits to the child the emotional language of his species and eventually the verbal language and symbolic communication that enable the child to participate in human culture Once having entered into the human dialogue we cannot live without it The dialogue continues even after death Using a wide variety of examples from the child suffering brief separation anxiety to children of Holocaust victims to parents coping with the lifelong grief of losing a child Dr Kaplan demonstrates how to keep the voices of lost loved ones eternally alive The Bedroom Michelle Perrot, 2018-08-21 An erudite and highly enjoyable exploration of the most intriguing of personal spaces from Greek and Roman antiquity through today The winner of France's prestigious Prix Femina Essai 2009 this imaginative and captivating book explores the many dimensions of the room in which we spend so much of our lives the bedroom Eminent cultural historian Michelle Perrot traces the evolution of the bedroom from the time of the ancient Greeks and Romans to today examining its myriad forms and functions from royal king's chamber to child's sleeping quarters to lovers' trysting place to monk's cell The history of women so eager for a room of their own and that of prisons where the principal cause of suffering is the lack of privacy is interwoven with a reflection on secrecy walls the night and its mysteries Drawing from a wide range of sources including architectural and design treatises private journals novels memoirs and correspondences Perrot's engaging book follows the many roads that lead to the bedroom birth sex illness death in its endeavor to expose the most intimate nocturnal side of human history

Sentimental Education Gustave Flaubert, 2024-01-16 A fresh and vivid translation of Flaubert's influential bildungsroman Gustave Flaubert conceived Sentimental Education his final complete novel as the history of his own generation one that failed to fulfill the promise of the Revolution of 1848 Published a few months before the start of the 1870 Franco-Prussian War it offers both a sweeping panorama of French society over three decades and an intimate bildungsroman of a young man from a small town who arrives in Paris when protests against the monarchy are increasing The novel's protagonist Frédéric Moreau alternates between aimlessness and ambition as he searches for a meaningful life through love affairs and republican politics Flaubert's narrative includes scenes of high drama as scattered protests across Paris swell into revolution and quiet moments of self-aware romanticism crafting a story that possesses the sweep and scope of a historical novel combined with deep emotion and scandalous intimacy Suffused with tragedy and the poignancy of lost chances and wasted lives Sentimental Education is sharpened by satirical observations of what Flaubert condemned as the Second Empire's endemic hypocrisy and willful blindness This vibrant new translation by Raymond N MacKenzie includes an extensive critical introduction and annotations to help the modern reader appreciate Flaubert's achievement Sentimental Education intertwines the personal the intimate and the subjective with the political social and cultural embedding Frédéric's story in the larger arc of what Flaubert saw as France's decline into mediocrity and imbecility in its politics and manners

New Perspectives on Imagology, 2022-11-14 With this volume the editors Katharina Edtstadler Sandra Folie and Gianna Zocco propose an extension of the traditional conception of imagology as a theory and method for studying the cultural construction and literary representation of national usually European characters Consisting of an instructive introduction and 21 articles the book relates this sub-field of comparative literature to contemporary political developments and enriches it with new interdisciplinary transnational intersectional and intermedial perspectives The contributions offer 1 a reconsideration and update of the field's methods genres and theoretical frames 2 trans/post-national migratory and marginalized perspectives beyond the European nation-state 3 insights into geopolitical dichotomies such as Orient Occident 4 intersectional approaches considering the entanglements of national images with notions of age class gender sexuality and ethnicity race 5 investigations of the role of national images in visual narratives and music

Coiffures Carol de Dobay

Rifelj,2010 Examines nineteenth century hairstyles and their cultural associations and analyzes the social and symbolic roles that hair played in literary representations of the new body ideal of the era in fashion magazines and as clues to social status sexual availability and character in the fiction of major French authors including Baudelaire Balzac Flaubert and Zola

Between Blood and Gold Frédérique Beauvois,2016-12-01 Today a century and a half after the abolition of slavery across most of the Americas the idea of monetary reparations for former slaves and their descendants continues to be a controversial one Lost among these debates however is the fact that such payments were widespread in the nineteenth century except the victims were not slaves but the slaveholders deprived of their labor This landmark comparative study analyzes the debates over compensation within France and Great Britain It lays out in unprecedented detail the philosophical legal political and economic factors at play establishing a powerful new model for understanding the aftermath of slavery in the Americas

Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz,2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries

Islamic Homosexualities Stephen O. Murray,Will Roscoe,1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances

Thematics Max Louwerse, Willie Van Peer, 2002-01-01 Themes play a central role in our everyday communication we have to know what a text is about in order to understand it Intended meaning cannot be understood without some knowledge of the underlying theme This book helps to define the concept of themes in texts and how they are structured in language use Much of the literature on Thematics is scattered over different disciplines literature psychology linguistics cognitive science which this detailed collection pulls together in one coherent overview The result is a new landmark for the study and understanding of themes in their everyday manifestation

Gender and Politics in the Age of Letter-Writing, 1750-2000 Máire Cross, 2017-05-15 Letters have long been an outlet for political expression whether they articulate the personal politics of the daily routine or the political views of individuals who witness or participate in dramatic events In addition letters can be unusually revealing records of the relations between men and women Though letters have frequently been studied as a privileged space for literary social and cultural expression the three dimensional relationship of politics gender and letters has not been the focus of an entire volume The nineteen essays in this collection examine how the gendered nature of political literacy is revealed over a 250 year period through letter writing whether the writer is famous or unknown the wife of a prominent politician or activist a political prisoner or political militant Ranging wide in terms of subject matter and geography the contributors examine correspondence that ponders familial concerns as well as letters providing political commentary on the effects of war or revolution on everyday life Among the impressive group of international scholars are Jim Allen Clare Brant Edith Gelles Jane Rendall and Si n Reynolds
