Black Girls Experiencing Their Intersectional Identities in School Crystal L. Edwards,2019-10-17 Black Girls Experiencing Their Intersectional Identities in School explores the subjective experience of Black girls within the educational context Based on interviews diary entries and focus groups the author argues that as a result of their intersectional identities Black girls experience unique challenges and obstacles in the educational setting Addressing topics ranging from interpersonal relationships social media beauty sexuality hypervisibility invisibility and microaggressions this book highlights the voices and experiences of Black girls between the ages of 11 and 15

The Girls provide a narrative account of the challenges they face daily in the educational context describing in detail the factors that maintain and perpetuate volatile conditions. Additionally, this book explores the coping strategies that this group of Black girls developed to resist and respond to the daily obstacles. Ultimately, this book not only identifies the unique struggles faced by Black girls in schools as a result of their intersectional identities but most importantly, this work explores pragmatic strategies that can be implemented to create safe and beneficial spaces for Black Girls. The author argues that through the implementation of Black Feminist Pedagogy, an Ethic of Caring, and partnerships with Black Girl Empowerment organizations, educational practitioners can mediate the negative experiences and create spaces for growth.

Child and Adolescent Development for Educators Christi Crosby Bergin, David Allen Bergin, Sue Walker, Graham Daniel, Angela Fenton, Pearl Subban, 2018-09-01

Child and Adolescent Development for Educators covers development from early childhood through high school. This text provides authentic research-based strategies and guidelines for the classroom, helping future teachers to create an environment that promotes optimal development in children. The authors apply child development concepts to topics of high interest and relevance to teachers, including classroom discipline, constructivism, social emotional development, and many others. Child and Adolescent Development for Educators combines the core theory with practical implications for educational contexts and shows how child development links to the Australian Professional Standards for Graduate Teachers. Case studies and real-world vignettes further bridge the distance between research and the classroom. Along with strong coverage of key local research such as the Longitudinal Study of Australian Children and Longitudinal Study of Indigenous children.
