Muller, 2015-11-06 During my time in the army a lot of my intellectual pursuits had been on hold Within the first year of getting out I began to use the Internet for research one of my favorite things to look up was famous quotations One day after reading some I wondered to myself if I could write things to similar affect In my room there was laying an unused journal my mother had brought for me so I sat down with the journal and made my first attempt at writing an epigram I came up with about four or five to which I know at least one of has made the final copy of the book Being satisfied I decided that I would take up the habit of writing things down in a journal Within a month or so I became inspired to write the poem Kill Cry or Die Up until that point I had been unaware of my talent for poetry and poems would then on make appearances in my journals Over the years I did not write with great consistency as that months would go by and nothing would be written to the contrast of other times would I would write something virtually every day for a month Much of the journals progress was affected by my bipolar disorder as that during depressions my writing had gone all but forgotten for whole years and then when in mania I would write frequently but would latter deem a lot of the material unusable During my last period of mania I began to consolidate my work into one journal and after doing so had thrown much of my work into fires as well as using a black marker to edit out traces of things written I regretfully lost a lot of material in this process but I feel that I managed to save most of what was good from it From June of 2013 to September of 2014 I had not touched my journals to write or read from them they sat forgotten in a box thinking I would never write again One day I pulled them out and decided to read them over I found that I had forgotten most of what I had written and with a sober mind began to type up the material that I felt was worth keeping and sharing with others After the task was complete I fear that I had excluded so much material that I would not have enough for a book but this problem was quickly resolved that I had become inspired to write again and began to come up with new material and I felt I had improved some as that all the new stuff was usable Over all the completion of this book took about eight years from when I first put pen to paper I hope you enjoy this book as I feel that I only put my best foot forward and been far more critical of my work than anyone else has been
