Conflict Resolution, Human Rights, and Democracy D. D. Khanna, Gert W. Kueck, 2003-01-01 It Is Necessary To Discuss Fundamental Changes In Human Society Today And Increasing Need For New Approaches Concerning Issues Of The Proper Functioning Of Democracy Respect For Human Rights And Dignity Peace Security Development And Social Studies The Book Contains Contributions Of Some Of The Outstanding Scholars And Thinkers On Human Rights And Conflict Resolution And Its Association With Democracy An Indepth Analysis Of The Needs Of The Future And The Imperatives Of Democracy And Suggestions Pertaining To Ways And Means Of Promoting Democratic Culture Minimal Conditions That The Politics Of The Country Must Meet In Order To Make Political Democracy Functional Are Focussed The Book Should Be Useful To All Dealing With The Subject Nominations of the 110th Congress, Second Session United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 2009 The EU and Conflict Resolution Nathalie Tocci, 2007-05-22 Through the study of five ethno political conflicts lying on or just beyond Europe s borders this book analyzes the impact and effectiveness of EU foreign policy on conflict resolution Conflict resolution features strongly as an objective of the European Union s foreign policy In promoting this aim the EU s geographical focus has rested primarily in its beleaguered backyard to the south and to the east Taking a strong comparative approach Nathalie Tocci explores the principal determinants of conflict dynamics in Cyprus Turkey Serbia Montenegro Israel Palestine and Georgia in order to assess the impact of EU contractual ties on them The volume includes topical analyzis based on first hand experience in depth interviews with all the relevant actors and photography in ongoing conflict areas in the Middle East the Eastern Mediterranean the Balkans and the Caucasus This revealing study shows that the gap between EU potential and effectiveness often rests in the specific manner in which the EU collectively chooses to conduct its contractual relations The EU and Conflict Resolution will be of interest to all readers who wish to acquire an excellent understanding of the EU s impact on conflict contexts and will appeal to scholars of European politics security studies and conflict resolution A Community of Europeans? Thomas Risse, 2015-07-09 In A Community of Europeans a thoughtful observer of the ongoing project of European integration evaluates the state of the art about European identity and European public spheres Thomas Risse argues that integration has had profound and long term effects on the citizens of EU countries most of whom now have at least a secondary European identity to complement their national identities Risse also claims that we can see the gradual emergence of transnational European communities of communication Exploring the outlines of this European identity and of the communicative spaces Risse sheds light on some pressing questions What do Europe and the EU mean in the various public debates How do European identities and transnational public spheres affect policymaking in the EU And how do they matter in discussions about enlargement particularly Turkish accession to the EU What will be the consequences of the growing contestation and politicization of European affairs for European democracy This focus on identity allows Risse to address the democratic deficit of the EU the disparity between the

level of decision making over increasingly relevant issues for peoples lives at the EU and the level where politics plays itself out in the member states He argues that the EU s democratic deficit can only be tackled through politicization and that debating Europe might prove the only way to defend modern and cosmopolitan Europe against the increasingly forceful voices of Euroskepticism

Preventing Genocide David A. Hamburg, 2015-11-17 Genocide has been called a problem from hell and despite vehement declarations of never again it s a problem that continues to plague the world From the beginning of history to the most recent massacres in Bosnia Rwanda and Darfur genocide defies resolution And given today s worldwide access to highly lethal weapons and advanced communications technology facilitating incitement to hate we can expect to see this problem grow It is often claimed that genocide occurs without warning taking both local and global communities by surprise Yet as David Hamburg convincingly shows we have had long term advance knowledge of most modern genocides dating back to the early 20th century Armenian tragedy in Turkey and before In this book Dr Hamburg applies a groundbreaking new perspective the medical model of prevention to the scourge of genocide in the world Preventing genocide is not only possible Dr Hamburg contends but essential given its high cost in lives human rights and international security Here he maps out numerous practical steps to recognise genocidal conflicts early and stem their tides of violence before they become acute. He also outlines several institutions in place and programs underway at the UN, EU and NATO devoted to preventing future genocides before they erupt. He draws lessons both from missed opportunities and successful experiences and makes many constructive suggestions about strengthening international institutions, governments and NGOs for this purpose. A Geopolitical Europe in the Making? Marek Neuman, Ramses A. Wessel, Thijs de Zee, 2025-08-02. This edited book investigates whether and if so to what extent the European Union began to turn its recently uttered ambition of becoming a geopolitical Union into practice. It does so by bringing a range of scholars from various institutions and disciplines, among others political science, European law, European studies, together, asking them whether in their specific field they can observe a geopolitical turn in the European Union's policy making. The result of this intellectual endeavour can be found in this book, a book that makes a first attempt at empirically testing the Union's ability to effectively respond to ever and rapidly changing conditions for conducting international politics in a rule-based system. The volume is divided into two separate yet mutually informing parts. Part I consists of a series of empirical chapters assessing the EU's actorness vis-à-vis other regional powers, regional and international organisations. This is followed by several empirical snapshots looking into specific policy areas in Part II. As we combine the insights from both parts, we attempt to contribute to the debate on the changing nature of the European Union in challenging times. Our approach then is primarily an empirical one. And yet, building upon these conclusions, we are able to also draw conceptual conclusions about the EU's increasing geopolitical nature or the lack thereof. These conclusions make this a relevant read not only for academics but also for practitioners of European law and European integration. Marek Neuman is Assistant Professor in EU Foreign Policy and Jean Monnet Chair of European Politics and Governance at the Faculty of Arts of the University of Groningen, The Netherlands. Ramses A. Wessel is Professor of European Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of Groningen, The Netherlands. Thijs de Zee is a PhD Candidate at the Faculty Campus Fryslân of the University of Groningen, The Netherlands. The Development Assistance Committee's 1999 review of Norway's aid policies and programmes. Conflict Resolution and Global Justice Nikola Tomić, Ben Tonra, 2021-07-08. This book examines how the different normative foundations of conflict resolution held by various global actors, their understandings of justice and the differences between types of conflict influence the varying means by which conflicts can be prevented, managed and ultimately resolved. By combining insights from political theory, conflict studies and European Union/EU foreign policy studies, the book identifies the EU as the key case of a conflict manager that is both a product and a defender of a global liberal order. It focuses on three aspects of conflict resolution that pose their own sets of both normative and empirical dilemmas: resolving border disputes, strengthening the resilience of weak or divided states and societies after regime change and intervention in humanitarian crises Furthermore it offers a comparative analysis between a potentially distinctive European approach and that of other global actors and reflects critically on situations where policy practice may not always reflect a concern for justice asking what countervailing forces prevail and why This book will be of key interest to scholars and students in European and EU Studies Area studies Conflict Resolution War Studies EU Foreign Policy Political Theory International relations as well as policymakers Rebuilding

Higher Education Systems Impacted by Crises: Navigating Traumatic Events, Disasters, and More Kayyali, Mustafa, 2024-04-05 The resilience and adaptability of higher education systems are under unprecedented strain From natural disasters to pandemics and economic crises to political turmoil universities and colleges worldwide have grappled with a myriad of crises that disrupt their core missions of teaching research and community engagement As we find ourselves at the crossroads of these tumultuous times the imperative to reconstruct and revitalize higher education systems becomes increasingly evident Rebuilding Higher Education Systems Impacted by Crises Navigating Traumatic Events Disasters and More is a pioneering work that addresses the critical issues surrounding the restoration of higher education systems in the wake of various crises This book serves as a roadmap for educators administrators policymakers and stakeholders who share a commitment to preserving and advancing higher education even in the face of adversity The 21st century has witnessed a rapid escalation in the frequency and severity of crises affecting higher education institutions These crises span from the abrupt shift to online learning necessitated by the COVID 19 pandemic to the enduring ramifications of climate change on campus infrastructure Additional factors such as financial pressures evolving demographics and the ever changing technological landscape further complicate the challenge This book embarks on a deep exploration of these challenges and offers practical solutions making it an indispensable resource for anyone vested in the future of higher education Department of State Publication ,2004 Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Humanitarian Intervention and Conflict Resolution in West Africa John M. Kabia, 2016-05-13 The end of the Cold War has been characterized by a wave of violent civil wars that have produced unprecedented humanitarian catastrophe and suffering Although mostly intra state these conflicts have spread across borders and threatened international peace and security One of the worst affected regions is West Africa which has been home to some of Africa s most brutal and intractable conflicts for more than a decade This volume locates the peacekeeping operations of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS within an expanded post Cold War conceptualization of humanitarian intervention It examines the organization s capacity to protect civilians at risk in civil conflicts and to facilitate the processes of peacemaking and post war peace building Taking the empirical case of ECOWAS the book looks at the challenges posed by complex political emergencies CPEs to humanitarian intervention and traces the evolution of ECOWAS from an economic integration project to a security organization examining the challenges inherent in such a transition European Union Common Foreign Policy M. Holland,1995-03-13 This book presents an examination of one of the first joint actions undertaken by the European Union under the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP provisions of Maastricht The case study of South Africa is particularly important as it straddles both the CFSP and the European Political Cooperation EPC periods and thus similarities and constraints in policy making and implementation can be made The EC EU policy vis a vis South Africa is traced from 1977 through to the April 1994 South African elections The earlier policy period of sanctions and positive measures are compared with the 1990s policies of election observation the normalization of bilateral relations and development policy General conclusions about the effectiveness and institutional aspects of joint actions are drawn and recommendations for improved CFSP joint actions proposed Vice President of the Commission Sir Leon Brittan has contributed a foreword to this volume Gettin' My Word Out Leoisa Ardizzone,2007-08-03 At a time when many adults criticize young people as being self absorbed and apolitical this book demonstrates through research conducted with inner city youth activists the inaccuracy of this judgment Working through nonformal activist organizations Leonisa Ardizzone examines how youth activists respond to injustice counteract violence practice social responsibility and form collaborative networks of individuals and organizations These peace builders embody the core values of peace education They and their nonformal activist organizations model practices and methods that if applied to formal education would not only create more humane learning experiences for all but would also reconfirm education as a catalyst and framework for personal and social transformation
