Configuring Gender Explorations In Theory And Politics:

Configuring Gender Barbara Marshall, 2000-03 This brief book focuses on how the idea of gender has developed both in scholarship and in the public mind Gender and Qualitative Methods Helmi Järviluoma, Pirkko Moisala, Anni Vilkkö, 2003-10-21 This text outlines the practical and philosophical issues of gender in qualitative research and covers areas including field work life story membership categorization analysis and analysis of gender in sound and vision The Palgrave Handbook of Gender, Sexuality, and Canadian Politics Manon Tremblay, Joanna Everitt, 2020-11-20 The Palgrave Handbook of Gender Sexuality and Canadian Politics offers the first and only handbook in the field of Canadian politics that uses gender which it interprets broadly as inclusive of sex sexualities and other intersecting identities as its category of analysis Its premise is that political actors identities frame how Canadian politics is thought told and done in turn Canadian politics as a set of ideas state institutions and decision making processes and civil society mobilizations does and redoes gender Following the standard structure of mainstream introductory Canadian politics textbooks this handbook is divided into four sections ideologies institutions civil society and public policy each of which contains several chapters on topics commonly taught in Canadian politics classes The originality of the handbook lies in its approach each chapter reviews the basics of a given topic from the perspective of gendered sexualized and other intersectional identities Such an approach makes the handbook the only one of its kind in Canadian Politics Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Gender in the Early Medieval World Leslie Brubaker, Julia M. H. Smith, 2004-11-11 Publisher Description 21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2006-11-17 21st Century Sociology A Reference Handbook provides a concise forum through which the vast array of knowledge accumulated particularly during the past three decades can be organized into a single definitive resource The two volumes of this Reference Handbook focus on the corpus of knowledge garnered in traditional areas of sociological inquiry as well as document the general orientation of the newer and currently emerging areas of sociological inquiry Gender and Love: Interdisciplinary Perspectives, Second Edition Noemi de Haro Garcia, Maria-Anna Tseliou, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Gender and Love Interdisciplinary Perspectives is an interdisciplinary publication presenting papers from the 1st Global Conference Gender and Love Mansfield

College Oxford The selected papers consider gender in relation to various kinds of love with regard for example to self spirit religion family friendship ethics nation globalisation environment and so on How do the interactions of gender and love promote particular performances of gender conceptions of individual and collective identity formations of community notions of the human understandings of good and evil These are just some of the questions that occupied this project and eventually this publication

Sex, Gender, and Science M. Hird, 2004-11-05 In Sex Gender and Science Myra Hird outlines the social study of science and nature specifically in relation to sex sex differences and sexuality She examines how Western understandings of sex are based less upon understanding material sex differences than on a discourse that emphasizes sex dichotomy over sex diversity and argues for a feminist engagement with scientific debate that embraces the diversity and complexity of nature

EBOOK: Engendering the Social N/A Marshall, Anne Witz, 2004-03-16 This edited volume focuses on the problematic engendering of classical and contemporary sociological theory addressing questions such as How were the foundations of sociological theory shaped by an implicit masculinity Did classical sociology simply reflect or actively construct theories of sexual difference How were alternative accounts of the social suppressed in sociology's founding moments Feminist interventions in sociology are still seen as marginal to sociological theorizing This collection challenges this truncated vision of sociological theory In part one contributors interrogate the classical canon exposing the masculinist assumptions that saturate the conceptual scaffolding of sociology In part two contributors consider the long standing and problematic relationship between sociology and feminism retrieving voices marginalized within or excluded from canonical constructions of sociological theory In part three contributors engage with key contemporary debates explicitly engendering accounts of the social Engendering the Social is unique in that it not only critically interrogates sociological theory from a feminist perspective but also embarks on a politics of reconstruction working creatively at the interface of feminist and sociological theory to induce a more adequate conceptualisation of the social This is a key text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in sociology social theory and feminist theory

Handbook of Population Dudley L. Poston, Michael Micklin, 2006-08-10 This comprehensive handbook provides an overview and update of the issues theories processes and applications of the social science of population studies The volume's 30 chapters cover the full range of conceptual empirical disciplinary and applied approaches to the study of demographic phenomena This book is the first effort to assess the entire field since Hauser and Duncan's 1959 classic The Study of Population The chapter authors are among the leading contributors to demographic scholarship over the past four decades They represent a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives as well as interests in both basic and applied research

Women in Landscape Architecture Louise A. Mazingo, Linda Jewell, 2011-12-22 While many fields struggle to specify feminine contributions the work of women has always played a fundamental role in American landscape architecture Women claim responsibility for many landscape types now taken for granted including community gardens playgrounds and streetscapes This collection of essays by leaders in the discipline addresses the ways that gender has influenced the history design practice and perception of landscapes It highlights women s relation to landscape architecture presents the professional efforts of women in the landscape realm examines both the perception and experience of landscapes by women and speculates on ways to re imagine gender and the landscape

Remaking Modernity Julia Adams, Elisabeth S. Handbook of Research on New Literacies Julie Coiro, Michele Knobel, Colin Lankshear, Donald J. Leu, 2014-04-04 Situated at the intersection of two of the most important areas in educational research today literacy and technology this handbook draws on the potential of each while carving out important new territory It provides leadership for this newly emerging field directing scholars to the major issues theoretical perspectives and interdisciplinary research pertaining to new literacies Reviews of research are organized into six sections Methodologies

Knowledge and Inquiry Communication Popular Culture Community and Citizenship Everyday Literacies Instructional Practices and Assessment Multiple Perspectives on New Literacies Research FEATURES Brings together a diverse international team of editors and chapter authors Provides an extensive collection of research reviews in a critical area of educational research Makes visible the multiple perspectives and theoretical frames that currently drive work in new literacies Establishes important space for the emerging field of new literacies research Includes a unique Commentary section The final section of the Handbook reprints five central research studies Each is reviewed by two prominent researchers from their individual and different theoretical position This provides the field with a sense of how diverse lenses can be brought to bear on research as well as the benefits that accrue from doing so It also provides models of critical review for new scholars and demonstrates how one might bring multiple perspectives to the study of an area as complex as new literacies research The Handbook of Research on New Literacies is intended for the literacy research community broadly conceived including scholars and students from the traditional reading and writing research communities in education and educational psychology as well as those from information science cognitive science psychology sociolinguistics computer mediated communication and other related areas that find literacy to be an important area of investigation Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro, 2018-05-11 Most scholars have focused on The Second Sex and Simone de Beauvoir's fiction concentrating on gender issues but ignoring her broader emancipatory vision Though Beauvoir's political thinking is not as closely studied as her feminist works it underpinned her activism and helped her navigate the dilemmas raised by revolutionary thought in the postwar period In Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro brings together Beauvoir's philosophy and her political interventions to produce complex ideas on emancipation Drawing from a range of work including novels essays autobiographical writings and philosophic texts Stavro explains that for Beauvoir freedom is a movement that requires both personal and collective transformation Freedom is not guaranteed by world historical systems material structures wilful action or discursive practices but requires engaged subjects who are able to take creative risks as well as synchronize with existing forces to work towards collective change Beauvoir Stavro asserts resisted the trend of anti humanism that has dominated French thinking since the 1960s and also managed to avoid the pitfalls of voluntarism and individualism In fact Stavro argues Beauvoir appreciated the impact of material socio economic institutional forces without forgoing the capacity to initiate Applying Beauvoir's existential insights and understanding of embodied and situated subjectivity to recent debates within gender literary sociological cultural and political studies Emancipatory Thinking provides a lens to explore the current political and theoretical landscape Social Theory in Contemporary Asia Ann Brooks, 2010-07-14 Philosophical debates around individualization and the implications for intimacy reflexivity and identity have occupied a central part of social and cultural theorizing in the West in the last decade In fact late modernity has become conspicuously engaged with issues of intimacy reflexivity and identity The author analyses the relevance of these debates in the context of contemporary Asia and combines an analysis of significant social theorists including Beck Giddens Bourdieu McNay Adkins and Ong with an application of these debates to social political and cultural contexts Drawing on empirical research case studies global reports media and academic literature the book provides a relevant wide ranging and contemporary analysis of the debates on Asian culture and society In the Foreword to the book Bryan Turner comments Professor Brooks shows consequently that the intimate and emotional cultures that have been described by Anthony Giddens and Ulrich Beck with respect to the West have not arrived in Asia or at least that they have not become visible and permanent aspects of the social landscape

From Marriage to the Market Susan Thistle, 2006 Publisher description Modernity and Technology Thomas J. Misa, Philip Brey, Andrew Feenberg, 2003 The book is divided into three parts Daughters of Earth Justine Larbalestier, 2006-05-22 Women s contributions to science fiction have been lasting and important This is a collection of 11 key stories alongside 11 essays that explore the stories contexts meanings and theoretical implications Organized chronologically it aims to create a different canon of feminist science fiction and examines the theory that addresses it
