From the Margins to the Mainstream: an Action Agenda for Literacy John Comings, 2008-10 Many adults in our nation lack literacy skills and knowledge and they and their families are falling further and further behind The Nat Literacy Summit 2000 began as a joint public private effort to help the nation get serious about meeting its literacy challenges A major Summit meeting was followed by more than 25 meetings around the country to craft a shared goal for a literate America and to outline the actions that can make that goal a reality. The voices of hundreds of people from different groups and sectors—teachers, tutors, administrators, researchers, business people, social service providers, policymakers, and adult students themselves—all contributed to creating a strategy for the work to be done. This report synthesizes the wealth of recommendations received. Illus Research Agenda for Adult ESL, 1998

Literacy and Second Language Oracy Elaine Tarone, Martha Bigelow, 2013-01-10 This book offers research evidence documenting the significant impact of low literacy skill on adolescents' processing of oral L2 input and acquisition.

Reconceptualizing the Writing Practices of Multilingual Youth Youngjoo Yi, 2021-04-26 Focusing on adolescent multilingual writing, this text problematizes the traditional boundaries between academic writing in school contexts and self-initiated writing outside of the formal learning environment. By reconceptualizing the nature of adolescent multilingual writing, the author establishes it as an interdisciplinary genre and a key area of inquiry for research and pedagogy. Organized into six chapters, Reconceptualizing the Writing Practices of Multilingual Youth provides an in-depth examination of the writing practices of multilingual youth from sociocultural and social practice perspectives. Drawing on first-hand research conducted with young people, the text questions the traditional dichotomy between academic writing and non-formal equivalents and proposes a symbiotic approach to exploring and cultivating the connections between in and out of school literate lives. By highlighting a bidirectional relationship between formal and informal writing, the text advocates for writing instruction that helps adolescents use writing for entertainment, identity construction, creative expression, personal well-being, and civic engagement, as well as helps them learn to navigate future literacies that we cannot imagine or predict now. This much-needed text will provide researchers and graduate students with a principled overview and synthesis of adolescent multilingual writing research that is significant yet underexplored in applied linguistics, TESOL, and literacy studies.

Insights Into Second Language Reading Keiko Koda, 2005-01-10 Publisher Description Literacy and second language learning for the linguistic integration of adult migrants Fernanda Minuz, Jeanne Kurvers, Karen Schramm, Lorenzo Rocca, Rola Naeb, 2022-06-15 Language skills foster among other things social inclusion, access to education, and employment. Within this context, non-literate or low-literate migrants have specific educational needs. This reference guide is meant for language educators, curriculum designers, and language policy makers in their endeavour to design, implement, evaluate, and improve curricula tailored toward the specific needs of non- and low-literate adult migrants. This group of migrants faces the complex and demanding task of learning a language while either learning to read and write for the first time or developing their literacy skills. They rarely receive adequate instruction in terms of hours of tuition and targeted teaching approaches, whereas they are very often requested to take a compulsory written test. The reference guide contains a definition of target users and learners, the rationale related to the development of the descriptors, principles for teaching literacy and second languages, scales, and tables of descriptors, aspects of curriculum design at the macro, meso, and micro levels and recommendations on assessment procedures and tools within the learning environment The guide also contains descriptors that build on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR and the CEFR Companion volume up to the A1 level for adult migrants with special attention given to literacy learners Review of Adult Learning and Literacy, Volume 5 John Comings, Barbara Garner, Cristine Smith, 2023-04-14 The Review of Adult Learning and Literacy Connecting Research Policy and Practice Volume 5 is the newest volume in a series of annual publications of the National Center for the Study of Adult Learning and Literacy NCSALL that address major issues the latest research and the best practices in the field of adult literacy and learning Each Review opens with an overview of significant recent developments in the field of adult literacy during the year followed by a set of chapters presenting in depth reviews of research and best practices on topics of high interest to the field Volume 5 includes chapters on the increasing emphasis on scientifically based research and evidence based practice in education their use in adult literacy and the perception of their usefulness by those who work in the field recent research on the impact of acquiring a General Educational Development GED credential the adult literacy system in the state of Massachusetts focusing on the factors that led to investing and restructuring in the system and the lessons learned that may be helpful to other states interested in building strong systems of educational service delivery for adult learners a history and review of volunteerism in adult literacy the history and structure of the adult literacy system in New Zealand including policy recommendations for the current system to more effectively serve all adult learners and a review of theories and key resources related to metacognitive skills in reading The Review of Adult Learning and Literacy serves as the journal of record for the field and is an essential resource for all stakeholders who need to know what research can reveal about how best to serve adult learners Agenda ,1979
