As parents we must raise our children in the Islamic Faith This requires us to introduce our children to our beloved Prophet Muhammad PBUH the role model that Allah sent down for us to emulate and follow so that we will succeed in this world and the next He has the best manners and character and we should learn from him and love him But simply loving our Prophet is not enough We must actually live the lifestyle that our beloved Prophet teaches us My First Book on Hadith for Kids introduces Prophet Muhammad PBUH and his teachings in an easy fun and educational way so our kids develop and are instilled with love for our Prophet and learn to live the way he teaches us to live This book shares various Hadiths of our Prophet ranging from a Hadith on good manners and remembering Allah to a Hadith on the etiquette of eating sleeping and hygiene Every concept this book teaches contains colorful images to help your child understand and appreciate what they need to learn Chapters and topics of this book include Who is Prophet Muhammad What is the Holy Quran What is Hadith What is Sunnah Sincerity peace be upon him Every parent must instill an interest and love for Islam in their children at an early age so they are raised with an Islamic mindset and lifestyle Every household should set time aside each day to develop and grow their child s connection with Allah and nourish their souls Just like our physical bodies need food and water to grow and be nourished we need the Guidance of Allah and the recitation of the Holy Quran to enrich nourish and give life to our souls The Child in Islam Norma Tarazi,1995 This book is a mothers book not that it can t be read by fathers as well the outgrowth of a mothers study group which met in Kuwait before the Gulf War focused on rearing children in an Islamic way The mothers were mostly American and British converts to Islam although in cosmopolitan Kuwaitthere were women from many other backgrounds The group was an offshoot of meetings for English speaking Muslim women held weekly in the home of Sister Zainab Ashry in Kuwait for more than ten years prior to the Gulf War From their knowledge of Islam the women involved wanted to study the implications of their faith on their child rearing practices The first step was to collect information any Qur anic verse or hadith that a participant found relevant Other information was collected from such knowledgeable people and books as were available Monthly discussions were organized on different topics Since the war some of the participating sisters have returned to Kuwait but many of our group are now scattered all over the world All the notes and papers collected by the study group were in my home in Kuwait when the invasion occurred fortunately my husband was able to salvage them and bringthem here to our new home in the States I felt an obligation to compile this collected information to share with other Muslims especially converts like myself My deepest thanks must go to my husband

whose support and cooperation gave me the means to carry out this task This book begins with the birth of a child to Muslim parents and the traditional Islamic response to the birth following the example of Prophet Muhammad S Very few specific actions are defined and these mostly relate to practices at the time of birth All of these fall into the category of sunnah following the Prophet s example or what he approved of in others and though highly recommended they are not fard obligatory actions Aside from these few simple practices carried out when a baby comes into the world Islam has no ceremonies devoted exclusively to children no first communion no coming of age celebrations Children are not segregated into a special world separate from that of adults they are members of families in the great embracing cycle of human life The family supports them when they are young they support the family in their productive years and in old age they are again supported by the family They grow and develop gradually in a system that encourages growth and learning but places little emphasis on milestones and anniversaries A large portion of this book is given to defining relationships from the Qur an and hadith To understand the significance of the child in Muslim society it is necessary to recognize the total number and value of his or her relationships within it which are different from the relationships defined by other societies Chapter 1 includes some of the traditions of the Prophet Muhammad that apply to the newborn Chapter 2 describes the nature of the child s relationship with Allah and the spiritual world with some suggestions for encouraging spiritual awareness Chapter 3 contains Qur anic verses and ahadith relevant to the child s relationship with his or her parents In light of these definitions and with reference to the Islamic teachings concerning morals manners and the purpose of life an attempt is made in chapters 4 5 and 6 to present an organized structure dealing with the practical how to of rearing a child in an Islamic way from a parent s viewpoint Chapters Introduction ix 7 and 8 progressively broaden out the child s world by adding brothers and sisters extended family and community relationships The practical suggestions for improving relationships among adult family members in order to pave the way for improving the child s relations with his or her extended family are an important aspect of chapter 8 The only relationship which really changes for the child as he or she grows up is that of accountability to Allah since no child is accountable for his or her actions before reaching the age of understanding All other relationships develop and deepen as the child grows but remain basically the same for the general commands to honor parents show respect to elders be gentle with younger ones and honor family ties continue for a Muslim throughout his or her life I pray to Allah that this book may bring only good to mothers and their children and that He protect them from any mistakes or misunderstandings I have done my best to prepare the material contained within it in a suitable manner and hope to see other literature published on this important subject expanding and enriching it While I alone am responsible for the contents I am deeply indebted to the many sisters who helped collect references and discussed the practical implications of our findings I have no list to prompt me and consequently may have unwittingly forgotten some names but I well remember Terry Lianna Salma Noura Mia Khadijah Sandra Hicleir Debbie Sara Maryam Aneesah Dianne Karen Kauthar and Nawal from

Kuwait all of us working together on this project My friend Daaiyah Saleem in Ohio has also been very helpful offering many suggestions for improvement and clarification as she aided in proofreading My sister in law Ghada of course has helped along the way In the course of preparing this book for publication sister Zeba Siddiqui was chosen by the publisher to edit the text I have known Zeba a mother of four and a grandmother and author of several excellent childrens books as well as the THE CHILD IN ISLAM Parent s Manual A Guide for Muslim Parents Living in North America for several years When I heard she had taken on this task I asked her to add anything she felt was missing from her years of experience and knowledge of the subject She has supplied all of the hadith reference numbers in the text in itself an enormous task In addition to editing she has filled out and amplified several topics checking and adding material where needed The sections on the Hereafter tahara respect for religion and hospitality are prepared and written by her It was only fair therefore that her name should appear on the title page of this book in recognition of her valuable contribution I am deeply grateful to her for her help and input I also need to thank my children who suffered through my learning experience and projects for self improvement in parenting skills and my mother whose life long interest in the growth and development of children helped me understand the importance of the matter and the need for a book such as this A final note to the book s non Muslim readers I have chosen to use the word Allah throughout the book instead of the word God The words are interchangeable in English for Muslims but all of the women involved in this project have the habit indeed they have the love of referring to God the God of Abraham Moses Jesus and Muhammad by His Arabic name Allah

Prophet Muhammad Ibrahim Ma'an, 2021-04-05 Inspire your child this ramadan with the amazing story of the Noble prophet Are you looking for a book for your child to learn Islam this ramadan Do you want a book that is detailed yet simple and easy for children to understand and written in a way that is engaging for children Follow the life of the Prophet in his first 13 years in Mecca after he was chosen to call the people to Allah the challenges he faced the allies he made the plots of his enemies and how Allah granted him Victory This book is broken down into 30 chapters that can be read daily in the blessed month of Ramadan Discover how the Prophet strove hard to call the people to Allah how his people who had loved and trusted him became his enemies How Islam slowly but surely was growing despite the trials and persecution the believers were enduring at the hands of the idols worshippers It tells the stories of the noble companions and their strong character and sacrifices like Hamza who did not want to be a Muslim until his honour was challenged Abubakr and how he came to be known as As Siddiq the truthful how Bilaal endured pain and suffering because he believed in Allah Then there was Najaashi the Christian king whose faith was tested when he came to hear about Islam See how the times changed for the believers and their enemies one winning today and the other winning the next And when the Prophet and his companions were treated worse than ever and there was no sign of hope and the Arabs had chosen to reject Islam and it looked as if the enemies of Islam were close to destroying it then came the noble honourable and chosen Ansars The Helpers through whom Allah turned the tide This is an amazing read for children or anyone interested in learning Islam Make the most of your child this Ramadan with this beautiful Islamic story
