Ahoy Uncle Roy:

Ahoy, Uncle Roy! Sarah Albee, 2001 Although it makes his parents a little uneasy Walter's favorite person is his Uncle Roy a pirate The Cuban Club Barry Gifford, 2017-10-24 A masterpiece of mood and setting character and remembrance The Cuban Club is Barry Gifford's ultimate coming of age story told as sixty four linked tales a creation myth of The Fall as seen through the eyes of an innocent boy on the cusp of becoming an innocent man Set in Chicago in the 1950s and early 60s against the backdrop of small time hoodlums in the Chicago mob and the girls and women attached to them there is the nearness of heinous crimes and the price to be paid for them To Roy and his friends these twists and tragedies drift by like curious flotsam The tales themselves are koan like often ending in questions with rarely a conclusion One story a letter from Roy to his father four years after his father's death is written as if the older man were still alive Indeed throughout The Cuban Club Roy is in some doubt whether divorce or even death really exists in a world where everything seems so alive and connected Barry Gifford has been writing his Roy stories on and off for over thirty years and earlier Roy stories have been published in Wyoming Memories from a Sinking Ship and The Roy Stories But it is in The Cuban Club that he brings the form he has created in these stories to its crystallization Indeed to find precedents for The Cuban Club we must look not to other story collections but to other creation myths to Gilgamesh or the Old Testament or Eduardo Galeano's Memory of Fire trilogy Roy's age here wends back and forth between six and nineteen and back to twelve He sees with the ageless eyes of a seer and knows not to judge the good or the bad in circumstances or people or even to question why things are as they are instead gathering to himself the romance of a world that teeters on catastrophe always even as it abounds in saving graces The
