Intellectuals in Politics Jeremy Jennings,Tony Kemp-Welch,2013-04-15 After an introduction to the major issues confronting intellectuals this book explores the various aspects of the intellectual's role including philosophers and academics who have tried to define the function of the intellectual how intellectuals have assumed the status of the conscience of the nation and the voice of the oppressed the interaction of intellectuals with Marxism the place of the intellectual in American society Covering regions as diverse as Israel Algeria Britain Ireland central Europe and America this collection considers the question of whether the intellectual can still lay claim to the language of truth In answering this study tells us much about the modern world in which we live Coverage includes the following thinkers Gramsci Weber Yeats Auden Levy Mailer Walzer Marx and many more

Waging War to Make Peace Susan Yoshihara,2010-04-09 A revealing examination looks at the

decision making in four NATO capitals about waging war in Kosovo and Iraq Written by a combat veteran who also served on the faculty of the Naval War College Waging War to Make Peace U S Intervention in Global Conflicts is a thought provoking analysis of the decision to make war in the modern world The subject is examined through the lens of the decision making of four NATO nations Britain France Germany and the United States in the 1999 Kosovo campaign compared to their decisions in 2003 regarding the Iraq war What emerges is a picture of how the bitter dispute over Iraq was the result of disagreements about who has the authority to wage war when it is justified and whether nations have an obligation to intervene in the case of human rights and humanitarian emergencies The book shows how those who enthusiastically hailed a new era of warfare based upon human rights and humanitarian values misjudged the significance of the Kosovo decision and it underscores issues with which leaders must come to grips if NATO allies are to avoid broader disputes in the years ahead An Atheism that Is Not Humanist Emerges in French Thought Stefanos Geroulanos,2010-03-08 French philosophy changed dramatically in the second quarter of the twentieth century In the wake of World War I and later the Nazi and Soviet disasters major philosophers such as Kojve Levinas Heidegger Koyr Sartre Merleau Ponty and Hyppolite argued that man could no longer fill the void left by the death of God without also calling up the worst in human history and denigrating the dignity of the human subject In response they contributed to a new belief that man should no longer be viewed as the basis for existence thought and ethics rather human nature became dependent on other concepts and structures including Being language thought and culture This argument which was to be paramount for existentialism and structuralism came to dominate postwar thought This intellectual history of these developments argues that at their heart lay a new atheism that rejected humanism as insufficient and ultimately violent Sociological Amnesia Alex Law,Eric Royal Lybeck,2016-03-03 The history of sociology overwhelmingly focuses on the winners from the classical canon Marx Durkheim and Weber to today s most celebrated sociologists This book strikingly demonstrates that restricting sociology in this way impoverishes it as a form of historically reflexive knowledge and obscures the processes and struggles of sociology s own making as a form of disciplinary knowledge Sociological Amnesia focuses on singular contributions to sociology that were once considered central to the discipline but are today largely neglected Chapters explore the work of illustrious predecessors such as Raymond Aron Erich Fromm and G D H Cole as well as examining exceptional cases of reputational revival as in the case of Norbert Elias or Gabriel Tarde Through understanding the obstacles of recognition faced by female sociologists like Viola Klein and Olive Schreiner and public intellectuals like Cornelius Castoriadis the volume considers the reasons why certain kinds of sociology are hailed as central to the discipline whilst others are forgotten In so doing the collection offers fresh insights into not only the work of individual sociologists but also into the discipline of sociology itself its trajectories forgotten promises and dead ends

Said The study presents two comparative case studies the Iranian Revolution and the public intellectuals in Europe specifically in Norway before concluding with a focus on the decay of the figure of the intellectuals and highlighting Ranciere's critique of the intellectual masses distinction Existential America George Cotkin,2003-01-24 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus Northern Ireland's '68 Simon Prince,2018-08-21 The Troubles may have developed into a sectarian conflict but the violence was sparked by a small band of leftists who wanted Derry in October 1968 to be a repeat of Paris in May 1968 Like their French comrades Northern Ireland's sixty eighters had assumed that street fighting would lead to political struggle The struggle that followed however was between communities rather than classes In the divided society of Northern Ireland the interaction of the global and the local that was the hallmark of 1968 had tragic consequences Drawing on a wealth of new sources and scholarship Simon Prince's timely new edition offers a fresh and compelling interpretation of the civil rights movement of 1968 and the origins of the Troubles The authoritative and enthralling narrative weaves together accounts of high politics and grassroots protests mass movements and individuals and international trends and historic divisions to show how events in Northern Ireland and around the world were interlinked during 1968 Re-reading Foucault Ben Golder,2013 This title provides a collection which fully addresses the relevance of Foucault's thought for law The book provides an in depth analysis of Foucault's thought as it pertains to the crucial questions of law government and rights The Lost Decade? The 1950s in European History, Politics, Society and Culture Heiko Feldner,Claire Gorrara,Kevin Passmore,2010-10-12 This volume of essays explores the social political and cultural legacies of a decade which has until relatively recently received scant scholarly attention Sandwiched uncomfortably between the traumatic events of the Second World War and the dramatic changes of the 1960s the 1950s appeared as seemingly transitional years while they were in fact an astonishingly fecund period of reassessment and experimentation when traditional models were re-evaluated and new models were road tested to be either developed or rejected An important intervention in the dynamic scholarly re-examination of the 1950s this volume analyzes these years in relation to three broadly defined areas historiography politics and society and culture What emerges from all three parts of the volume is a vision of the 1950s as a decade which was to have a profound impact on post war European identities in two key respects as a time of accelerated European intellectual exchange and as a time of fertile receptivity to the new variously formulated and contested across and within national borders Written by experts in the field the contributions to this volume represent some of the most exciting work on the 1950s currently being undertaken in Europe and the US They combine high intellectual standards with accessibility and will appeal to academics students and the general reader alike The Routledge Handbook of the History and Sociology of Ideas Stefanos Geroulanos, Gisèle

Sapiro, 2023-09-26 The Routledge Handbook of the History and Sociology of Ideas establishes a new and comprehensive way of working in the history and sociology of ideas in order to obviate several longstanding gaps that have prevented a fruitful interdisciplinary and international dialogues Pushing global intellectual history forward it uses methodological innovations in the history of concepts gender history imperial history and history of normativity many of which have emerged out of intellectual history in recent years and it especially foregrounds the role of field theory for delimiting objects of study but also in studying transnational history and migration of persons and ideas The chapters also explore how intellectual history crosses the study of particular domains law politics economy science life sciences social and human sciences book history literature and emotions No Exit Yoav Di-Capua, 2018-03-30 It is a curious and relatively little known fact that for two decades from the end of World War II until the late 1960s existentialism's most fertile ground outside of Europe was in the Middle East and Jean Paul Sartre was the Arab intelligentsia's uncontested champion In the Arab world neither before nor since has another Western intellectual been so widely translated debated and celebrated By closely following the remarkable career of Arab existentialism Yoav Di Capua reconstructs the cosmopolitan milieu of the generation that tried to articulate a political and philosophical vision for an egalitarian postcolonial world He tells this story by touring a fascinating selection of Arabic and Hebrew archives including unpublished diaries and interviews Tragically the warm and hopeful relationships forged between Arab intellectuals Sartre Simone de Beauvoir and others ended when on the eve of the 1967 war Sartre failed to embrace the Palestinian cause Today when the prospect of global ethical engagement seems to be slipping ever farther out of reach No Exit provides a timely humanistic account of the intellectual hopes struggles and victories that shaped the Arab experience of decolonization and a delightfully wide ranging excavation of existentialism's non Western history Reproductive Rights in Modern France Maud Anne Bracke, 2025-07-09 The introduction of the principle of women's reproductive liberty in France tentatively by the family planning movement after 1960 and explicitly by the women's liberation movement after 1970 marked a deep shift transforming public discourses Yet this principle remained fiercely contested and moderate and conservative actors responded by foregrounding notions of reproductive responsibility or the expectation that individuals perform the right sexual and family making behaviour benefiting not only themselves and their families but the nation at large Such responsabilisation underpinned the legal reforms of the 1960s 70s framing a notion of reproductive citizenship based on a tension between individual rights and social norms This book breaks new ground by taking an intersectional approach to the defining moments of this period the legalisation of contraception the laws of 1967 and 1974 and the liberalisation of abortion 1975 1979 Drawing on a wide range of sources and actors including feminist and family planning movements government actors demographers medical professional organisations disability rights groups and key actors in the overseas departments Maud Bracke demonstrates how the discourse of responsabilisation allowed actors to distinguish between citizens worthy of reproductive rights and those seen as less worthy Bracke analyses the distinct regulations regarding contraception in the overseas departments of Guadeloupe and Martinique framed by racialised anti natalism The book also demonstrates that disability rights organisations contributed to the discrediting of the notion of eugenic abortion used among experts and policy makers until the early 1970s Furthermore Bracke goes on to highlight the silence in the feminist movement around both disability rights and race as part of its universalisation of women s conditions of oppression and analyses the emergence of Black Feminism in late 1970s France In so doing the book offers a major contribution to the history of sex gender family life healthcare demography and political debate in post war France and more generally

Broadcasting in the Modernist Era Matthew Feldman, Henry Mead, Erik Tønning, 2014-05-22 The era of literary modernism coincided with a dramatic expansion of broadcast media throughout Europe which challenged avant garde writers with new modes of writing and provided them with a global audience for their work Historicizing these developments and drawing on new sources for research including the BBC archives and other important collections Broadcasting in the Modernist Era explores the ways in which canonical writers engaged with the new media of radio and television Considering the interlinked areas of broadcasting culture and politics in this period the book engages the radio writing and broadcasts of such writers as Virginia Woolf W B Yeats Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce George Orwell E M Forster J B Priestley Dorothy L Sayers David Jones and Jean Paul Sartre With chapters by leading international scholars the volume s empirical based approach aims to open up new avenues for understandings of radiogenic writing in the mass media age
