Archaeology In The Cradle Of Civilization:

The Near East Charles Keith Maisels, 2005-10-24 Charles Maisels follows the course of discovery of the land between the rivers over more than a century to our present conclusions very different from the first discoveries The Cradle of Civilization, 1992

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East

Archaeology Hannah Cobb, Kevin Greene, Tom Moore, 2024-03-19 This fully updated sixth edition of a classic classroom text is essential reading for core courses in archaeology Archaeology An Introduction explains how the subject emerged from an amateur pursuit in the eighteenth century into a serious discipline and explores changing trends in interpretation in recent decades The authors convey the excitement of archaeology while helping readers to evaluate new discoveries by explaining the methods and theories that lie behind them In addition to drawing upon examples and case studies from many regions of the world and periods of the past the book incorporates the authors own fieldwork research and teaching It continues to include key reference and further reading sections to help new readers find their way through the ever expanding range of archaeological publications and online sources as well as colour illustrations and boxed topic sections to increase comprehension Serving as an accessible and lucid textbook and engaging students with contemporary issues this book is designed to support students studying Archaeology at an introductory level New to the sixth edition Inclusion of the latest survey and imaging techniques such as the use of drones and eXtended reality Updated material on developments in dating DNA analysis isotopes and population movement including consideration of the ethical considerations of these techniques Coverage of new developments in archaeological theory such as the material turn ontological turn and work on issues of equality diversity and inclusion A whole new chapter covering archaeology in the present including new sections on heritage and public archaeology and an updated consideration of archaeology s relationship with the climate crisis A revised glossary with over 200 new additions or updates

The Development of Pre-State Communities in the Ancient Near East Diane Bolger, Louise C. Maguire, 2010-04-30 This book explores the dynamics of small scale societies in the ancient Near East by examining the ways in which particular communities functioned and interacted and by moving beyond the broad neo evolutionary models of social change which have characterised many earlier approaches By focusing on issues of diversity scale and context it considers the ways in which economy crafts technology and ritual were organised the roles played by mortuary practices and households in the structure and development of ancient societies and the importance of agency identity ethnicity gender community and cultural interaction for the rise of socio economic complexity The contributors to this volume are well known archaeologists in the field of Near Eastern studies all are currently engaged in fieldwork or research in Cyprus the Levant or Turkey The variety and depth of the research they present here reflect the richness of the archaeological record in the cradle of civilisation and convey the vibrancy of current interpretive approaches within the field of Near Eastern prehistory today Archaeologies of the Middle East Susan Pollock, Reinhard Bernbeck, 2009-02-09 Archaeologies of the Middle East provides an innovative introduction to the archaeology of this fascinating region and a window on both its past and present Written by some of the top archaeologists of the Middle East scholars from diverse backgrounds with a wide range of interests and intellectual approaches Coverage spans 100 000 years from the Paleolithic to Hellenistic times Explores the connections between modern day politics and the social context of archaeological practice and various underutilized approaches to archaeological interpretation Designed for student use

The Middle East Stephen Bourke, 2018 Here is an authoritative detailed and accessible view of the history and peoples of the ancient Middle East It is divided into six easily navigable parts arranged chronologically and then into chapters exploring the history religion political and social organization art science and architecture of the peoples of the region The text is illustrated with detailed maps and photographs enabling readers to visualize the ancient places and peoples described making it the perfect home reference and study aid as well as a good read for the interested layman Interrogating

Human Origins Martin Porr, Jacqueline Matthews, 2019-12-06 Interrogating Human Origins encourages new critical engagements with the study of human origins broadening the range of approaches to bring in postcolonial theories and begin to explore the decolonisation of this complex topic The collection of chapters presented in this volume creates spaces for expansion of critical and unexpected conversations about human origins research Authors from a variety of disciplines and research backgrounds many of whom have strayed beyond their usual disciplinary boundaries to offer their unique perspectives all circle around the big questions of what it means to be and become human Embracing and encouraging diversity is a recognition of the deep complexities of human existence in the past and the present and it is vital to critical scholarship on this topic This book constitutes a starting point for increased interrogation of the important and wide ranging field of research into human origins It will be of interest to scholars across multiple disciplines and particularly to those seeking to understand our ancient past through a more diverse lens Early Civilizations of the Old World Charles Keith

Maisels, 2003-12-16 In this new paperback edition of Early Civilizations of the Old World Charles Keith Maisels traces the development of some of the earliest and key civilizations in history In each case the ecological and economic background to growth geographical factors cross cultural intersection and the rise of urbanism are examined explaining how particular forms of social structure and cultural interaction developed from before the Neolithic period to the time of the first civilizations in each area This volume challenges the traditional assumption of a band tribe chiefdom state sequence and instead demonstrates that large complex societies can flourish without social classes and the state as dramatically shown by the Indus civilization Such features as the use of Childe's urban revolution theory as a means of comparison for each emerging civilization and the discussion of the emergence of archaeology as a scientific discipline make Early Civilizations of the Old World a valuable innovative and stimulating work Jerusalem Gods Archeology History Wars Occupation Vs

Ownership (Legal or Otherwise) & the Law Michael Abdul-Karim,2016-04-07 The Middle East is synonymous with internecine conflict The mutual visceral hatred is not confined to blocks of religious groups but flourishes with the same perniciousness within each of the three major religions of the region Judaism Christianity and Islam Throw into the mix American intervention or imperialism and the outcome is not the professed democracy propagated by the United States but the camouflaged intention to divide The 2003 invasion of Iraq was not only illegal under international law but its principal architects in George W Bush and Tony Blair were guilty of war crimes and crimes against humanity The pretence of relying on false intelligence does not wash Bush and Blair stand convicted by history but not by any Tribunal What about the guilt of the followers of Judaism Christianity and Islam Can they be put on trial for crimes against humanity When a religion professes to be the word of God and the word of God is full of promise to His people and alienation towards non believers then is that God of that religion responsible for the consequences of the faith What if that God is the same God of the three conflicting religions each claiming ownership of land either by divine right or legal process This is Book 1 of a legal journey beginning with representatives of Judaism Christianity and Islam each arguing their case for ownership of the same parcel of land before a specially convened Tribunal

The Middle East Stephen Bourke,2018-06-13 The Middle East The Cradle of Civilization synthesizes the latest research and information from a range of disciplines to tell the compelling story from the Neolithic period through to the Arab conquest of how a group of linguistically disparate nomadic tribes responded to specific social economic and environmental factors to form the world s first complex societies This is an authoritative detailed and accessible story divided into six easily navigable parts arranged chronologically and then into chapters exploring the history religion political and social organization art science and architecture of the peoples of the region The text is illustrated with more than 500 superb full colour images artifacts artworks statues reliefs buildings and landscapes as well as six detailed maps which bring the region s dramatic past vividly to life

Gender Through Time in the Ancient Near East Diane Bolger,2008-05-16 Although the ancient Near East has been studied by anthropologists archaeologists philologists and historians no single work has explored issues of gender and social identity across the broad temporal and geographical range of Near Eastern civilizations Gender Through Time in the Ancient Near East thus makes a unique contribution to gender studies The volume s contributors an international group of experts from Near Eastern European and American institutions look at the archaeological and other evidence to find out how gender roles were constructed in these ancient worlds and what they meant to the men and women who assumed them

Working at Home in the Ancient Near East Juliette Mas,Palmyra Notizia,2020-05-21 This volume examines the organization scale and the socio economic role played by institutional and non institutional households as well as the social use of domestic spaces in Bronze Age Mesopotamia

Handbook of Landscape Archaeology Bruno David,Julian Thomas,2016-06-03 Over 80 archaeologists from four continents create a benchmark volume of the ideas and practices of landscape archaeology covering the theoretical and the practical the research and conservation and encasing the term in a global framework Last House on the Hill Mirjana Stevanovic,Ruth Tringham,2012-12-31 Recipient of the Jo Anne Stolaroff Cotsen Prize Occupied from around 7500 BC to 5700 BC the large Neolithic and Chalcolithic settlement of Catalhoyuk in Anatolia is composed entirely of domestic buildings no public buildings have been identified First excavated in the early 1960s the site was left untouched until 1993 During the summers of 1997 2003 a team from the University of California at Berkeley the BACH team excavated an area at the northern end of the East Mound of Catalhoyuk The houses there date predominantly to the late Aceramic and early Ceramic Neolithic around 7000 BC Last House on the Hill is the final report of the BACH excavations This volume comprises both interpretive chapters and empirical data from the excavations and their materials The research of the BACH team focuses on the lives and life histories of houses and people the use of digital technologies in documenting and sharing the archaeological process the senses of place and the nature of cultural heritage and our public responsibilities Proceedings of the Society of Biblical Archaeology Society of Biblical Archaeology (London, England),1898 The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines Timothy Insoll,2017-04-13 Figurines dating from prehistory have been found across the world but have never before been considered globally The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines is the first book to offer a comparative survey of this kind bringing together approaches from across the landscape of contemporary research into a definitive resource in the field The volume is comprehensive authoritative and accessible with dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering figurines from the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australasia and the Pacific laid out by geographical location and written by the foremost scholars in figurine studies wherever prehistoric figurines are found they have been expertly described and examined in relation to their subject matter form function context chronology meaning and interpretation Specific themes that are discussed by contributors include for example theories of figurine interpretation meaning in processes and contexts of figurine production use destruction and disposal and the cognitive and social implications of representation Chronologically the coverage ranges from the Middle Palaeolithic through to areas and periods where an absence of historical sources renders figurines prehistoric even though they might have been produced in the mid 2nd millennium AD as in parts of sub Saharan Africa The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into past thinking on the human body gender identity and how the figurines might have been used either practically ritually or even playfully

Consciousness, Creativity, and Self at the Dawn of Settled Life Ian Hodder,2020-03-05 Challenges the widely held assumption that the Neolithic saw an overall cognitive revolution The Graven Image Zainab Bahrani,2011-09-16 Mesopotamia the world s earliest literate culture developed a rich philosophical conception of representation in which the world was saturated with signs Instead of imitating the natural world representation both in writing and in visual images was thought to participate in the world and to have an effect upon it in natural magical and supernatural ways The Graven Image is the first book to explore this tradition which developed prior to and apart from the Greek understanding of representation

The classical Greek system based on the notion of mimesis or copy is the one with which we are most familiar today. The Assyro-Babylonian ontology presented here by Zainab Bahrani opens up fresh avenues for thinking about the concept of representation in general and her reading of the ancient Mesopotamian textual and visual record in its own ontological context develops an entirely new approach to understanding Babylonian and Assyrian arts in particular. The Graven Image describes for the first time rituals and wars involving images, the relationship of divination, the organic body and representation, and the use of images as a substitute for the human form, integrating this ancient material into contemporary debates in critical theory. Bahrani challenges current methodologies in the study of Near Eastern archaeology and art history, introducing a new way to appreciate the unique contributions of Assyrian and Babylonian culture and their complex relationships to the past and present.

The ^AOxford Handbook of Early Southeast Asia C.F.W. Higham, Nam C. Kim, 2022-01-11. This handbook collects expert surveys of the prehistory of Southeast Asia, a two-millennial span that began with the arrival of now-extinct humans and ended with the great civilization of Angkor, 9th to 15th century.
