

Once upon a time a longed-for princess was born. She was as lovely as a rose, so the king and queen called her Briar Rose. A magnificent christening was held in the baby's honour, with the three Fates in attendance. The first Fate gifted the little girl beauty and kindness, the second a dash of wisdom and tenderness.

The enchanted rose was the work of the wicked witch. Its thick thorns grew all around the castle. One hundred years later, a young prince came by. Seeing a tower through the thicket, he decided to investigate. He jumped from his horse and – slash, thrash – made a path through the prickly fence.
