of brutal repression and explosive creative energy Where else he asks can you run into evil spirits on the back roads or find the goddess of fertility and orgasm represented by a photo of a tap dancing Shirley Temple Where else is there such generosity amid such corruption such humor in the midst of such desperation In his many Haitian travels Gold has dined with Graham Greene and chatted with the hated Duvalier oppressors He has traded stories with CIA saboteurs former Nazis rum soaked diplomats and voodoo priests He has taken in the cockfights and hunted for pirate treasure He has nearly died of malaria he has faced machete wielding gangs of Ton Ton Macoutes He followed the traffic in Haitian blood to American hospitals and watched the AIDS epidemic take its toll He listened to the steady beat of drums rolling down mist shrouded mountains and shared in the flirting drinking and laughter of the streets He has captured the essence of this land where tragedy is the music the people dance to Herbert Gold reflects on the country s history and politics culture and folklore but sees much more He sees Haiti through the eyes of a lover impassioned jealous probing ever alert and alive This book will be of interest to travelers to and people interested in the problems of Haiti and the Caribbean and collectors of Haitian art

Best Nightmare on Earth Herbert Gold,1992 A kaleidoscopic memoir of a 35 year love affair with mysterious exotic Haiti The dialogue the author conducts with this beleaguered island is rich with surprising revelations and startling juxtapositions The best all encompassing explanation of this tragic island country that I have read Digby Diehl Playboy Places Lost and Found Ronald Koury,2021-05-10 The Hudson Review has always had an international focus Travel and reports from abroad have figured prominently in the journal including essays on exotic and picturesque locales as well as accounts from war torn areas and the experiences of exiles Many of these are pilgrimages others are harrowing memoirs What unites even the most devastating of these accounts are intellectual curiosity and a spirit of adventure Places Lost and Found is a treasury of distinctive and compelling essays selected from six decades of the Hudson Review From a description of the gardens of Kyoto and a portrait of Syria just before its civil war to reflections on Veblen and the Mall of America these essays explore an array of places that are deeply layered with history and meaning The stunning cover photo of the Semper Opera House in Dresden encapsulates many of the themes of the book war and its aftermath the importance of the built environment in any discussion of place the endurance of civilization and resilience and of course the romance of travel The Greenwood Encyclopedia of LGBT Issues Worldwide Chuck Stewart,2009-12-18 This set has an ambitious scope with the goal of offering the most up to date international overview of key issues in the lives of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender individuals HIV AIDS has been a major media focus but this set fosters a broader understanding of the status of LGBT individuals in their society More than 70 countries are represented The clear accessible prose is appropriate for high school student research on up The material is especially needed in a cultural climate that increasingly supports and requires information about LGBT populations The content is useful for a paper on a hot topic health classes discussion groups and gay straight alliance groups

Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies,2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all

The Last Italian William Murray,1992-06 Drawing from a lifetime of writing about Italy William Murray takes us off the beaten path to give us more than landmarks more than art history more than four star restaurants and two dimensional landscapes He explores an Italy rarely seen the terrain of her soul and geography of her character Book jacket

Killing with Kindness Mark Schuller,2012-09-24 Winner of the 2015 Margaret Mead Award from the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology After Haiti's 2010 earthquake over half of U S households donated to thousands of nongovernmental organizations NGOs in that country Yet we continue to hear stories of misery from Haiti Why have NGOs failed at their mission Set in Haiti during the 2004 coup and aftermath and enhanced by research conducted after the 2010 earthquake Killing with Kindness analyzes the impact of official development aid on recipient NGOs and their relationships with local communities Written like a detective story the book offers rich ethnographic comparisons of two Haitian women's NGOs working in HIV AIDS prevention one with public funding including USAID the other with private European NGO partners Mark Schuller looks at participation and autonomy analyzing donor policies that inhibit these goals He focuses on NGOs roles as intermediaries in gluing the contemporary world system together and shows how power works within the aid system as these intermediaries impose interpretations of unclear mandates down the chain a process Schuller calls trickle down imperialism

Long Ago In France M.F.K. Fisher,1992-02-15 Recounts the author's three year stay in Dijon before the outbreak of World War II and details the people encountered there

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1619-1895 Paul Finkelman,2006-04-06 It is impossible to understand America without understanding the history of African Americans In nearly seven hundred entries the Encyclopedia of African American History 1619 1895 documents the full range of the African American experience during that period from the arrival of the first slave ship to the death of Frederick Douglass and shows how all aspects of American culture history and national identity have been profoundly influenced by the experience of African Americans The Encyclopedia covers an extraordinary range of subjects Major topics such as Abolitionism Black Nationalism the Civil War the Dred Scott case Reconstruction Slave Rebellions and Insurrections the Underground Railroad and Voting Rights are given the in depth treatment one would expect But the encyclopedia also contains hundreds of fascinating entries on less obvious subjects such as the African Grove Theatre Black Seafarers Buffalo Soldiers the Catholic Church and African Americans Cemeteries and Burials Gender Midwifery New York African Free Schools Oratory and Verbal Arts Religion and Slavery the Secret Six and much more In addition the Encyclopedia offers brief biographies of important African Americans as well as white Americans who have played a significant role in African American history from Crispus Attucks John Brown and Henry Ward Beecher to Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass Sarah Grimke Sojourner Truth Nat Turner Phillis Wheatley and many others All of the Encyclopedia s alphabetically arranged entries are accessibly written and free of jargon and technical terms To facilitate ease of use many composite entries gather similar topics under one headword The entry for Slave Narratives for example includes three subentries The Slave Narrative in America from the Colonial Period to the Civil War Interpreting Slave Narratives and African and British Slave Narratives A headnote detailing the various subentries introduces each composite entry Selective bibliographies and cross references appear at the end of each article to direct readers to related articles within the Encyclopedia and to primary sources and scholarly works beyond it A topical outline chronology of major events nearly 300 black and white illustrations and comprehensive index further enhance the work s usefulness
