Architecture And Design For The Family In Twentieth Century Britain:

Architecture and Design for the Family in Twentieth-century Britain, 1900-1970 David Jeremiah, 2000

Designing Modern Britain Cheryl Buckley, 2007-10-01 British culture is marked by indelible icons red double decker buses large oak wardrobes and the compact sleekness of the Mini But British industrial and product design have long lived in the shadows of architecture and fashion Cheryl Buckley here delves into the history of British design culture and in doing so uniquely tracks the evolution of the British national identity Designing Modern Britain demonstrates how interior design ceramics textiles and furniture craft of the twentieth century contain numerous hallmark examples of British design The book explores topics connected to the British design aesthetic including the spread of international modernism the eco conscious designs of the 1980s and 1990s and the influence of celebrity product designers and their labels Buckley also investigates popular nostalgia in recent times considering how museum and gallery exhibitions have been instrumental in reimagining Britain's past and how the heritage industry has fueled a growing trend among designers of employing images of British culture in their work A thoughtful look at the aesthetic heritage of a nation that has left its footprint around the globe

Designing Modern Britain will be a valuable text for students and professionals in design Women and Ceramics Moira Vincentelli, 2000 This pioneering collection of essays deals with the topic of how Irish literature responds to the presence of non Irish immigrants in Celtic Tiger and post Celtic Tiger Ireland The book assembles an international group of 18 leading and prestigious academics in the field of Irish studies from both sides of the Atlantic including Declan Kiberd Anne Fogarty and Maureen T Reddy amongst others Key areas of discussion are what does it mean to be multicultural and what are the implications of this condition for contemporary Irish writers How has literature in Ireland responded to inward migration Have Irish writers reflected in their work either explicitly or implicitly the existence of migrant communities in Ireland If so are elements of Irish traditional culture and community maintained or transformed What is the social and political efficacy of these intercultural artistic visions Writers discussed include Hugo Hamilton Roddy Doyle Colum McCann il's N Dhuibhne Dermot Bolger Chris Binchy Michael O Loughlin Emer Martin and Kate O Riordan Dress and Globalisation Margaret

Maynard, 2004-09-04 This work surveys dress and identity of cultures around the world It draws on issues of consumption ethnicity gender and the body as well as anthropological accounts and studies of representation The Autobiography of a Nation Becky Conekin, 2003-06-28 The first full length study on the 1951 Festival of Britain Stained glass and the Victorian Gothic revival Jim Cheshire, 2017-06-01 Stained glass reached the height of its popularity in the Victorian period But how did it become so popular and who was involved in this remarkable revival The enthusiasm for these often exquisite pieces of artwork spread from specialist groups of antiquarians and architects to a much wider section of the Victorian public By looking at stained glass from the perspective of both glass painter and patron and by considering how stained glass was priced bought and sold this enlightening study traces the emergence of the market for stained glass in Victorian England

Thus it contains new insights into the Gothic Revival and the relationship between architecture and the decorative arts Beautifully illustrated with colour plates and black and white illustrations this book will be valuable to those interested in stained glass and the wider world of Victorian art

The Culture of Fashion Christopher Breward,1995-05-15 This illustrated survey of 600 years of fashion investigates its cultural and social meaning from medieval Europe to twentieth century America Breward s work provides the reader with a clear guide to the changes in style and taste and shows that clothes have always played a pivotal role in defining a sense of identity and society especially when concerned with sexual and body politics

The Study of Dress History Lou Taylor,2002-05-03 Over the past ten years the study of dress history has finally broken free of the shackles that have held it back and is now benefiting from new multidisciplinary approaches and practices which draw on material culture art history ethnography and cultural studies This book focuses on the development of these new methods to be found within the field of dress history and dress studies and assesses the current condition and future directions of the subject

The Culture of Craft Peter Dormer,1997-06-15 Dormer presents a series of lively clearly argued discussions about the relevance of handicraft in a world whose aesthetics and design are largely determined by technology The question of computer aided design in craft is also addressed

Establishing Dress History Lou Taylor,2004-05-07 Establishing Dress History will appeal not only to students and academics bt all those those with an interest in the history of dress and fashion The title fuses together two areas of current academic interest dress design and history and current museum studies approaches

Model Britain David Lund,2024-10-22 Throughout the twentieth century architectural models served as the miniature playgrounds in which the future of Britain s built environment was imagined and in drawing from the evidence provided by those models today this book considers how architects planners and civil engineers thought about that future by presenting a history of yesterday s dreams of tomorrow told through architectural models Focused not on the making of architectural models but rather the optimistic and utopian visions they were made to communicate this book examines the possible futures put forward by 120 models made by Thorp the oldest and most prolific firm of architectural modelmakers in Britain in order to reveal a century of evolving ideas about how we might live work relax and move From depictions of unbuilt city masterplans to those of seemingly ordinary shopping centres and motorways the models featured trace a progression of the architectural social political technological and economic influences that shaped the design of Britain s buildings transport infrastructure and its towns and cities during a century of relentless change Illustrated with over 130 photographs this book will appeal to academics and historians as well as anyone with an interest in architectural models and the history of Britain s twentieth century built environment

Twentieth-century Britain F. M. Leventhal,2002 This encyclopedia contains some 500 articles arranged alphabetically from abortion to Yeats William Butler Leventhal British history Boston U chose the material partly to reflect his own interests in social and cultural history the history of the labor movement and in music and art but did not attempt to impose a universal style on contributors and included entries related to most major other aspects of 20th century British history Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Domestic Space Reader Kathy Mezei, Chiara Briganti, 2012-01-01 Tune in to HGTV visit your local bookstore's magazine section or flip to the Homes section of your weekend newspaper and it becomes clear domestic spaces play an immense role in our cultural consciousness The Domestic Space Reader addresses our collective fascination with houses and homes by providing the first comprehensive survey of the concept across time cultures and disciplines This pioneering anthology which is ideal for students and general readers features writing by key scholars thinkers and writers including Gaston Bachelard Mary Douglas Le Corbusier Homi Bhabha Henri Lefebvre Mrs Beeton Ma Thanegi Diana Fuss Beatriz Colomina and Edith Wharton Among the many engaging topics explored are the impact of domestic technologies on family life the relationship between religion and the home nomadic peoples and housing domestic spaces in art and literature and the history of the bedroom the kitchen and the bathroom The Domestic Space Reader demonstrates how discussions of domestic spaces can help us better understand our inner lives and challenge our perceptions of life in particular times and places

British Design Christopher Breward, Fiona Fisher, Ghislaine Wood, 2015-10-22 British Design brings together leading international scholars designers and journalists to provide new perspectives on British design in the last sixty years and how it at once looked back to the past with the continuation of traditions that spoke to Britain's design heritage and looked forwards with the embrace of modernist and postmodernist style The book responds to and develops new ways of understanding the recent history of design in Britain with case studies on designed spaces and objects including domestic interiors retail spaces schools and university buildings and transport The contributors address significant moments and phenomena in the historical and social history of British design from the rise and fall of the English Country House style and the Brutalist architectural boom of the 1960s to the modern shopping space and consider the work of key contemporary designers ranging from Tommy Roberts to Thomas Heatherwick British Design provides new criticism and analysis on how design from the immediate post war period to the present day has developed and changed how we live and how we interact with the spaces in which we live British Design is split into 13 chapters and is richly illustrated with 65 images 16 of which are in full colour

Night Raiders Eloise Moss, 2019-07-04 Night Raiders is the first history of burglary in modern Britain Until 1968 burglary was defined in law as occurring only between the night time hours of nine pm and six am in residential buildings Time and space gave burglary a unique cloak of terror since burglars victims were likely to be in the bedroom asleep and unawares when the intruder crept in prowling near them in the darkness Yet fear sometimes gave way to sexual fantasy eroticized visions of handsome young thieves sneaking around the boudoirs of beautiful lonely heiresses emerged alongside tales of violence and loss in popular culture confounding social commentators by casting the burglar as criminal hero Night Raiders charts how burglary lay historically at the heart of national debates over the meanings of home experiences of urban life and social inequality The book explores intimate stories of the devastation caused by burglars presence in the most private domains showing how they are deeply embedded within broader histories of capitalism and liberal democracy The fear and fascination surrounding burglary were mobilized by media state and market to sell insurance and security technologies whilst also popularising the crime in fiction theatre and film Cat burglars rooftop adventures transformed ideas about the architecture and policing of the city and post war spy burglars theft of information illuminated Cold War skirmishes across the capital More than any other crime burglary shaped the everyday rhythms purchases and perceptions of modern urban life

Libraries of Light Alistair Black, 2016-10-04 For the first hundred years or so of their history public libraries in Britain were built in an array of revivalist architectural styles This backward looking tradition was decisively broken in the 1960s as many new libraries were erected up and down the country In this new Routledge book Alistair Black argues that the architectural modernism of the post war years was symptomatic of the age's spirit of renewal In the 1960s public libraries truly became libraries of light and Black further explains how this phrase not only describes the shining new library designs with their open plan decluttered Scandinavian inspired designs but also serves as a metaphor for the public library's role as a beacon of social egalitarianism and cultural universalism A sequel to Books Buildings and Social Engineering 2009 Black's new book takes his fascinating story of the design of British public libraries into the era of architectural modernism

Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries

Step-daughters of England Jane Garrity, 2003 By reading the work of the British modernists Dorothy Richardson Sylvia Townsend Warner Mary Butts and Virginia Woolf through the lens of material culture this text argues that women's imaginative work is inseparable from their ambivalent complicated relation to Britain's imperial history

Cultural Ideals of Home Deborah Chambers, 2020-03-18 Spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries this book investigates how home is imagined staged and experienced in western culture Questions about meanings of home and domestic culture are triggered by dramatic changes in values and ideals about the dwellings we live in and the dwellings we desire or dread Deborah Chambers explores how home is idealised as a middle class haven managed as an investment and signified as a status symbol and expression of personal identity She addresses a range of public state commercial popular and expert discourses about home the heritage industry design exhibitions television social media home mobilities and migration smart technologies and ecological sustainability Drawing on cross disciplinary research including cultural history and cultural geography the book offers a distinctive media and cultural studies approach supported by original historically informed case studies on interior and domestic design exhibitions of model homes TV home interiors media home imaginaries multiscreen homes corporate visions of homes of tomorrow and digital smart homes A comprehensive and engaging study this book is ideal for students and researchers of cultural studies cultural history media and communication studies as well as sociology gender studies cultural geography and design studies

Designing the British Post-War Home Fiona Fisher, 2015-04-10 In Designing the British Post War Home Fiona Fisher explores the development of modern domestic architecture in Britain through a detailed study of the work of the successful Surrey based architectural practice of Kenneth Wood Wood's firm is representative of a geographically distinct category of post war architectural and design practice that of the small private practice that flourished in Britain's expanding suburbs after the removal of wartime building restrictions Such firms which played an important role in the development of British domestic design are currently under represented within architectural histories of the period The private house represents an important site in which new spatial material and aesthetic parameters for modern living were defined after the Second World War Within a British context the architect designed private house remained an important vehicle for the investigation of architectural ideas by second generation modernist architects and designers Through a series of case study houses designed by Wood's firm the book reconsiders the progress of modern domestic architecture in Britain and demonstrates the ways in which architectural discourse and practice intersected with the experience performance and representation of domestic modernity in post war Britain
