Carnets, catalogue des dessins (1) Brigitte Leal, 1996-01-01T00:00:00+01:00 Premier catalogue des carnets de dessins de Picasso ces deux volumes regroupent l'ensemble in extenso des cinquante huit carnets conservés au musée Picasso de Paris Rédigés entre 1899 et 1966 ils recouvrent toutes les tapes de la création de l'artiste et contiennent de nombreux inédits qui sont d'importantes révélations sur la naissance de ses œuvres phares comme Les Demoiselles d'Avignon en 1907 Véritables laboratoires centraux de son art ils nous permettent de pénétrer dans les arcanes de la genèse du cubisme du dialogue peinture sculpture de ses décors de théâtre et de ses portraits intimes La surprise vient de ce que Picasso leur faisait jouer toutes sortes de rôles les maquettes des peintures et creusets des sculptures mais aussi albums de voyages carnets d'adresses recueils de notes ou de confidences manuscrits de poèmes journaux intimes

Interurban Knowledge Exchange in Southern and Eastern Europe, 1870-1950 Eszter Gantner, Heidi Hein-Kircher, Oliver Hochadel, 2020-10-22 Around 1900 cities in Southern and Eastern Europe were persistently labeled backward and delayed Allegedly they had no alternative but to follow the role model of the metropolises of London Paris or Vienna This edited volume fundamentally questions this assumption It shows that cities as diverse as Barcelona Berdyansk Budapest Lviv Milan Moscow Prague Warsaw and Zagreb pursued their own agendas of modernization In order to solve their pressing problems with respect to urban planning and public health they searched for best practices abroad The solutions they gleaned from other cities were eclectic to fit the specific needs of a given urban space and were thus often innovative This applied urban knowledge was generated through interurban networks and multi directional exchanges Yet in the period around 1900 this transnational municipalism often clashed with the forging of urban and national identities highlighting the tensions between the universal and the local This interurban perspective helps to overcome nationalist perspectives in historiography as well as outdated notions of center and periphery This volume will appeal to scholars from a large number of disciplines including urban historians historians of Eastern and Southern Europe historians of science and medicine and scholars interested in transnational connections

Vegan Geographies Simon Springer, 2022-03-01 Veganism as an ethics and a practice has a recorded history dating back to Antiquity Yet it is only recently that researchers have begun the process of formalizing the study of veganism Whereas occasional publications have recently emerged from sociology history philosophy cultural studies or critical animal studies a comprehensive geographical analysis is missing Until now In fourteen chapters from a diverse group of scholars and living practitioners Vegan Geographies looks across space and scale exploring the appropriateness of vegan ethics among diverse social and cultural groups and within the midst of broader neoliberal economic and political frameworks that seek to commodify and marketize the movement Vegan Geographies fundamentally challenges outdated but still dominant human nature dualisms that underpin widespread suffering and ecological degradation providing practical and accessible pathways for people interested in challenging contemporary systems and working collectively toward less destructive worlds
