Werness, 2006-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume The Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in World Art Hope B. Werness, 2007 Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world The Encycloedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth Primordial Modernism Setz Cathryn Setz, 2019-08-05 Brings ideas and animals together to shed new light on modernist magazine culture Tests the concept of primordial modernism as a tributary of primitivism Jungian thought and fraught nationalisms Provides readings of Eugene Jolas's creative and critical works that place him centre stage in modernist studies Moves between unpublished archival material reception studies and readings of overlooked authors Considers a wide range of modernist authors and artists as befitting to such a rich document Touches on contemporary scientific discourse as an aspect of animal studies This adventurous study focuses on experimental animal writing in the major interwar journal transition 1927-1938 which contains a striking recurrence of metaphors around the most basic forms of life Amoebas fish lizards birds some of the lowest and oldest creatures on earth often emerge at the very places authors seek expressions for the newest and the highest in art Discussing works by James Joyce Henry Miller Gottfried Benn Eugene Jolas Kay Boyle Bryher Paul Irujo and more Cathryn Setz investigates this paradox and provides a new understanding of transition's contribution to twentieth century periodical culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler, 2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille

Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory

Finding Philosophers in Global Fiction Anway Mukhopadhyay, Saptarshi Mallick, Debashree Dattaray, 2024-09-05 A cross cultural study that explores and redefines what philosophy philosophizing and philosophers are through the lens of literature The academic discipline of philosophy may tell us too rigidly what a philosopher is or should be but fictional narration often upholds the core conundrums of humankind in which philosophy germinates This collection of essays explores whether a study of philosophers at a planetary scale or at least on a broad cross cultural spectrum can decouple philosophy from its academic aspect and lend it a more inclusive domain Contributors to this volume play with three conceptual poles making them interact with each other and get modified through this interaction fiction narrative and philosopher How do these three terms get semantically modified and broadened in scope when we speak of the figures of philosophers in imaginative writing How do these terms assume different connotations in different cultural contexts interacting with the multiplicity of not just thought but also the media and tools of thought Do we always think only rationally Or do we also think with and through emotively powerful images symbols and tropes In the end Finding Philosophers in Global Fiction insists on the need to de-elitize and democratize the concept of a philosopher by reflecting on the possibility of seeing a philosopher as one who sees things clearly from any vantage point

Rewriting the American Soul Anna Thiemann, 2017-09-13 Rewriting the American Soul focuses on the political implications of psychoanalytic and neurocognitive approaches to trauma in literature their impact on cultural representations of collective trauma in the United States and their subversive appropriation in pre and post 9/11 fiction Anna Thiemann connects cutting edge trauma theory with the historical context from which it emerged and shows that contemporary novels encourage us to reflect critically on the cultural meanings and political uses of trauma In doing so it contributes to a new generation of trauma scholarship that challenges the dominant paradigm in literary and cultural studies Moreover the book intervenes in current debates about the relationship between literature and neuroscience insisting that the so-called neuronovel scrutinizes scientific developments and their political ramifications rather than adopting and translating them into aesthetic practices

The Celebrity Monarch Olivia Gruber Florek, 2022-11-18 Empress Elisabeth of Austria 1837-1898 wife of Habsburg Emperor Francis Joseph I was celebrated as the most beautiful woman in Europe Glamorous painted portraits by Franz Xaver Winterhalter and widely collected photographs spread news of her beauty and the twentieth century German language film trilogy Sissi 1955-57 cemented this legacy. Despite the enduring fascination with the empress, art historians have never considered Elisabeth's role in producing her public portraiture or the influence of her creation. The Celebrity Monarch reveals how portraits of Elisabeth transformed monarchs from divinely appointed sovereigns to public personalities whose daily lives were consumed by spectators. With resources ranging from the paintings of Gustav Klimt and Elisabeth's private collection of celebrity photography to twenty-first century collages and films by T. J. Wilcox, this book positions Elisabeth herself as the primary engineer of her public image and argues for the widespread influence of her construction on both modern art and the emerging phenomenon of celebrity.

Piero di Cosimo Dennis Geronimus, Michael Kwakkelstein, 2019-03-25 The study of Piero di Cosimo belongs no less to the history of the imagination than to the history of art. As was true for Giorgio Vasari five centuries ago, Piero's intensely personal visual language remains a moving target for modern scholars. Yet as surprising and strange as his pictorial solutions appear, we have never known as much about Piero as we do today. Freed from the powerful spell of Vasari's biography cum cautionary tale, the Piero that emerges is not solely a conjurer of the uncanny but a sensitive observer of the emotions, the natural and manmade worlds, humans and beasts, surfaces and coloristic effects, phenomena, material and ephemeral. The conference from which the thirteen essays in this volume spring provided a forum for international scholars to continue the ongoing conversation and to ask new questions. The latter address Piero's relationship to his artistic contemporaries north and south of the Alps, the master's Marian imagery, his intellectual engagement with classical traditions, the dual themes of naturalism and exoticism, and the latest technical findings. Topics of investigation thus range as broadly as Piero's own versatile production uniting diverse fields and methods, traversing regional boundaries and often venturing far beyond Florence's city walls into the wild. Contributors are Ianthi Assimakopoulou, Marina Belozerskaya, Jean Cadogan, Elena Capretti, Alessandra Galizzi, Kroegel, Dennis Geronimus, Guy Hedreen, Sarah Blake McHam, Anna Teresa Monti, Paula Nuttall, Roberta J. M. Olson, Lesley Stevenson, Lisa Venerosi Pesciolini, and Elizabeth Walmsley.

Bees, Wasps, and Weasels Blaženka Scheuer, 2023-07-25 In this book Blaženka Scheuer explores the zoomorphic content of Zibburta, bee, wasp, and Karku, ta weasel demeaning names given by R Na man of b Meg 14b to Deborah and Huldah two distinguished prophets of the Hebrew Bible Looking closely at relevant texts she explores ancient beliefs about bees wasps and weasels recounting a variety of key literary and visual motifs that highlight the different attributes of these animals Scheuer demonstrates the multiple ways in which zoomorphic images were used as interpretative keys both in the formation of Deborah and Huldah stories in the Hebrew Bible and in their subsequent versions In a constant process of interaction with their cultural contexts such zoomorphism represents an attempt to define the rabbinic beliefs about the role of women in Jewish tradition but also about the nature of God Scheuer argues that the symbolic association of bees and weasels with asexual conception and birth also made the zoomorphic slurs about Deborah and Huldah effective as an argument against the doctrine of virgin birth in early Christianity Emphasizing the foundational process of constant negotiation of traditions and textual interpretations Scheuer exposes the culturally rich and religiously competitive world in which the biblical texts were transmitted

Merchants, Barons, Sellers and Suits Christa Mahalik, 2010-08-11 Merchants Barons Sellers and Suits The Changing Images of the Businessman through Literature originally began as a conversation about a hybrid course at Quinnipiac University Its purpose was to take an online English course for non traditional business majors and create a theme that would be relevant to the business world Being given the task to create this course from the ground up was exciting and intriguing There turned out to be a lot more material that could be used for this theme than previously thought To gauge the temperature of the topic a panel was set up with the theme of businessmen or women and their changing image through literature At the 2009 NeMLA Northeast Modern Language Association conference in Boston the panel was held and many ideas such as some of the ones presented in this book were discussed A secondary theme evolved out of the construction of the first Participants discussed the environment as a catalyst in the change of what a person actually thinks a businessman or woman looks like Many of these images were formed based upon pop culture such as the traveling salesman in the Looney Tunes cartoons who sells brushes door to door and hails from Walla Walla Washington Others were based on the images read about in books such as Willy Loman from Death of a Salesman The essays included in this volume presented by doctoral candidates and scholars from across a range of geographical regions and disciplines result in a collection that investigates the idea of the changing image of the businessman throughout literature both in America and in Europe The arrangement of the collection is a comparative timeline allowing the changing images of business to evolve with each essay

Conceiving Identities Kathryn M. Kueny, 2013-11-01 Explores how medieval Muslim theologians constructed a female gender identity based on an ideal of maternity and how women contested it Conceiving Identities explores how medieval Muslim theologians appropriate a woman s reproductive power to construct a female gender identity in which maternity is a central component Through a close analysis of seventh through fourteenth century exegetical works medical treatises legal pronouncements historiographies zoologies and other literary materials this study considers how medieval Muslim scholars map the female reproductive body according to broader cosmological schemes to generate a woman's role as mother. By close consideration of folk medicine and magic this book also reveals how medieval women contest the traditional maternal identities imagined for them and thereby reinvent themselves as mothers and Muslims. This innovative examination of the discourse and practices surrounding maternity forges new ground as it takes up the historical and epistemic construction of medieval Muslim women's identities.

Nabokov and the Russian Diaspora Bryan Karetnyk, 2025-11-01 This book presents a sustained and systematic analysis of the totalitarian topos across Vladimir Nabokov's life and career. Contributing to the ongoing reappraisal of Nabokov's writing in its engagement with politics and ideology, this study contends that the rise of totalitarianism constituted one of the most urgent substantial and complex issues with which Nabokov and his peers in emigration had to contend. Yet while the precarious exilic status of the Russian diaspora not only made the spread of totalitarian ideologies and dictatorships an acute and tangible danger, it also perversely afforded its members exceptionally free scope to respond intellectually and creatively as individuals outside and on the limits of these systems. This is the first book that critically and comprehensively examines Nabokov's literary and intellectual responses to the rise of totalitarian systems and ideologies, contextualizing them within those of his peers in the first wave of Russian emigration.

Consider the Birds Debbie Blue, 2013-08-20 From biblical times to today, humans have found meaning and significance in the actions and symbolism of birds. We admire their mystery and manners, their strength and fragility, their beauty and their ugliness, and perhaps compare these very characteristics to their own lives in the process. Though admired today, the birds of Scripture are largely unseen and underappreciated. From the well-known image of the dove to the birds that gorge on the flesh of the defeated beast in Revelation, birds play a dynamic part in Scripture. They bring bread to the prophets; they are food for the wanderers. As sacrifices, they are the currency of mercy. Highlighting 10 birds throughout Scripture, author Debbie Blue explores their significance in both familiar and unfamiliar biblical stories and illustrates how and why they have represented humanity across culture, Christian tradition, art, and contemporary psyche. With these usually minor characters at the forefront of human imaginations, poignant life lessons illuminate such qualities as desire and gratitude, power and vulnerability, insignificance and importance, even as readers gain a better understanding that God's mysterious grace is sometimes most evident in His simplest of creatures.

The Efflorescence of Caricature, 1759-1838 Todd Porterfield, 2017-07-05 Searing disputes over caricature have recently sparked flames across the world, the culmination, not the beginning, of the story of one of modernity's definitive artistic practices. Modern visual satire erupts during a period marked by reform and revolution, by cohering nationalisms and expanding empires, and by the emerging discipline of art history. This has long been recognized as its Golden Age. It is time to look anew. In The Efflorescence of Caricature, 1759-1838, an international interdisciplinary and intergenerational team of scholars reconfigures the geography of modern visual satire as the expansive narrative reaches from North America to Europe to China and the Ottoman Empire. Caricature's specific visual cultures are also laid bare, its
