Contradictions Of Control School Structure And School Knowledge:

Contradictions of Control Linda M. McNeil, 2013-10-14 McNeil traces the poor quality of high school instruction to the tensions between the social control purposes of schooling and the schools educational goals Contradictions of Control Linda M. McNeil, 2013-10-14 McNeil traces the poor quality of high school instruction to the tensions between the social control purposes of schooling and the schools educational goals Contradictions of School Reform Linda McNeil, 2002-09-11 Parents and community activists around the country complain that the education system is failing our children They point to students failure to master basic skills even as standardized testing is widely employed in efforts to improve the educational system Contradictions of Reform is a provocative look into the reality for students as well as teachers of standardized testing A detailed account of how student improvement and teacher effectiveness are evaluated Contradictions of Reform argues compellingly that the preparation of students for standardized tests engenders teaching methods that vastly compromise the quality of education Schools or Markets? Deron R. Boyles, 2004-12-13 This book challenges readers to consider the consequences of commercialism and business influences on and in schools Critical essays examine the central theme of commercialism via a unique multiplicity of real world examples Topics include privatization of school food services oil company ads that act as educational policy statements a parent s view of his child s experiences in a school that encourages school business partnerships commercialization and school administration teacher union involvement in the school business partnership craze currently sweeping the nation links between education policy and the military industrial complex commercialism in higher education including marketing to high school students intellectual property rights of professors and students and the bind in which professional proprietary schools find themselves and the influence of conservative think tanks on information citizens receive especially concerning educational issues and policy Schools or Markets Commercialism Privatization and School Business Partnerships is compelling reading for all researchers faculty students and education professionals interested in the connections between public schools and private interests The breadth and variety of topics addressed make it a uniquely relevant text for courses in social and cultural foundations of education sociology of education educational politics and policy economics of education philosophy of education introduction to education and cultural studies in education Advocacy Leadership Gary L. Anderson, 2009-05 Advocacy Leadership lays out a post reform agenda that moves beyond the neo liberal competition framework to define a new accountability a new pedagogy and a new leadership role definition in education The Allure of Order Jal Mehta, 2015 In The Allure of Order Mehta recounts a century of attempts at revitalizing public education and puts forward a truly new agenda to reach this elusive goal Over and over again outsiders have been fascinated by the promise of scientific management and have attempted to apply principles of rational administration from above What we want Mehta argues is the opposite approach which characterizes top performing educational nations attract strong candidates into teaching develop relevant and usable knowledge train teachers extensively in that knowledge and support these efforts through a strong welfare state

Unequal By Design Wayne Au, 2010-04-26 Unequal By Design critically examines high stakes standardized testing in order to illuminate what is really at stake for students teachers and communities negatively affected by such testing This thoughtful analysis traces standardized testing s origins in the Eugenics and Social Efficiency movements of the late 19th and early 20th century through its current use as the central tool for national educational reform via No Child Left Behind By exploring historical social economic and educational aspects of testing author Wayne Au demonstrates that these tests are not only premised on the creation of inequality but that their structures are inextricably intertwined with social inequalities that exist outside of schools

Black Literate Lives Maisha T. Fisher, 2008-12 This book offers an innovative approach to understanding the multi dimensional perspectives of Black literate lives in the U S It demonstrates the ways that minority groups keep their practices alive inside and outside of educational institutions even when these groups are oppressed

Learning To Teach in an Age of Accountability Arthur T. Costigan, Karen Kepler Zumwalt, Margaret Smith Crocco, 2004-09-10 This book documents the brave new world of teacher administrator school and student accountability that has swept across the United States in recent years Its particular vantage point is the perspective of dozens of new teachers trying to make their way through their first months and years working in schools in the New York City metropolitan area The issues they grapple with are not however unique to this context but common problems found today in urban suburban and rural schools across the United States The stories in this book offer a compelling portrait of these teachers encounters with the new culture of accountability and the strategies they develop for coping even succeeding within such demanding settings

Learning to Teach in an Age of Accountability introduces research on teaching and engages the big ideas concerning teacher research highlighting what we know and where that leads us offers a rich set of teacher narratives that are organized to widen the angle of vision from biography to classrooms schools and society and includes questions and activities to encourage discussion and further research about the ideas raised and addresses the possibilities for best practice and curricular decision making in light of the issues and ideas presented in the book This volume unique in its portrayal of new teachers encounters with issues of accountability makes a singular contribution to the educational literature on new teachers It is relevant to everyone interested in the contemporary world of teaching and is particularly appropriate as a text for preservice and in service students All readers who believe that the key to a good school lies in attracting and keeping good teachers will find the issues presented here both personally engaging and deeply troubling

Measuring History S. G. Grant, 2009-03-01 Measuring History complements the cases presented in Wise Social Studies Practices Yeager Davis 2005 Yeager and Davis highlight the rich and ambitious teaching that can occur in the broad context of state level testing In this book the chapter authors and I bring the particular state history tests more to the fore and examine how teachers are responding to them At the heart of Measuring History are cases of classroom teachers in seven states Florida Kentucky

Michigan New York Texas Mississippi and Virginia where new social studies standards and new and generally high stakes state level history tests are prominent In these chapters the authors describe and analyze the state s testing efforts and how those efforts are being interpreted in the context of classroom practice The results both support and challenge prevailing views on the efficacy of testing as a vehicle for educational reform Catherine Horn University of Houston and I lay the groundwork for the case studies through a set of introductory chapters that examine the current environment the research literature and the technical qualities of history tests

Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Warren Crichlow, 2013-05-13 This stunning new edition retains the book s broad aims intended audience and multidisciplinary approach New chapters take into account the more current backdrop of globalization particularly events such as 9 11 and attendant developments that make a reconsideration of race relations in education quite urgent

Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Cameron McCarthy, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Market Movements Thomas C. Pedroni, 2013-01-11 Winner of the 2009 Critics Choice Book Award of the American Educational Studies Association AESA Through careful ethnographic research Market Movements represents community leaders school officials and most importantly African American working class families who have used vouchers as a means of removing their children from public schools they deemed unacceptable The book works to discern the overlaps and tensions between the educational visions of African American voucher families and those of powerful conservative educational forces in U S society which purport to be allied with them To the extent that there are points of divergence with the educational right and points of convergence with educational progressives this book provides a hopeful message and a practical vision It seeks to accomplish some of the critical empirical and conceptual groundwork that is necessary in order to renew the increasingly fractious relations between those social actors teachers communities of color critical researchers and labor unions most likely to defend and expand previous social democratic victories

Could It Be Otherwise? Lois André-Bechely, 2013-10-11 Parents who wish to choose schools for their children must have more than a desire for different or better they need detailed knowledge of the processes and practices that will give them access to schools of choice This book vividly contrasts the experiences of a diverse group of urban parents choosing their children s schools with school choice policies from voluntary integration mandates to the No Child Left Behind Act Lois Andr Bechely carefully uncovers the race and class based inequities these policies sustain documenting the way parents themselves become complicit in the historical inequalities of schooling This book exposes how educational institutions are making this so and provokes new thinking about how public school choice could be implemented in more equitable and democratic ways

The End of Public Schools David W. Hursh, 2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public

Handbook of Research on Emerging Practices and Methods for K-12 Online and Blended Learning Heafner, Tina Lane, Hartshorne, Richard, Thripp, Richard, 2019-01-11 National efforts have been made to encourage technology integration in teacher preparation with expectations for frequent and successful applications with K 12 learners While online learning has become pervasive in many fields in education it has been somewhat slow to catch on in K 12 settings The Handbook of Research on Emerging Practices and Methods for K 12 Online and Blended Learning is a collection of innovative research on the applications of technology in online and blended learning environments in order to develop quality courses explore how content is delivered across disciplines and settings and support the formation of relationships and enrichment opportunities While highlighting topics including learning initiatives institutional policies and program structures this book is ideally designed for teachers principals early childhood development centers university faculty administrators policymakers researchers and practitioners
