David Laursen, 2002-09 A CAPITAL PLACE is how the author remembers Minnesota's historic Sandy Lake important fur trading hub promised land to a succession of Native American tribes 18th century capital of the Ojibwe Nation and strategic gateway to the Mississippi River from Lake Superior route followed by nearly all the famous men of Minnesota History In this Reminiscence spanning more than a half century Laursen writes of boyhood days on a primitive Sandy Lake fishing resort of his long struggle to become a writer of exciting years with a youthful Medtronic and of the inspiring sequence of events which led him and wife to a Bed Breakfast Inn on the shores of Leech Lake Going to (And With) the Dogs David

Laursen, 2008-06-19 The rollicking and often poignant adventures of a family hell bent on discovering what lies just over the horizon and willing to walk ride paddle and crawl to get there From the Outer Banks to the wild Pacific Rim from the Canadian Rockies to the Gulf of Mexico few areas of the continent have been spared the footprints tent stakes and occasional trespasses of these intrepid travelers Blizzards bears angry moose and tippy canoes were their lifetime companions and they stared them all down with the appropriate degree of terror and ineptitude These adventures take the reader on a journey across country as well as a journey through time As the miles and years slip by the travelers were reduced to three the author and his wife and their loyal dog Sophie Now it was time to travel more slowly to paddle quietly through canoe country and ponder the meaning of life death and the unknown destinations still beckoning beyond the horizon Winter Kill David

Laursen, 2006-02 Two men and one woman are stranded in the remote Canadian bush in the dead of winter Survival of the injured husband and his very beautiful wife depends on the competence of their guide The Witness and the Body in

Auschwitz Bozena Karwowska, 2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner different way of thinking about urban politics during the era of decolonization when one of the central dramas was the construction of the urban stage itself It shaped how people related not only to each other but also to the colonial state and later to the independent state as it stumbled into being Original deeply researched and beautifully composed this book speaks in innovative ways to scholarship on urban history colonialism and decolonization and the postcolonial state Replete with rare photographs and other materials from private collections Age of Concrete establishes Morton as one of a handful of scholars breaking new ground on how we understand Africa s cities
