

Coping With An Alcoholic Parent

Having an alcoholic parent is a difficult thing to explain to anyone else. You wonder why your parent can't be normal, like everyone else's. Why can't they show up to every game or school event? And then when they do show up, you worry that they'll embarrass you – that everyone will know your mom or dad isn't like theirs. You think you're the only one. Every other kid goes home to a cleaner house with dinner on the table and television show happiness, rather than the weird chaos that shows up in your own day-to-day life. The truth is that no one's life is "normal". Everyone has oddities in their family that they worry about. Everyone has problems.
