The Interracial Experience Ursula M. Brown, 2000-11-30 The number of black white mixed marriages increased by 504% in the last 25 years By offering relevant demographic research and sociocultural data as well as a series of intensely personal and revealing vignettes Dr Brown investigates how mixed race people cope in a world that has shoehorned them into a racial category that denies half of their physiological and psychological existence She also addresses their struggle for acceptance in the black and white world and the racist abuses many of them have suffered Brown interweaves research findings with interviews of children of black white interracial unions to highlight certain psychosocial phenomenon or experiences She looks at the history of interracial marriages in the United States and discusses the scientific and social theories that underlie the racial bigotry suffered by mixed people Questions of racial identity conflict and self esteem are treated as are issues of mental health An important look at contemporary mixed race issues that will be of particular interest to scholars researchers students and professionals dealing with race family and mental health concerns

The Socialization of the African American Child Sekou Clincy, 2010-08 Today we have occurrences that are unprecedented in the history of America a vast divide between the rich and poor irreversible environmental damage over half of African American children living in single parent households and high incarceration rates among African American young people When oppressed folk are driven into desperate channels criminal activity is likely to follow Thus it is imperative to take a good look at what black people are doing and not doing as parents or immediate caregivers which ultimately will determine the future of the black race It is equally imperative to study the past Indeed when a people don't know who they are their history they perish This fact should motivate us to move in unparalleled directions toward survival Back cover

How to Deal with Parents and Other Problems Ernest Glenn Osborne, 1962 Teaching Tolerance Sara Bullard, 1997-08-18 Teaching Tolerance is an invitation to parents and teachers an invitation to examine their own habits and attitudes toward the community around them Sara Bullard believes that once a parent is aware of the attitudes they were raised with it is easier for them to teach their children true tolerance toward others The first chapters of Teaching Tolerance focus on the humanness of intolerance no one is truly exempt from the habit of judging others The fourth chapter outlines the work required to alter intolerant instincts The last four chapters walk parents through children's need for security self expression and moral guidance needs which if respectfully met will free them to be comfortable both with themselves and with people of different backgrounds Bullard concludes each chapter with questions and suggestions for journal writing to help parents further explore their own attitudes Also included is an extensive list of books toys games and music that explore ethnicity and promote tolerance Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with Identity Issues Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 1999-11-30 The search for one's identity is an ancient quest reflected throughout history in stories where human glory and conquest are often layered with great pain and self doubt meant to help people discover themselves and who they are Today this quest is found prevalently in young adult novels where characters wrestle with modern dilemmas in order to find themselves This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels and how to use them effectively Educators and therapists explore the literature where common identity issues are addressed in ways intriguing to teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on how to encourage adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills Twelve novels are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective allowing the readers to meet the central figures as if they were living human beings Each chapter is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist and confronts a different identity issue examining such dilemmas as body image the father son relationship bigotry and peer relations This pair of experts tries to define the central character's struggle in each novel to discover who they are and to become self actualized individuals Each chapter also provides an annotated bibliography of other works both fiction and nonfiction that explore these same issues to give readers not only the insight into helping teenagers with similar problems but also the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems This innovative approach is meant to provide the opportunity for adults and adolescents to better understand each other

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Stepparenting Ericka Lutz, 1998 You're no idiot of course You know how to push a toddler on a swing the recipe for the best gooey chocolate chip cookies and even how to get teens to confide in you Your own kids think you're hip too although they'd never admit to it But when it comes to figuring out how not to come across as the wicked stepparent you feel like you need a magical potion Don't reach for the garlic yet The Complete Idiot's Guide to Stepparenting gives you sanity saving advice for dealing with the stepfamily getting to know your stepchildren and feeling confident in your role In this Complete Idiot's Guide you get Tips for dealing with the dreaded first meeting The top 10 complaints of stepmoms and stepdads and how to deal with them Disciplining do's and don'ts Practical suggestions for dealing with the Ex Expert advice on making time for romance A Journey of Healing the Damaged Soul Dominic Maka, Jaichima, 2010-05 I thought my life was in no particular turmoil when I first met Jaichima and Vicente in 1992 Retrospectively I was lost confused and hanging onto life by a thread a thread of delusions spun by suppression and repression and concealed by layers of addiction and denial Although college educated and successful I was feeling increasingly frustrated depressed and unhappy for unknown reasons Moving from the Midwest to Arizona failed to effectively alter my disposition Closing my business and quitting my job did not help The truth remained concealed even after two years of intervention by the Mara akames Slowly via counseling ceremonies and workshop involvement the truth began to emerge Thirty years of repression addiction denial and delusion gradually surrendered their ugly tentacles revealing horrendous untreated childhood sexual and parental abuse Untreated the effects of my childhood trauma developed into a severe Post Traumatic Stress Disorder that has been expressed through unconscious imbalanced entity behaviors most of my life When counseling began my life instantly unraveled I became confused angry and disconnected with the person I never knew or understood myself Though repression and denial saved my life intervention unlocked the door exposing my damaged entities that were created during childhood nurtured during teen years and perfected during adulthood absent counseling These life saving entities silently and unknowingly controlled my life Through the Mara akames nontraditional intervention guidance and healing techniques my nonexistent spirituality gradually transformed into deep spiritual awareness This spirituality became the essential foundation for my healing and was rudimentary for unveiling my horrific past This candid story reveals how blind adulation of my father led to horrendous childhood sexual and parental abuse with subsequent complete repression and denial It reveals my atrocious past defines my entities and discusses my healing process after thirty years of repression It also elucidates the non traditional healing techniques foremost spirituality taught by the Mara akames Jaichima is a Mara akame from the Huichol tribe called Wirarika of the Sierra Madre Mountains of Mexico She has practiced ancient and traditional tribal medicine for many years in Mexico and the United States She speaks numerous languages and has been a committed medicine woman all of her life Dominic Maka has been employed as a health care and vocational rehabilitation professional throughout his career For ten years he owned and operated a successful consulting business He has been married thirty years and is the father of three children
