modern spirit The author's intimate acquaintance with an extraordinary range of modern literature enables him to demonstrate the variety of strategies that poets and novelists have used to assimilate The Golden Bough in their individual attitudes and preoccupations The remaining chapters of the book are devoted to extended discussions of the intellectual thematic and format impact of The Golden Bough on Yeats Eliot Lawrence and Joyce Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Gendering the Nation Christopher Whyte, 2019-08-08 Too often seen as a ghost from the past nationalism has resurfaced as a major factor in European politics and culture A powerful commitment to national autonomy has marked Scottish writing throughout the twentieth century How has the emergence of new voices from feminist gay and lesbian critics transformed that commitment How critical and pluralistic can the new nationalisms be This collection serves notice that the tradition is being read in new and disruptive ways Five women and four men examine the relationship between gender and nationality how male and female authors portray women the treatment of sexuality in Scottish writing the construction of Scottish masculinity and its relation to class and homophobia Covering modern fiction and theatre poetry film and television it is a provocative reassessment of the gender and culture of a stateless nation

History and Narration Marialuisa Bignami, 2011-07-12 The relation between narration and history from the perspective of the twentieth century the century of criticisms suggests a new outlook fit for the new millennium We can no longer look at history and historiography naively but must be aware of the rhetorical strategies that are at work in the writing A research group based in Milan has been working on this topic for a few years discussing authors and texts from different genres and epochs The essays presented here deal with texts chosen because of their intrinsic relevance to the history of English speaking cultures and recent critical perspectives largely but not exclusively indebted to Hayden White Thus the volume considers instances of narrativity and historical discourse in authors as diverse as S Johnson E Chambers C Hill J Raban V Woolf N Mitchison V S Naipaul S Rushdie J M Coetzee A Ghosh
